Married Love: Love in Marriage Marie Charlotte Carmichael Stopes,2020-09-28 EVERY heart desires a mate For some reason beyond our comprehension nature has so created us that we are incomplete in ourselves neither man nor woman singly can know the joy in the performance of all the human functions neither man nor woman singly can create another human being This fact which is expressed in our outward divergences of form influences and colors the whole of our lives and there is nothing for which the innermost spirit of one and all so yearns as for a sense of union with another soul and the perfecting of oneself which such union brings In all young people unless they have inherited depraved or diseased tendencies the old desire of our race springs up afresh in its pristine beauty With the dreams and bodily changes of adolescence come to the youth and maiden the strange and powerful impulses of sex The bodily differences of the two now accentuated become mystical alluring enchanting in their promise Their differences unite and hold together the man and the woman so that their bodily union is the solid nucleus of an immense fabric of interwoven strands reaching to the uttermost ends of the earth some lighter than the filmiest cobweb or than the softest wave of music iridescent with the colors not only of the visible rainbow but of all the invisible glories of the wave lengths of the soul However much he may conceal it under assumed cynicism worldliness or self seeking the heart of every young man yearns with a great longing for the fulfilment of the beautiful dream of a life long union with a mate Each heart knows instinctively that it is only one's mate who can give full comprehension of all the potential greatness in one's soul and have tender laughter for all the child like wonder that lingers so enchantingly even in the white haired A
