

A dirt road winds through a forest, flanked by tall evergreen trees. The road is light-colored and leads towards a bright opening in the distance. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Oh, Love is the crooked thing, there is nobody wise enough to find out all that is in it, for he will be thinking about love til the stars run away and the shadows eaten the moon...

Field,Amritjit Singh,Samina Najmi,2022-02-15 Critical Perspectives on Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Feminism and Diaspora offers insights into Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni s provocative and popular fiction In their engaging and comprehensive introduction editors Amritjit Singh and Robin Field explore how Divakaruni s short stories and novels have been shaped by her own struggles as a new immigrant and by the influences she imbibed from academic mentors and feminist writers of color Twelve critical essays by both aspiring and experienced scholars explore Divakaruni's aesthetic of interconnectivity and wholeness as she links generations, races, ethnicities, and nations in her depictions of the diversity of religious and ethnic affiliations within the Indian diaspora. The contributors offer a range of critical perspectives on Divakaruni's growth as a novelist of historical, mythic, and political motifs. The volume includes two extended interviews with Divakaruni offering insights into her personal inspirations and social concerns, while also revealing her deep affection for South Asian communities, as well as an essay by Divakaruni herself, a candid expression of her artistic independence in response to the didactic expectations of her many South Asian readers.

Surrendering to the Lord's will, Garrett is the one who relocates to another city to start over as if he were the offender instead of the victim. Criminal attorney Shari Carmen is comfortable in her own skin most of the time. Being a dark and beautiful African American, sister has its challenges, especially when it comes to relationships. Although she's a fireball in the courtroom, she knows how to fade into the background and keep the proverbial spotlight off her personal life. While playing tenor saxophone at an anniversary party, she is in the spotlight and grabs Garrett's attention. As God draws them closer together, He makes another request of Garrett, one to which it will prove far more difficult to say Yes, Lord.
