Seeing rightly says Mark Labberton is the beginning of how our hearts are changed Through careful self examination in the Spirit we begin to bear the fruit of love toward others that can make a difference Here is a chance to reflect on why our ordinary hearts can be complacent about the evils in the world and how we can begin to see the world like Jesus The Love of Jesus and the Love of Neighbour Karl Rahner, 1983 God With Us Joseph Haroutunian, 1991-01-01

This long standing series provides the guild of religion scholars a venue for publishing aimed primarily at colleagues It includes scholarly monographs revised dissertations Festschriften conference papers and translations of ancient and medieval documents Works cover the sub disciplines of biblical studies history of Christianity history of religion theology and ethics Festschriften for Karl Barth Donald W Dayton James Luther Mays Margaret R Miles and Walter Wink are among the seventy five volumes that have been published Contributors include C K Barrett Francois Bovon Paul S Chung Marie Helene Davies Frederick Herzog Ben F Meyer Pamela Ann Moeller Rudolf Pesch D Z Phillips Rudolf Schnackenburgm Eduard Schweizer John Vissers Deus Trinitas David Coffey,1999-09-09 Recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in the doctrine of the Trinity following a long period in which it was considered irrelevant to the rest of theology and to the challenge of Christian life In this book David Coffey claims that this resurgence is caused by a renewed appreciation of the fact that salvation itself has a Trinitarian structure He argues that we cannot understand salvation without a solid understanding of the Trinity Coffey considers the full range of issues surrounding this central doctrine of Christian faith Viewing the doctrine of the Trinity in its historical and ecumenical context he seeks to arrive at a balanced vision that incorporates the insights of both the Western and the Eastern Churches In particular he wants to keep in sight both the immanent Trinity the Godhead considered in itself and the economic Trinity that is its role within the economy of salvation In Coffeys own model of the Trinity the Holy Spirit is seen as the objectivization of the mutual love of the Father and the Son This idea is most closely associated with St Augustine and Richard of St Victor Coffey however takes it much further presenting it as an explanation of the origin of the Son and the Holy Spirit and of the manner of operation of the Trinity in the economy From this model he is also able to derive a suggestion for resolving the ecumenical problem of Filioquism vs Monopatrimism concerning the procession of the Holy Spirit the issue that has divided East from West for nearly a millennium Presenting a new perspective on a topic of renewed theological interest this comprehensive study has important implications for ecumenical discussions of the Trinity The Catholic Moral Tradition Today Charles E. Curran,1999-04-05 The Catholic tradition has always tried to explain its theology in a coherent and systematic way but the great changes and tensions existing within Catholic moral theology today have made it difficult to develop systematic approaches to what was once called fundamental moral theology Now a leading scholar active in this field for forty years offers a synthesis of Catholic moral theology set in the context of the broader Catholic tradition and the significant developments that have occurred since the Second Vatican Council Charles E Curran s succinct coherent account of his wide ranging work in Catholic moral theology points out agreements disagreements and changes in significant aspects of the Catholic moral tradition His systematic approach explores major topics in a logical development the ecclesiological foundation and stance of moral theology the person as moral subject and agent virtues principles and norms conscience and decision making and the role of the church as a teacher of morality Curran s work condenses and organizes a large amount of material to show that the Catholic theological tradition is in dialogue with contemporary life and thought while remaining conscious of its rich history Of great interest to theologians for its broad synthetic scope this book is also a thorough introduction to the Catholic moral tradition for students and interested readers including non Catholics Awakening Love Gregory Cleveland,2019-03-25 The Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius have had a tremendous impact in the history of the Church while the Song of Songs describes mystical union with God in prayer

Written following the format of a personal retreat Awakening Love includes chapters tracing the themes of the Song of Songs as a very Christian prayer and meditation

Cura Animarum Ioan C. Veres, 2025-04-25 As artificial intelligence advances healthcare faces a profound ethical question Can machines truly care This book critically examines the rise of AI driven social robots carebots in patient care evaluating their benefits and potential harms through the lens of Christian ethics While AI may enhance efficiency and offer support in specific healthcare contexts it also risks dehumanizing care replacing genuine human presence with technological substitutes Grounded in a theology of covenant care this work builds its ethical argument around the biblical parable of the Good Samaritan emphasizing the irreplaceable nature of human compassion It presents theological and ethical criteria to guide the responsible use of AI in healthcare ensuring that technology serves rather than supplants the dignity of human relationships This book is essential reading for theologians ethicists healthcare professionals and AI developers navigating the intersection of faith ethics and emerging technology As healthcare increasingly integrates AI Cura Animarum challenges readers to consider where technology supports human dignity and where it threatens to erode the essence of genuine care Is AI merely a tool or does it risk redefining what it means to care
