Dear Hope-- Love, Grandma Hilda Abramson Hurwitz, Hope R. Wasburn, 1993 Eight year old Hope's summer project for school was to become the pen pal of a senior citizen. When her assigned pen pal failed to write back, Hope's mother suggested she write to her grandmother. The result was a two year correspondence. This book is a collection of the letters in which Hope's grandmother reveals the stories of her childhood including the difficulties growing up in turn of the century St. Louis. Ultimately the correspondence teaches readers of all ages some wonderful and joyous insights about human hearts.

Her Husband's Crossing Steven W. Moore, 2011-03-11 The only person seventy seven year old Robert Landon recognizes is his daughter Heather. Robert doesn't know his grandchildren Carrie and Brian. But most importantly Robert suffering from the early stages of Alzheimers doesn't know his wife Jessica. Heather is determined to rectify this situation. She knows her parents forty two year relationship is a love story for the ages. Heather and Jessica concoct a plan to help jog Robert's memory to remind him that his one true love is waiting for him. The doctor however warns that the plan could backfire and Robert could become upset hearing the details of his past. From his birth in 1900 to attending college at New York University to becoming a US Senator Heather recaps the details of Robert's life for him. She reminds him of his desire to be successful in the era prior to the Great Depression and how these events found him caught in a whirlwind of trouble. Trouble with the law, trouble with trying to find a means of supporting himself as well as trouble with an entangled weave of numerous women who were in awe of him. But will he ever be able to remember the woman from his past who calls him her husband?
