Marill,2011-06-01 Westerns have featured prominently in films almost since motion pictures were first produced at the end of the nineteenth century and when televisions invaded American homes in the late 1940s and early 50s Western programs filled the small screen landscape Throughout the 1950s and well into the 1960s these shows dominated television with such long running successes as Bonanza Wagon Train and Maverick And though the genre has fallen on hard times over the years it has never died as Hollywood continues to produce films mini series and shows that keep the west alive In Television Westerns Six Decades of Sagebrush Sheriffs Scalawags and Sidewinders Alvin H Marill looks at the genre as it was represented from the beginning of television from the twenty year run of Gunsmoke to the brutal revisionist take of

Deadwood This volume encompasses all manifestations of the Western including such series as Rawhide The Virginian and The Wild Wild West as well as movies of the week mini series failed pilots animated programs documentaries and even Western themed episodes of non Western series that provided their own spin on the genre Western and Frontier Film and Television Credits 1903-1995 Harris M.
