Learning to be Human: The Educational Legacy of John MacMurray Michael Fielding, 2016-04-14 The educational writings of John Macmurray one of the finest 20th century philosophers of his generation have a special relevance for us today In similar circumstances of international crisis he argued for the central importance of education addressing fundamental issues of human purpose how we lead good lives together the emphasis on wisdom rather than knowledge alone the advancement of a truly democratic culture and the overriding importance of community in human flourishing This remarkable collection of articles from leading international scholars includes the hitherto unpublished John

Macmurray lecture Learning to be Human and brings together invited contributions from a range of fields and disciplines e g philosophy of education moral philosophy care ethics history of education theology religious education future studies and learning technologies and a number of countries across the world e g Australia the UK and the USA Countering overemphasis on technique and its typical separation from wider human purposes emblematic of much of our current malaise this book asks what it might mean to take the education of persons seriously and how such a perspective helps us to form judgments about the nature and worth of contemporary education policy and practice This book was originally published as a special issue of the Oxford Review of Education Freedom: The End of the Human Condition Jeremy

Griffith,2016-05-24 FREEDOM has its own very informative website visit www.humancondition.com The fastest growing realization everywhere is that humanity can't go on the way it is going Indeed the great fear is we're entering endgame where we appear to have lost the race between self destruction and self discovery the race to find the psychologically relieving understanding of our good and evil afflicted human condition Well astonishing as it is this book by biologist Jeremy Griffith presents the 11th hour breakthrough biological explanation of the human condition necessary for the psychological rehabilitation and transformation of our species The culmination of 40 years of studying and writing about our species psychosis FREEDOM delivers nothing less than the holy grail of insight we have needed to free ourselves from the human condition It is in short as Professor Harry Prosen a former president of the Canadian Psychiatric Association asserts in his Introduction The book that saves the world Griffith has been able to venture right to the bottom of the dark depths of what it is to be human and return with the fully accountable true explanation of our seemingly imperfect lives At long last we have the redeeming and thus transforming understanding of human behaviour And with that explanation found all the other great outstanding scientific mysteries about our existence are now also able to be truthfully explained of the meaning of our existence of the origin of our unconditionally selfless moral instincts and of why we humans became conscious when other animals haven't Yes the full story of life on Earth can finally be told and all of these incredible breakthroughs and insights are presented here in this greatest of all books Innovative Catholicism and the Human Condition Jane Anderson,2016-05-20

Innovative Catholicism and the Human Condition gives an anthropological account of a progressive religious movement in the Roman Catholic Church that is attempting to reconcile religious conviction and reason and ergo modify the human condition Investigation is given to a representative group of this movement Innovative Catholics who are endeavouring to maintain the momentum for change which began in the 1960s and 1970s They now find themselves caught between traditional notions of religion and a secularised society while trying to reconcile these polarising forces to find a pathway forward While ethnographic fieldwork for this research was conducted in Australia this movement is to be found across the Western world The research is framed by the question posed by Jürgen Habermas who asks whether the democratic constitutional state is able to renew itself and recognises a benefit in learning from religion Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger subsequently Pope Benedict XVI responds by asserting the need for a common ethical basis and limits on reason This latter position however remains problematic for Innovative Catholics who are conscious of history and culture The research explores how Innovative Catholics who in taking the middle position inform this dialectic on secularization through their ideas and practices about the human condition Sex and Sex Education: a Bibliography Flora C. Seruya, Susan Losher, Albert Ellis, 1972 Over 2000 English language references some annotated Classified arrangement Basically covers last 25 years with some older works included for historical perspective Author title and analytical subject indexes The Dawning of a New Dark Age Mark Alexander, 2003-11-15 FOREWORD On September 11 2001 Muslim terrorists launched an attack on the United States to punish it for being what Osama bin Laden considered the land of the infidels In fact this attack was an attack on the entire Western world and even more important it was an attack on Western civilization the underlying objective being to take civilization back fourteen hundred years to a time of great glory for the Islamic world In the wake of the attack by young Muslim extremists which resulted in the collapse of the twin towers of the World Trade Center in Manhattan our leaders attempted to assure us that the terrorists did not represent the entire Muslim world It was said that they were the actions of a minority of an extreme fringe group It was and continues to be troubling however that we have heard very little strong condemnation coming from the supposed moderate Muslim community Who are these moderates Why have they not spoken out more vociferously Do they really exist When will they speak out with moral indignation Indeed will they ever For most Westerners Islam is thought to be just another world religion equal to Christianity and Judaism But is this really the case Upon closer study Islam seems to be far different from the other two religions Certainly no one would accuse Muslims of being tolerant non judgmental non violent or peace loving While Muslims have been allowed to build hundreds of mosques in Western countries Christian churches may only rarely be built if ever in Muslim countries Indeed in some Muslim countries such as the Sudan it is official government policy to demolish churches In addition it is difficult to believe that any world religion would advocate treating women as second class citizens and actually get away with it The concept of brotherhood in Islam is strong The posture advocated by Prophet Mohammed in the Koran toward non Muslims however is to seek them out and annihilate them The phenomenon of suicide bombers is at once both pathetic and chilling On the one hand it is pathetic that young Muslims are taught that they can gain entrance into paradise by taking peoples lives in such a gruesome manner Carnal pleasures of course await the males upon entrance into heaven On the other hand it is chilling to think that there are any people living in the 21st century ready to teach and encourage such savagery What is the supposed theological justification for holding to such beliefs Indeed is there any such thing in Islam as theology in which the tenets of the faith are examined critically Isnt it the case rather that the teachings of Prophet Mohammed are accepted literally and without question In his book The Dawning of a New Dark Age Mark Alexander explores these questions and often finds disturbing answers Unlike many authors on the subject Mark actually lived and worked among Muslims for many years so he has first hand knowledge of the religion and culture While on his tours of duty in the Middle East Mark immersed himself in Islam and Arabic culture studying the religion both from Occidental and Oriental perspectives He familiarized himself not only with the Koran but also with the beliefs and attitudes of Muslims in the street This experience has given him unusually clear insights into the aspirations of the Muslim world Marks conclusions will not be comforting to those who would like to believe that the long term threat to the West is limited to the aspirations of a few fundamentalist terrorists Douglas Kennedy Ph D Travel and the Human Condition Donald E. Smith, 2009-02-27 In his quest to look for adventure in exotic lands the author found himself The book includes his daily journals kept while traveling in Tanzania Java and the former Soviet Union It includes also brief glimpses of life in Denmark Sweden Hungary and England The journals emphasize the lives of people whom he met not the usual descriptions of statues monuments and museums The book is the story of one man's attempt to find meaning for his life as he seeks to learn how other people live out their lives in far away places

Intellectual Disability and Being Human Chrissie Rogers, 2016-02-26 Intellectual disability is often overlooked within mainstream disability studies and theories developed about disability and physical impairment may not always be appropriate when thinking about intellectual or learning disability This pioneering book in considering intellectually disabled people's lives sets out a care ethics model of disability that outlines the emotional caring sphere where love and care are psycho-socially questioned the practical caring sphere where day to day care is carried out and the socio-political caring sphere where social intolerance and aversion to difficult differences are addressed It does so by discussing issue based everyday life such as family relationships media representations and education in an evocative and creative manner This book draws from an understanding of how intellectual disability is represented in all forms of media a feminist ethics of care and capabilities as well as other theories to provide a critique and alternative to the social model of disability as well as illuminate care less spaces that inhabit all the caring spheres The first two chapters of the book provide an overview of intellectual disability the debates surrounding disability and outline the model Having begun to develop an innovative theoretical framework for understanding intellectual disability and being human the book then moves onto empirical and narrative driven issue based chapters The following chapters build on the emergent framework and discuss the application of particular theories in three different substantive areas education mothering and sexual politics The concluding remarks draw together the common themes across the applied chapters and link them to the overarching theoretical framework An important read for all those studying and researching intellectual or learning disability this book will be an essential resource in sociology philosophy criminology law social work education and nursing in particular Self-Conditioning and Sexuality Dr. Taha, 2008-09-22 This book provides practical and direct information about sex sexuality and sexual orientation It is based on my long clinical experience in field of STI HIV and on my personal philosophy on the concept of conditioning sanity elements belief system and e point The first half of the book discuss the role of the senses and the impact of conditioning on human self and sanity and the second half explores the role of the environment family culture and the media on human sexual desire and highlights the impacts of sex on humanity I thank all the patients and people who share their stories with me and in the media You Tube and hope that this book will help to promote peace love and sexual awareness Love and Hate David Mann,2013-11-12
