Beaton,2013-08-01 When young widow Lady Lovelace realized she had been swindled to near bankruptcy by her curmudgeonly cousin she knew she would have to marry again for money These were the very thoughts of Lord Philip who had nothing between him and destitution but his small army pension And so these two attractive fortune hunters somehow found each other and before long popped into marriage and into the bridal chamber only to discover they were both virtually penniless What a diabolical situation What would they do now The Deemster Hall Caine,1894 The Land We Live in Francis Ludlow Holt,1805 The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl,Emily Morris,2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement Sir Gardner Wilkinson and His Circle Jason Thompson,2010-07-22 Following in the footsteps of Napoleon s army Europeans invaded Egypt in the early nineteenth century to gaze in wonder at the massive inscrutable remains of its ancient civilizations One of these travelers was a twenty four year old Englishman John Gardner Wilkinson His copious observations of ancient and modern Egyptian places artifacts and lifeways recorded in such widely read publications as Manners and Customs of the Ancient Egyptians and Handbook for Travellers in Egypt made him the leading early Victorian authority on ancient Egypt and paved the way for the scientific study of Egyptology In this first full scale biography of Wilkinson 1797 1875 Jason Thompson skillfully portrays both the man and his era He follows Wilkinson during his initial sojourn in Egypt 1821 1833 as Wilkinson immersed himself in a contemporary Egyptian lifestyle and in study of its ancient past He shows Wilkinson in his circle of friends among them Edward William Lane Robert Hay and Frederick Catherwood And he traces how Wilkinson continued to use his Egyptian material in the decades following his return to England With the rise of professional Egyptology in the middle and later nineteenth century Sir Gardner Wilkinson came to be viewed as an amateur and his popularity diminished Drawing upon recently opened sources Thompson returns Wilkinson to his rightful place within centuries of Egyptian scholarship and assesses both the vision and the limitations of his work The result is a compelling portrait of a Victorian gentleman scholar and his cultural milieu Herdbook Containing the Pedigree of Improved Short-horn Cattle ,1855 Vols include the Shorthorn Society s Grading register for beef Shorthorn cattle v include the society s Herd book of poll shorthorns The Women Who Make History Collection [3-Book Boxed Set] Rachel Ignatofsky,2022-09 For the first time the New York Times bestseller Women in Science Women in Sports and Women in Art
