Islam, Modernity and a New Millennium Ali Paya,2018-02-02 As the world becomes increasingly globalised Islam faces some important choices Does it seek to modernise in line with the cultures in which it is practised or does it retain its traditions even if they are at odds with the surrounding society This book utilizes a critical rationalist viewpoint to illuminate many of the hotly contended issues in modern Islam and to offer a fresh analysis A variety of issues within Islam are discussed in this book including Muslims and modernity Islam Christianity and Judaism approaches to the understanding of the Quran Muslim identity and civil society doctrinal certainty and violent radicalism In each case the author makes use of Karl Popper s theory of critical rationalism to uncover new aspects of these issues and to challenge post modern relativist literalist and justificationist readings of Islam This is a unique perspective on contemporary Islam and as such will be of significant interest to scholars of Religious Studies Islamic Studies and the Philosophy of Religion
