Love Work And Death Jewish Life In Medieval Umbria:

Love, Work, and Death Ariel Toaff, 1996-06-01 Toaff is the acknowledged master of the social history of Umbrian Jewry David Malkiel Journal of Jewish Studies The Serpent Kills Or the Serpent Gives Life Robert Sagerman, 2011-01-07 Representing a careful contextual study of the writings of the influential Jewish mystic Abraham Abulafia 1240 c 1291 this book demonstrates that an inner dynamic of attraction and revulsion toward Christianity shaped Abulafia's mystical hermeneutic and meditative practice Living under the Evil Pope Martina Mampieri, 2019-11-26 In Living under the Evil Pope Martina Mampieri presents the Hebrew Chronicle of Pope Paul IV written in the second half of the sixteenth century by the Italian Jewish moneylender Benjamin Ne emiah ben Elnathan alias Guglielmo di Diodato from Civitanova Marche The text remained in manuscript for about four centuries until the Galician scholar Isaiah Sonne 1887 1960 published a Hebrew annotated edition of the chronicle in the 1930s This remarkable source offers an account of the events of the Papal States during Paul IV's pontificate 1555 59 Making use of broad archival materials Martina Mampieri reflects on the nature of this work its historical background and contents providing a revised edition of the Hebrew text as well as the first unabridged English translation and commentary Martina Mampieri has been granted a special mention of excellence in the Alberigo Award 2021 by the European Academy of Religion and Fondazione per le Scienze Religiose <https://www.europeanacademyofreligion.org/alberigo-award> and a special mention of excellence in the Pirovano Award 2022 by the Istituto Luigi Sturzo in Rome <http://sturzo.it/blog/2023/06/12/assegnazione-del-premio-desiderio-pirovano-2022> Martina Mampieri provides scholars with a source of great interest which helps better understand the complex period following the election of Pope Paul IV Carafa from a Jewish perspective This is undoubtedly an important book that contributes to the advancement of our knowledge regarding that historical moment Alessandra Veronese AJS Review 45 1 2021 This valuable source is now available to the many the many including and this is no small thing those who study the history of historical writing for itself as that writing began emerging from the shadows at just this time We are deeply indebted Kenneth Stow University of Haifa Emeritus Journal of Modern Jewish Studies 20 1 2021 By triangulating important themes in early modern history with a rich and lengthy narrative source Mampieri has produced an outstanding contribution to the ever growing literature on interreligious and intercultural relations in the Papal States Frank Lacopo Sixteenth Century Journal LIII 2 2022 The Medici State and the Ghetto of Florence Stefanie Beth Siegmund, 2006 This book explores the decision of Grand Duke Cosimo I de Medici to create a ghetto in Florence and explains how a Jewish community developed out of that forced population transfer The Fires of Lust Katherine Harvey, 2022-11-28 An illuminating exploration of the surprisingly familiar sex lives of ordinary medieval people The medieval humoral system of medicine suggested that it was possible to die from having too much or too little sex while the Roman Catholic Church taught that virginity was the ideal state Holy men and women committed themselves to lifelong abstinence in the name of religion Everyone was forced to conform to restrictive rules about who they could have sex with in what way how often and even when and could be harshly punished for getting it wrong Other experiences are more familiar Like us medieval people faced challenges in finding a suitable partner or trying to get pregnant or trying not to They also struggled with many of the same social issues such as whether prostitution should be legalized Above all they shared our fondness for dirty jokes and erotic images By exploring their sex lives the book brings ordinary medieval people to life and reveals details of their most personal thoughts and experiences Ultimately it provides us with an important and intimate connection to the past

Jewish Women in the Medieval World Sarah Ifft Decker, 2022-05-18 Jewish Women in the Medieval World offers a thematic overview of the lived experiences of Jewish women in both Europe and the Middle East from 500 to 1500 CE a group often ignored in general surveys on both medieval Jewish life and medieval women The volume blends current scholarship with evidence drawn from primary sources originally written in languages including Hebrew Latin Aramaic and Judeo Arabic to introduce both the state of scholarship on women and gender in medieval Jewish communities and the ways in which Jewish women experienced family love sex work faith and crisis in the medieval past From the well known Dolce of Worms to the less famed Bonadona widow of Astrug Caravida of Girona to the many nameless women referred to in medieval texts Jewish Women tells the stories of individual women alongside discussions of wider trends in different parts of the medieval world Even through texts written about women by men the intelligence courage and perseverance of medieval Jewish women become clear to modern readers With the inclusion of a Chronology Who's Who Documents section and Glossary this study is an essential resource for students and other readers interested in both Jewish history and women's history

The friars and Jews in the Middle Ages and Renaissance Susan E. Myers, Steven J. MacMichael, 2004 Historians some specializing in the Middle Ages some in religion and some in a particular European country describe the major areas scholars are working in with regard to the friars preaching to and writing about the Jews from the early days of the mendicant order about the turn of the 13th century to the 16th century Their topics include the

The Preacher's Demons Franco Mormando, 1999-05 When the city was filled with these bonfires he then combed the city and whenever he received notice of some public sodomite he had him immediately seized and thrown into the nearest bonfire at hand and had him burned immediately This story of an anonymous individual who sought to cleanse medieval Paris was part of a sermon delivered in Siena Italy in 1427 The speaker the friar Bernardino 1380 1444 was one of the most important public figures of the time and he spent forty years combing the towns of Italy instructing admonishing and entertaining the crowds that gathered in prodigious numbers to hear his sermons His story of the Parisian vigilante was a recommendation Sexual deviants were the objects of relentless unconditional persecution in Bernardino's sermons Other targets of the preacher's venom were witches Jews and heretics Mormando takes us into the social underworld of early Renaissance Italy to discover how one enormously influential figure helped to dramatically increase fear hatred and intolerance for those on society's margins This book is the first on Bernardino to appear in thirty five years and the first ever to consider the preacher's inflammatory role in Renaissance social issues Jews in An Iberian Frontier Kingdom Mark Meyerson, 2004-05-01 This book treats the tumultuous history of the Jews in the colonial kingdom of Valencia through focusing on one town Morvedre Based on archival sources it explores the Jews' activities as settlers and officials their role in the new kingdom's economic development and their rapidly changing relations with the Christian conquerors and the subject Muslims It dissects the Jewish community's internal social and political struggles while it dealt with the monarchy's heavy fiscal demands It also considers the controversies surrounding Jewish moneylending and the Jews' embattled position during the rebellions and wars that rocked the kingdom in the fourteenth century The book is important for students of Jewish history Spanish history and interfaith relations in the Middle Ages The Jewish-Christian Encounter in Medieval Preaching Jonathan Adams, Jussi Hanska, 2014-10-03 This book explores the complexity of preaching as a phenomenon in the medieval Jewish-Christian encounter This was not only an encounter as physical meeting or confrontation such as the forced attendance of Jews at Christian sermons that took place across Europe but also an imaginary or theological encounter in which Jews remained a figure from a distant constructed time and place who served only to underline and verify Christian teachings Contributors also explore the Jewish response to Christian anti-Jewish preaching in their own preaching and religious instruction
