The Missionary William Carmichael,David Lambert,2009-03-01 David Eller is an American missionary in Venezuela married to missionary nurse Christie Together they rescue homeless children in Caracas But for David that isn t enough The supply of homeless children is endless because of massive poverty and the oppressive policies of the Venezuelan government led by the Hugo Chavez like Armando Guzman In a moment of anger David publicly rails against the government unaware that someone dangerous might be listening a revolutionary looking for recruits David falls into an unimaginable nightmare of espionage ending in a desperate life or death gamble to flee the country with his wife and son with all the resources of a corrupt dictatorship at their heels Protestants Abroad David A. Hollinger,2019-06-11 Between the 1890s and the Vietnam era many thousands of American Protestant missionaries were sent to live throughout the non European world They expected to change the people they encountered but those foreign people ended up transforming the missionaries Their experience abroad made many of these missionaries and their children critical of racism imperialism and religious orthodoxy When they returned home they brought new liberal values back to their own society Protestants Abroad reveals the untold story of how these missionary connected individuals left an enduring mark on American public life as writers diplomats academics church officials publishers foundation executives and social activists The Missionary register ,1818 Missionary Register ,1843
