Love. and Migration Alexia Bloch, 2017-12-15 Sex Love and Migration goes beyond a common narrative of women's exploitation as a feature of migration in the early twenty first century a story that features young women from poor countries who cross borders to work in low paid and often intimate labor Alexia Bloch argues that the mobility of women is marked not only by risks but also by personal and social transformation as migration fundamentally reshapes women s emotional worlds and aspirations Bloch documents how as women have crossed borders between the former Soviet Union and Turkey since the early 1990s they have forged new forms of intimacy in their households in Moldova Ukraine Belarus and Russia but also in Istanbul where they often work for years on end Sex Love and Migration takes as its subject the lives of post Soviet migrant women employed in three distinct spheres sex work the garment trade and domestic work Bloch challenges us to decouple images of women on the move from simple assumptions about danger victimization and trafficking She redirects our attention to the aspirations and lives of women who despite myriad impediments move between global capitalist centers and their home communities Metalinguistic Communities Netta Avineri, Jesse Harasta, 2021-09-27 This edited volume brings together ten compelling ethnographic case studies from a range of global settings to explore how people build metalinguistic communities defined not by use of a language but primarily by language ideologies and symbolic practices about the language The authors examine themes of agency belonging negotiating hegemony and combating cultural erasure and genocide in cultivating meaningful metalinguistic communities Case studies include Spanish and Hebrew in the USA Kurdish in Japan Patax H h h e in Brazil and Gallo in France The afterword by Wesley L Leonard provides theoretical and on the ground context as well as a forward looking focus on metalinguistic futurities.
