Drama + Theory Peter Buse, 2001 Peter Buse illuminates the relationship between modern British drama and contemporary critical and cultural theory He demonstrates how theory allows fresh insights into familiar drama pairing well known plays with classic theory texts The theoretical text is more than applied to the dramatic text instead Buse shows how they reflect on each other Drama Theory provides not only provides new interpretations of popular plays but of the theoretical texts as well

1956 and All that Dan Rebellato, 1999 It is said that British Drama was shockingly lifted out of the doldrums by the revolutionary appearance of John Osborne's Look Back in Anger at the Royal Court in May 1956 But had the theatre been as ephemeral and effeminate as the Angry Young Men claimed Was the era of Terence Rattigan and Binkie Beaumont as repressed and closeted as it seems In this bold and fascinating challenge to the received wisdom of the last forty years of theatrical history Dan Rebellato uncovers a different story altogether It is one where Britain's declining Empire and increasing panic over the problem of homosexuality played a crucial role in the construction of an enduring myth of the theatre By going back to primary sources and rigorously questioning all assumptions Rebellato has rewritten the history of the Making of Modern British Drama

The Making of Theatrical Reputations Yael Zarhy-Levo, 2008-04-21 Today's successful plays and playwrights achieve their prominence not simply because of their intrinsic merit but because of the work of mediators who influence the whole trajectory of a playwright's or a theatre company's career Critics and academic writers are primarily considered the makers of reputations but funding organizations and various media agents as well as artistic directors producers and directors also pursue separate agendas in shaping the reputations of theatrical works In The Making of Theatrical Reputations Yael Zarhy-Levo demonstrates the processes through which these mediatory practices by key authority figures situate theatrical companies and playwrights within cultural and historical memory To reveal how these authorizing powers that be promote theatrical events companies and playwrights Zarhy Levo presents four detailed case studies that reflect various angles of the modern London theatre In the case of the English Stage Company s production of John Osborne s Look Back in Anger she centers on a specific event She then focuses on the trajectory of a single company the Theatre Workshop particularly through its first decade at the Theatre Royal Stratford East London Next she explores the career of the dramatist John Arden especially its first ten years in part drawing upon an interview with Arden and his wife actress and playwright Margaretta D Arcy before turning to her fourth study the playwright Harold Pinter s shifting reputation throughout the different phases of his career Zarhy Levo s accounts of these theatrical events companies and playwrights through the prism of mediation bring fresh insights to these landmark productions and their creators
