As Pilgrims Progress - Learning how Christians can walk hand in hand when they don't see eye to eye Stephen John March,David E. Bjork,2015-05-29 This book is for Roman Catholic and Evangelical Protestant lay people who wonder what relationship if any they might have with their friends who come from a different Christian faith tradition than their own The authors aim to address that question in a practical way They believe that while disagreements remain it is possible to preserve the integrity of the faith while relating positively to Christians who cherish other beliefs The opinions expressed in this book grew out of nearly thirty years of experience as evangelical protestant missionaries ministering in catholic parish communities in France The goal of the book is to move the readers beyond simply understanding each other to a place where they might begin using their diversity to stimulate and encourage each other in our common pursuit of obedient discipleship We know of no other book which targets ecumenical lay relations in this way

2nd Sunday Morning Glory Jane Ann Crenshaw,2019-12-03 In the absence of the preacher Jim the elder was called to visit a woman who had lost her husband She was desolate and was threatening to commit suicide Jim was called by a mother of a child who attended the Sunday school I went with him that morning As we drove to this home Jim was at a loss as to what he could do or say This was something out of his realm of expertise We had prayed before we left the house but Jim was anxious God was putting this woman s life in his hands I picked up the Bible from the console and said Maybe I can find a verse that will help you I opened the Bible randomly and a verse jumped right out at me I read it to him For the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say

Luke 12 12 NIV As we pulled up in front of her house Jim said Mark that page We quietly walked into this home Jim was directed to the woman in need He talked with her prayed with her and read the scriptures of comfort and encouragement He was with her a long time When the situation became calm we took our leave and the woman who contemplated suicide continued to live We never heard if she made a place for the Lord in her life but we knew that He had taken up permanent residence in ours We felt it We saw it We were lifted by His might and encouraged to keep on keeping on God is real
