Loves Grateful Striving A Commentary On Kierkegaards Works Of Love:

Love's Grateful Striving M. Jamie Ferreira, 2001-06-07 Soren Kierkegaard's Works of Love 1847 a series of deliberations on the commandment to love one's neighbor has often been condemned by critics Here Ferreira seeks to rehabilitate Works of Love as one of Kierkegaard's most important works He shows that Kierkegaard's deliberations on love are highly relevant to some important themes in contemporary ethics including impartiality duty equality mutuality reciprocity self love sympathy and sacrifice Ferreira also argues that Works of Love bears on issues peculiar to a religious ethic such as the role of God as middle term and the possibility of preserving the aesthetic dimensions of love in a religious ethic of relation Love's Grateful Striving M. Jamie Ferreira, 2001

Dying to Self and Detachment James Kellenberger, 2016-04-29 Exploring the religious category of dying to self this book aims to resolve contemporary issues that relate to detachment Beginning with an examination of humility in its general notion and as a religious virtue that detachment presupposes Kellenberger draws on a range of ancient medieval modern and contemporary sources that address the main characteristics of detachment including the work of Meister Eckhart St Teresa and Simone Weil as well as writers as varied as Gregory of Nyssa Rabi al Adawiyya Soren Kierkegaard Andrew Newberg John Hick and Keiji Nishitani Kellenberger explores the key issues that arise for detachment including the place of the individual's will in detachment the relationship of detachment to desire to attachment to persons and to self love and self respect and issues of contemporary secular detachment such as inducement via chemicals This book heeds the relevance of the religious virtue of detachment for those living in the twenty first century The God Who Loves and Is Loved Christian D. Kettler, 2019-11-12 Can there be a greater folly than writing a book about love But how can we avoid that most basic of all desires and commands Yet we are very poor lovers as our history demonstrates If God is love though can we find help in considering the love of Jesus Christ and the love of Jesus thought of in terms of what T F Torrance called the vicarious humanity of Christ This would mean that we realize our inability and the Son of God's ability to love on our behalf and in our place Such a love mirrors the love of the Son for the Father in the Spirit a love that reflects his eternal triune love Therefore could we have new perspectives on our relationships the love of ourselves of God and the neighbor How essential is love to being human and what kind of love What does it mean to love your enemies What is the relationship between justice and love And what are the fruits of love the evidence of genuine love Christian D Kettler explores these issues in the context of the living reality of the vicarious humanity of Christ The Oxford Handbook of the Philosophy of Love Christopher Grau, Aaron Smuts, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of the Philosophy of Love offers a wide array of original essays from leading philosophers on the nature and value of love Kierkegaard and Political Theology Roberto Sirvent, Silas Morgan, 2018-03-06 The nature of Kierkegaard's political legacy is complicated by the religious character of his writings Exploring Kierkegaard's relevancy for this political theological moment this volume offers trans disciplinary and multi religious perspectives on Kierkegaard studies and political theology Privileging contemporary philosophical and political theological work that is based on Kierkegaard this volume is an indispensable resource for Kierkegaard scholars theologians philosophers of religion ethicists and critical researchers in religion looking to make sense of current debates in the field While this volume shows that Kierkegaard's theological legacy is a thoroughly political one we are left with a series of open questions as to what a Kierkegaardian interjection into contemporary political theology might look like And so like Kierkegaard's writings this collection of essays is an argument with itself and as such will leave readers both edified and scratching their heads for all the right reasons The Point of View Robert L. Perkins, 2010 Kierkegaard wrote four reflections on his literary production On My Work as an Author The Point of View for My Work as an Author The Single Individual and Armed Neutrality but he published only the first The essays in this volume of International Kierkegaard Commentary examine these writings not just as a public report to history but also as a revelation of Kierkegaard's deepest understanding of himself as an author Works of Love in a World of Violence Deidre Nicole Green, 2016-11-10 As she constructively engages feminist critiques of Christianity's complicity in violence Deidre Nicole Green challenges traditional beliefs that self sacrifice amounts to love and that suffering is inherently redemptive by arguing for a Kierkegaardian conceptions of Christian love that limits self sacrifice Back cover

Kierkegaard and Issues in Contemporary Ethics Mélissa Fox-Muratton, 2020-10-26 While Kierkegaard's philosophy focuses on concrete human existence his thought has rarely been challenged regarding concrete and contemporary moral issues This volume offers an overview of contemporary ethical issues from a Kierkegaardian perspective deliberately taking him out of the sphere of Theology and Christian Ethics and examining the ways in which his works can provide fruitful insight into questions which Kierkegaard certainly never himself envisaged such as accepting refugees into our communities understanding how we relate to social media issues of identity with regard to bioengineering or transgender identity or problems of interreligious dialogue The contributions in this volume by international scholars seek to address both the challenges and insights of Kierkegaard's existential ethics for our contemporary societies and its relation to topics of current interest in the field of moral philosophy The volume is organized into three major sections the first focusing on the relation between ethics and religion a topic of primary importance with regard to the development of religious foundationalism and the challenges of dealing with diverse belief systems within our communities the second on our understandings of ourselves and our relations to others with regard to issues of media and community and the third targeting more specifically questions of identity and the ways in which the developments of modern science impact identity construction This work offers new paths for critically engaging with the moral issues of our times from an existential perspective
