The Relationship Between Mental Health and Substance Abuse Among Adolescents, 1999 International encyclopedia of adolescence Jeffrey Jensen Arnett, 2007
 Publisher description Nutritional Problems of Adolescents Chetana Vishwanathrao DONGLIKAR, 2019-08-13 Young people between the ages of 16-18 years constitute one third of India's Population. More than a billion of the total world's population, the largest generation in history, are preparing to make a transition from childhood to adulthood, a phase characterized by rapid growth and physical changes accompanied by risky behavior patterns. Being a key to future development, young people are critical social change agents for fostering economic development and technological innovation. There is an urgent need to nurture the immense potential of young people as partners in the progress of Nations and at the same time in processes that address their specific needs, desires, and aspirations.

Critical Issues in Child and Adolescent Mental Health Sarah Campbell, Dinah Morley, Roger Catchpole, 2017-03-06 In this thought-provoking text, a collection of respected authors with a wealth of academic and practice experience come together to challenge some of the prevailing ideas serving as the foundation for the current child and adolescent mental health services (CAMHS) structure. Providing a fresh new perspective on critical issues and seeking to stimulate reflection and debate from managers and commissioners to newly qualified practitioners and students, this book will both challenge and energise readers, spurring them on to reconsider some of the pressing CAMH issues of our time.

Expanding Horizons Karen J. Ripoll-Núñez, Anna Laura Comunian, Carrie M. Brown, 2012 Expanding Horizons: Current Research on Interpersonal Acceptance offers readers an outstanding collection of papers that reflects current trends in research on interpersonal acceptance. Papers in this volume cover a variety of questions and topics with regard to issues of acceptance/rejection by significant figures in parent-child, sibling, peer, and adult intimate relationships. Also, several papers deal with the implications of interpersonal acceptance for the development and educational achievement of children, college students, as well as children with special needs. Lastly, an entire section of the book is devoted to methodological issues in the evaluation of interpersonal acceptance across cultures. The authors draw on the perspectives of different disciplines such as educational psychology, anthropology, sociology, developmental psychology, and family studies. Research findings discussed in this collection of papers have important implications for professionals working in different contexts to strengthen family relationships, teacher and peer relationships in schools, and couple relationships. As such, the book constitutes a useful reference source for graduate students, academic researchers, clinicians, teachers, special educators, school counselors, and service agencies. Scholars who contributed to this book come from different parts of the world, including the Americas, Asia, Australia, Europe, and the Middle East.
