Love Meets Wisdom A Christian Experience Of Buddhism Faith Meets Faith Series:

Love Meets Wisdom Aloysius Pieris,1988      Beyond the Academy David Thang Moe,2024-10-11 The term public theology was introduced by Martin E Marty in a 1974 article Since then scholarly discussions on public theology have become more popular in academic circles This book however is about the invitation for moving beyond the academy It provides two reasons for doing so First an overtly academic public theology is in crisis today Although public theology may be flourishing in the academy its relevance for real life is limited Second there is the ecclesial flourishing among grassroots Christian communities across Asia who witness to their lived faith in public and hidden life Their voices are largely unheard due to the gaps between the academy and the church This volume argues that we should consider their voices as key sources for developing a relevant lived Asian public theology The author makes the case for reimagining the paradigm shifts in lived Asian public theology of religions and for bridging the unhappy gaps between the academic and grassroots voices

Buddhist-Christian Dialogue as Theological Exchange Ernest M. Valea,2015-04-14 This book is intended to encourage the use of comparative theology in contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue as a new approach that would truly respect each religious tradition s uniqueness and make dialogue beneficial for all participants interested in a real theological exchange As a result of the impasse reached by the current theologies of religions exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism in formulating a constructive approach in dialogue this volume assesses the thought of the founding fathers of an academic Buddhist Christian dialogue in search of clues that would encourage a comparativist approach These founding fathers are considered to be three important representatives of the Kyoto School Kitaro Nishida Keiji Nishitani and Masao Abe and John Cobb an American process theologian The guiding line for assessing their views of dialogue is the concept of human perfection as it is expressed by the original traditions in Mahayana Buddhism and Orthodox Christianity Following Abe s methodology in dialogue an Orthodox contribution to comparative theology proposes a reciprocal enrichment of traditions not by syncretistic means but by providing a better understanding and even correction of one s own tradition when considering it in the light of the other while using internal resources for making the necessary corrections      News of Boundless Riches Max L. Stackhouse,Lalsangkima Pachuau,2007      Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom A. Christian van Gorder,2021-12-09 Buddhism and Christianity are ancient rich and multivalent wisdom spirituality traditions that often have insightful similarities as well as distinct perspectives from entirely different starting points Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom explores some of these paths and encourages readers to gain as far as is possible a participant s appreciation of another faith This book aims to help readers celebrate and enjoy the rich wisdom legacies of a teacher revealing a pure lotus blossoming from mud and the legacies of a peasant Jewish carpenter from Galilee revealing love on a cross Both teachers share the power of love the joys of healing encouragement and the creative resources of spirit filled living Their ancient words and their modern communities still following these paths are dynamically relevant for our modern context of confusion and challenge     Religious Diversity—What's the Problem? Rita M. Gross, 2014-04-24 Once upon a time on grounds of both religion and common sense people assumed that the earth was flat and that the sun literally rose and set each day When newly developing knowledge made those beliefs untenable giving them up was difficult Today the belief that only one of the world's various religions is true for all people on earth is equivalent to the belief in a flat earth Both notions have become untenable given contemporary knowledge about religion Even though many people are still troubled by the existence of religious diversity today that diversity is a fact of life Religious diversity should be no more troubling to religious people than the fact that the earth is round and circles the sun This provocative book based on the author's longtime practice of Buddhism and comparative study of religion provides tools with which one can truly appreciate religious diversity as a gift and resource rather than as a deficiency or a problem to be overcome After we accept diversity as inevitable and become comfortable with it diversity always enriches life both nature and culture     The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr's pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert's word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene's call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love     Crucified Wisdom S. Mark Heim, 2018-12-04 Winner of the Frederick Streng Book Award for Excellence in Buddhist Christian Studies This work provides the first systematic discussion of the Bodhisattva path and its importance for constructive Christian theology Crucified Wisdom examines specific Buddhist traditions texts and practices not as phenomena whose existence requires an apologetic justification but as wells of tested wisdom that invite theological insight With the increasing participation of Christians in Buddhist practice many are seeking a deeper understanding of the way the teachings of the two traditions might interface Christ and the Bodhisattva are often compared superficially in Buddhist Christian discussion This text combines a rich exposition of the Bodhisattva path using Nideva's classic work The Bodhi-carayāvatāra and subsequent Tibetan commentators with detailed reflection on its implications for Christian faith and practice Author S Mark Heim lays out root tensions constituted by basic Buddhist teachings on the one hand and Christian teachings on the other and the ways in which the Bodhisattva or Christ embody and resolve the resulting paradoxes in their respective traditions An important contribution to the field of comparative theology in general and to the area of Buddhist

Christian studies in particular Crucified Wisdom proposes that Christian theology can take direct instruction from Mah y na Buddhism in two respects deepening its understanding of our creaturely nature through no self insights and revising its vision of divine immanence in dialogue with teachings of emptiness Heim argues that Christians may affirm the importance of novelty in history the enduring significance of human persons and the Trinitarian reality of God even as they learn to value less familiar nondual dimensions of Christ s incarnation human redemption and the divine life Crucified Wisdom focuses on questions of reconciliation and atonement in Christian theology and explores the varying interpretations of the crucifixion of Jesus in Buddhist Christian discussion The Bodhisattva path is central for major contemporary Buddhist voices such as the Dalai Lama and Th ch Nh t Hanh who figure prominently as conversation partners in the text This work will be of particular value for those interested in dual belonging in connection to these traditions Church and Culture Evelyn Monteiro,2004

The Ground We Share Robert Aitken,David Steindl-Rast,1996-06-18 These dialogues between Robert Aitken Roshi one of the first American born Zen masters and Brother David Steindl Rast the Roman Catholic monk and hermit took place during a week long retreat the two old friends undertook in 1991 in a remote part of the island of Hawaii Their aim was to approach the dialogue between Buddhism and Christianity in a fresh way one that takes as its starting point a comparison of the personal experiences of the dialoguers as a Buddhist and as a Christian respectively rather than abstract concepts The result is the discovery of a surprising amount of common ground the kind of shared experience that forms a solid foundation for further dialogue Jesus in Global Contexts Priscilla Pope-Levison,John R. Levison,1992-01-01 Liberator ancestor cosmic Christ and Black Messiah These are just some of the ways that Jesus is viewed in the world This rare book provides a global tour of the Christologies emerging in Latin America Asia and Africa and those of North American feminist and African American theologies Bibliography Indexes Bibliography on East Asian Religion and Philosophy ,2001 This comprehensive research bibliography compiles annotates indexes and cross references resources in the principal Western languages which focus on China Japan and Korea in the areas of philosophy and religious studies supporting resources in theology history culture and related social sciences A notable additional feature is the inclusion of extensive Internet based resources such as a wide variety of web sites discussion lists electronic texts virtual libraries online journals and related material Asian Christian Theologians in Dialogue with Buddhism Kenneth Fleming,2002 This book is a study of three of Asia s most respected contemporary theologians Kosuke Koyoma Choan Seng Song and Aloysius Pieris It gives an introduction to Asian Buddhism and the Christian dialogue with Buddhists in Asia Furthermore it examines the work of each theologian in detail looking at the method and content of their dialogue and outlining its impact upon their respective theologies The book provides a critique of their dialogue and engages with the theological issues that have emerged In areas such as religious identity theological method and liberation theology it is shown that their conversation with Buddhism contributes to the development of a genuinely Asian theology and moreover raises important challenges to the worldwide theological community churches and to those engaged in interreligious dialogue      A Theology of Dao Kim, Heup Young, 2017-06-22

Historical Dictionary of Catholicism William J. Collinge, 2021-08-15 This work covers the whole history of Catholicism including the periods of Christian history prior to the present divisions into Catholic Orthodox and Protestant but within the earlier periods it focuses on the story line that leads to Catholicism in the Roman Rite and particularly to Roman Catholicism in the United States The Historical Dictionary of Catholicism Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important persons and places as well as themes such as baptism contraception labor church architecture the sexual abuse crisis Catholic history doctrine and theology spirituality and worship moral and social teaching and church structure This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Catholicism      Imaginary Christs Richard Grigg, 2000-08-10

Discusses the issue of christological pluralism the panoply of competing visions of Christ that exist today and provides criteria for evaluating these      The Bloomsbury Handbook to Studying Christians George D. Chryssides, Stephen E. Gregg, 2019-11-14 Drawing on a range of methodologies editors George D Chryssides and Stephen E Gregg shift attention from normative textual and doctrinal matters to issues of materiality and everyday life in Christianity This handbook is structured in four parts which include coverage of the following aspects of Christianity sacred space and objects cyber Christianity food prayer education family life fundamentalism and sexuality In addition issues of gender race and ethnicity are treated throughout The international team of contributors provide in depth analysis that highlight the current state of academic study in the field and explores areas in which future research might develop Clearly organised to help users quickly locate key information and analysis the book includes an A to Z of key terms extensive guides to further resources a comprehensive bibliography and a chronology of landmark events making it a unique resource to upper level students and researchers      Winds of the Spirit Peter Crafts Hodgson, 1994-01-01 Contextual theology postmodernism and theology

Controversies in Contemporary Religion Paul Hedges, 2014-09-09 Religious or spiritual beliefs underpin many controversies and conflicts in the contemporary world Written by a range of scholarly contributors this three volume set provides contextual background information and detailed explanations of religious controversies across the globe Controversies in Contemporary Religion Education Law Politics Society and Spirituality is a three volume set that addresses a wide variety of current religious issues analyzing religion s role in the rise of fundamentalism censorship human rights environmentalism and sustainability sexuality bioethics and other questions of widespread interest Providing in depth context and analysis far beyond what s available in the news or online this work will enable readers to understand the nature of and reasons for controversies in current headlines The first volume covers theoretical and academic debates the second looks at debates in the public square and ethical issues while the third examines specific issues and case studies These volumes bring detailed and careful debate of a range of controversies together in one place including topics not often covered for example

how religions promote or hinder social cohesion and peace the relationship of religions to human rights and the intersection of Buddhism and violence Written by a range of experts that includes both established and emerging scholars the text explains key debates in ways that are accessible and easy to understand for lay readers as well as undergraduate students researching particular issues or global religious trends     In Wisdom and in Passion John Queripel, 2024-07-16 Two faiths of great influence making great claims of their founders How do such faiths enter into dialogue so necessary in our fractured world What do Buddha in deep meditation and Christ with a deep yearning for the justice of the reign of God say to each other and to us What commonalities and differences do they share as those in whose name new faiths were founded What caused the followers of each to believe their messages were such that they broke free of their old faith traditions How are the stories of each shaped by universal myths and what do they do with these myths in each account How has each faith spread around the world encountering very different cultures shaping and being shaped by them What did Buddha and Jesus teach and how have those teachings been understood What place do the Scriptures play in each How is the divine understood and by what method do we penetrate to the divine How are ethics and living understood in each faith These questions among others shape this book a wide ranging exploration of a challenging yet necessary interfaith dialogue
