Casey S.J.,2004-04-12 People are being forced today to take a stand on same sex marriage assisted suicide and capital punishment As they ponder how to vote on these issues a critical question emerges Is this morally right At the same time people have become confused about the morality of sex in general What should they teach their teenagers and how talk with their older sons and daughters about living together Undergirding current sexual practice is the unquestioned acceptance of contraception Should contraception be explicitly examined Besides clarifying each issue I let the reader know what the Church teaches using the Catechism of the Catholic Church and Pope John Paul IIs encyclicals And I show how reasonable the Church s position is utilizing the writings of Germain Grisez a distinguished lay moral theologian and philosopher To ensure readers understand Grisez s solutions to these diverse issues I explain in simple terms his ethical approach Non Catholics will find especially significant the human reasoning behind such teachings They and Catholics can dialogue on this level The Pope s early writings on conjugal love may prove impressive People just do not discuss abortion today for positions seem hardened and unbreachable By posing a series of fundamental questions logically interrelated I hope to breach the unbreachable At least it will be clear precisely where participants part company from one another The most sensitive issue I find to be homosexuality I have rewritten the treatment a number of times in an effort to be clear fair and sensitive

The Philosophy of Love Michael S. Pendergast III, 2008-12 With a history that of open marriages staggering divorce rates single parent homes shacking up with significant others and living together and often troubled blended families it seems that the option of a happy life long marriage no longer exists in today's secularized feminized world of radical individualism Yet hidden under this shabby veneer most persons still long for something still desire real meaning still feel the pull towards permanence a romantic ideal to be completed It just won't go away This ideal real marriage survives as a dream though this joyful state cannot be found in any of the alternatives available from a secular world that's devoid of absolutes and allows any unhappy permutation Is there any hope There is But it doesn't lie in constantly trying to redefine marriage and consistently failing to make anyone's life better It lies in returning to what Sacred Marriage was always meant to be a sacrament of Life That however can only be found if we return to being what we ourselves were always meant to be spiritual beings that are larger than the material world and actually grasp what it means to love and risk loving Want to know how Look inside
