Deleuze and the Schizoanalysis of Visual Art Ian Buchanan, Lorna Collins, 2014-07-31 The concept of schizoanalysis is Deleuze and Guattari's fusion of psychoanalytic inspired theories of the self the libido and desire with Marx inspired theories of the economy history and society Schizoanalysis holds that art's function is both political and aesthetic it changes perception If one cannot change perception then one cannot change anything politically This is why Deleuze and Guattari always insist that artists operate at the level of the real not the imaginary or the symbolic Ultimately they argue there is no necessary distinction to be made between aesthetics and politics They are simply two sides of the same coin both concerned with the formation and transformation of social and cultural norms Deleuze and the Schizoanalysis of Visual Art explores how every artist good or bad contributes to the structure and nature of society because their work either reinforces social norms or challenges them From this point of view we are all artists we all have the potential to exercise what might be called a aesthetico political function and change the world around us or conversely we can not only let the status quo endure but fight to preserve it as though it were freedom itself Edited by one of the world's leading scholars in Deleuze Studies and an accomplished artist curator and critic this impressive collection of writings by both academics and practicing artists is an exciting imaginative tool for a upper level students and academics researching and studying visual arts critical theory continental philosophy and media

Francesca Woodman and the Kantian Sublime Claire Raymond, 2017-07-05 In her feminist inquiry into aesthetics and the sublime Claire Raymond reinterprets the work of the American photographer Francesca Woodman 1958-1981 Placing Woodman in a lineage of women artists beginning with nineteenth century photographers Julia Margaret Cameron and Clementina Viscountess Hawarden Raymond compels a reconsideration of Woodman's achievement in light of the gender dynamics of the sublime Raymond argues that Woodman's photographs of decrepit architecture allegorically depict the dissolution of the frame a dissolution Derrida links to theories of the sublime in Kant's Critique of Judgement Woodman's self portraits Raymond contends test the parameters of the gaze a reading that departs from the many analyses of Woodman's work that emphasize her dramatic biography Woodman is here revealed as a conceptually sophisticated artist whose deployment of allegory and allusion engages a broader debate about Enlightenment aesthetics and the sublime

The Uses of Art in Public Space Julia Lossau, Quentin Stevens, 2014-12-05 This book links two fields of interest which are too seldom considered together the production and critique of art in public space and social behaviour in the public realm Whilst most writing about public art has focused on the aesthetic cultural and political intentions and processes that shape its production this edited collection examines a variety of public artworks from the perspective of their actual everyday use Contributors are interested in the rich diversity of people's engagements with public artworks across various spatial and temporal scales encounters which do not limit themselves to the representational aspects of the art and which are not necessarily as the artist curator or sponsor intended Case studies consider a broad range of public art including commissioned and unofficial artworks memorials street art street furniture performance art sound art and media installations

Doing Museology Differently Duncan Grewcock, 2013-09-05 One might believe that museum studies is a stable field of academic inquiry based on a set of familiar institutional forms and functions But as institutions museums have never been stable or singular and neither has the discipline of museum studies Museum studies as a field of academic inquiry has received little critical attention One result of this neglect has arguably been a lack of invention in museum studies another is the distancing of academic museum studies from museum practice Doing Museology Differently charts a different course A critical creative reflection on academic practice the book takes the form of a narrative account of museological fieldwork A research story unfolds challenging academic conventions at the level of its own presentation the book combines critical museum visiting with an autobiographical voice The identification of a previously underexplored interdisciplinary space leads the author to experiment with museum studies using contemporary developments in the theory and practice of human geography The new approaches to museological research and representation that emerge from this unique inquiry challenge assumed institutional and intellectual boundaries and act as a call to further creative experimentation

A Surrealist Stratigraphy of Dorothea Tanning's Chasm Catriona McAra, 2016-11-10 In A Surrealist Stratigraphy of Dorothea Tanning's Chasm Catriona McAra offers the first critical study of the literary work of the celebrated American painter and sculptor Dorothea Tanning 1910-2012 McAra fills a major gap in the scholarship repositioning Tanning's writing at the centre of her entire creative oeuvre and focusing on a little known short story Abyss a gothic flavoured desert adventure which Tanning worked on intermittently throughout her creative life finally publishing it in 2004 as Chasm A

Weekend McAr performs a major reassessment of the visual and literary principles upon which the surrealist movement was initially founded Combining a groundbreaking methodological approach with reference to cultural theory and feminist aesthetics as well as Tanning s unpublished journals and notes McAr reveals Tanning as a key player in contemporary art practice as well as in the historical surrealist milieu The Wall Beside the Work Derek Pigum,2021-06-23 This book is about the way artists generate an endless chain of substitute objects for something they can never quite find It explores the work involved in art with a focus upon finding gathering and assembling charged and auratic objects on the wall beside the work The author employs the term Das Gegenwerk or the work towards the work This concept avoids definitive closure and expands the notion of drafting and related practices to include qualitative research methods The multi mode transitional practices of Das Gegenwerk are devoid of any demand for a preconceived goal but instead hinge upon the provisional and indeterminate As such it is a far cry from the binary logic of the computer and the design cycle but is of interest to an audience engaged with both Das Gegenwerk hinges on our capacity to respond to the outside rather than the inwardness often attributed to creative agency A fundamental belief of the book is that by investigating and adapting the practices of expert practitioners we can gain an understanding of high level creativity It is neither a recipe nor a linear or cyclic approach Rather artistic creation is an interweave of transitional multi mode practices where the overriding emphasis is on the handling or habituation of transitional materials in physical place The author addresses the urgent need to provide a balance between the promise of new technology and our capacity to both respond to and work with what the world bestows Of What One Cannot Speak Mieke Bal,2011-03-15 Doris Salcedo a Colombian born artist addresses the politics of memory and forgetting in work that embraces fraught situations in dangerous places Noted critic and theorist Mieke Bal narrates between the disciplines of contemporary culture in order to boldly reimagine the role of the visual arts Both women are pathbreaking figures globally renowned and widely respected Doris Salcedo meet Mieke Bal In Of What One Cannot Speak Bal leads us into intimate encounters with Salcedo s art encouraging us to consider each work as a theoretical object that invites and demands certain kinds of considerations about history death erasure and grief Bal ranges widely through Salcedo s work from Salcedo s Atrabiliarios series in which the artist uses worn shoes to retrace los desaparecidos the disappeared from nations like Argentina Chile and Colombia to Shibboleth Salcedo s once in a lifetime commission by the Tate Modern for which she created a rupture as if by earthquake that stretched the length of the museum hall s concrete floor In each instance Salcedo s installations speak for themselves utilizing household items human bones and common domestic architecture to explore the silent spaces between violence trauma and identity Yet Bal draws out even deeper responses to the work questioning the nature of political art altogether and introducing concepts of metaphor time and space in order to contend with Salcedo s powerful sculptures and installations An unforgettable fusion of art and essay Of What One Cannot Speak takes us to the very core of events we are capable of remembering yet still uncomfortably cannot speak aloud Eva
