New Approaches to Chinese Word Formation Jerome L. Packard, 2011-07-22 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language. The series publishes state of the art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages. It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints. High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing.

Cognitive Processing of Chinese and Related Asian Languages Hsuan-Chih Chen, 1997 The aim of this volume is to integrate the most recent research in the cognitive processing of Chinese and related Asian languages i.e. Japanese and Korean into a single academic reference. Because so much more was learned about the topic over the past several years the proposed volume is intended to provide something like a state of art review and to capture what is currently going on in a new and rapidly expanding field.

The Horizontal Skyscraper Bjørn B. Erring, 2002 Chinese cities are undergoing profound changes. Urban development has transformed the townscape: low rise structures based on courtyard type housing horizontal in character have been replaced by vertical constructions. In the 1980s and 1990s Chinese cities were featured by the conflicting wishes for rapid modernization and cultural continuity. The articles of this book refer to experiences drawn from this particular period of time and are selected among case studies and related theoretical considerations. The case studies are concentrated on four cities: Beijing, Xi'an, Quanzhou and Shanghai. The authors have all been active in different fields of urban transformation in historic Chinese cities. They are politicians, historians, planners, anthropologists, architects and scholars. The articles describe the substantial transformation of the cities and the implications of this change. The contributing authors represent three countries: China, France and Norway. They all participated in two conferences in 1995 and 1996 dealing with urban renewal in housing areas of traditional Chinese cities. The outcome of these conferences constitute the raw material for this book.

New Terms for New Ideas Michael Lackner, Iwo Amelung, Joachim Kurtz, 2021-11-15 This volume is about the lasting impact of new Western notions on the 19th and early 20th century Chinese language: their invention, spread and standardization. Reaching beyond the mere cataloguing of the thousands of lexical innovations in this period of change, the essays explore the multiple ways in which initially alien notions were naturalized in Chinese scientific and political discourse. Topics examined range from preconceptions about the capacity of the Chinese language to accommodate foreign ideas, the formation of specific nomenclatures and the roles of individual translators to Chinese and European attempts at coming to terms with each other's grammar. By systematically analysing and assessing the lexical adaptation of Western notions in Chinese contexts the book will serve as a valuable reference work for all those interested in the historical semantics of modern China. A Comparative Study of Chinese and Western Legal Language and Culture Falian Zhang, 2021-03-08 This book involves a variety of aspects and levels including the diachronic and synchronic dimensions. Law profoundly affects our daily lives but its language and culture can at times be nearly impossible to understand. As a comparative study of Chinese and Western legal language and legal culture this book investigates the similarities and differences of both sides and identifies their respective advantages and disadvantages. Accordingly it considers both social and cultural functions and both theoretical and practical values. Firstly the book addresses the differences that is the basic frameworks and disparities between the Chinese and Western legal languages and legal cultures. Secondly it explores relevant changes over time that is the historical evolution and the basic driving forces that were at work before the Chinese and Western legal languages and cultures met. Lastly the book elaborates on their fusion that is the conflicts and changes in Chinese and Western legal languages and cultures in China in the modern era as well as the introduction, transplantation and transformation of Western legal culture. The Moral Metaphor System Ning Yu, 2022 This book uses conceptual metaphor theory to explore moral metaphors in English and Chinese. Ning Yu sheds light on the metaphorical nature of moral cognition and how it is systematically manifested in language and explores the potential commonalities that define moral cognition and the differences that characterize distinct cultures. Bilingual Lexicography from a Communicative Perspective Heming Yong, Jing Peng, 2007 This stimulating new book as the premier work introducing bilingual lexicography from a communicative perspective is launched to represent original thinking and innovative theorization in the field of bilingual lexicography. It treats the bilingual dictionary as a system of intercultural communication and bilingual dictionary making as a dynamic process realized by sets of choices characterizing the overall nature of the dictionary. It examines the dictionary and dictionary making by using a model of lexicography which stresses the three-way relationship of compiler, dictionary context and user and incorporates them into a unified coherent framework. Throughout the study special focus is on English and Chinese bilingual lexicography. It will serve not only as a valuable guide to those interested in dictionary compilation and theoretical inquiries but also as a textbook for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in bilingual lexicography. National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1974 First multi-year cumulation covers six years 1965-70. China and the International Society Jinjun Zhao, 2014 What is the relationship between China and the international society? It is a question of historical and realistic significance for China and the world to answer. Since the reform and opening up China initiated a journey to get integrated into the international society. As an emerging power China is trying to seek identities, display strength and build a good reputation.
