Kennedy,1975-01-23 In this penetrating study Andrew Kennedy sets out to analyse the modern movement in drama through the theatrical language of six key figures writing in English Shaw Eliot Beckett Pinter Osborne and Arden Dr Kennedy argues that a study of theatrical language should be an exercise in practical criticism and not merely narrowly linguistic The whole range of theatrical expressiveness must be examined in detail from play text and performance alike and the conclusions correlated with the author's known intentions if a full evaluative judgement is to be attempted Dr Kennedy shows how the modern movement in drama reveals a growing difficulty in creating any type of fully expressive dramatic language He has written a work with an unusual breadth of reference which should prove of value to all students of modern drama modern English and European literature and to the theatre going public Modern Language Teaching, 1906 The Complete Monty Python's Flying Circus Monty Python, Graham Chapman, Eric Idle, Terry Gilliam, Terry Jones, 1989-11-12 ALMOST CERTAINLY NOMINATED FOR SOMETHING SOMEWHERE The complete scripts from the four Monty Python series first shown on BBC television between 1969 and 1974 have been collected in two companion volumes Characters names often not spoken are given as in the original scripts along with the names of the actual performer added on their first appearance in each sketch This first volume contains twenty three classic episodes featuring some of the most entertaining writing to have gone into television anywhere The minister of silly walks the dead parrot banter in a cheese shop here is every silly satirical skit every snide insult every saucy aside Wonder Woman and Philosophy Jacob M.
