Loves Work A Reckoning With Life:

Love's Work Gillian Rose, 2011-05-31 Love's Work is at once a memoir and a book of philosophy Written by the English philosopher Gillian Rose as she was dying of cancer it is a book about both the fallibility and endurance of love love that becomes real and endures through an ongoing reckoning with its own limitations Rose looks back on her childhood the complications of her parents divorce and her dyslexia and her deep and divided feelings about what it means to be Jewish She tells the stories of several friends also laboring under the sentence of death From the sometimes conflicting vantage points of her own and her friends tales she seeks to work out seeks because the work can never be complete to be alive means to be incomplete a distinctive outlook on life one that will do justice to our yearning both for autonomy and for connection to others With droll self knowledge I am highly qualified in unhappy love affairs Rose writes My earliest unhappy love affair was with Roy Rogers and with unsettling wisdom To live to love is to be failed Rose has written a beautiful tender tough and intricately wrought survival kit packed with necessary but unanswerable questions

Love's Work Gillian Rose, 2011-05-31 Love's Work is at once a memoir and a work of philosophy Written by the English philosopher Gillian Rose as she was dying of cancer it is a book about both the fallibility and the endurance of love love that becomes real and lasting through an ongoing reckoning with its own limitations Rose looks back on her childhood the complications of her parents divorce and her dyslexia and her deep and divided feelings about what it means to be Jewish She tells the stories of several friends also laboring under the sentence of death From the sometimes conflicting vantage points of her own and her friends tales she seeks to work out seeks because the work can never be complete to be alive means to be incomplete a distinctive outlook on life one that will do justice to our yearning both for autonomy and for connection to others With droll self knowledge I am highly qualified in unhappy love affairs Rose writes My earliest unhappy love affair was with Roy Rogers and with unsettling wisdom To live to love is to be failed Rose has written a beautiful tender tough and intricately wrought survival kit packed with necessary but unanswerable questions

Power, Love and Evil Wayne Cristaudo, 2008 Love and evil are real they are substances of force fields which contain us as constituent parts Of all the powers of life they are the two most pregnant without meaning hence the most generative of what is specifically human Love and evil stand in the closest relationship to each other evil is both what destroys love and what forces more love out of us it is as Augustine astutely grasped privative requiring something to negate but it is also born out of misdirected love Breaking with naive realist and post modern dogmas about the nature of the real this book provides the basis for a philosophy of generative action as it draws upon examples from philosophy literature religion and popular culture While this book has a sympathetic ear for ancient and traditional narratives about the meaning of life it offers a philosophy appropriate for our times and our crises It is particularly directed at readers who are seeking for new ways to think about our world and self making and who are as dissatisfied with post Nietzschean and post Marxian 20th century social theory as they are by more traditional philosophical and naturalistic accounts of human being      1001 Books You Must Read Before You Die Peter Boxall, 2012-01-10 Completely revised and updated to include the most up to date selections this is a bold and bright reference book to the novels and the writers that have excited the world's imagination This authoritative selection of novels reviewed by an international team of writers critics academics and journalists provides a new take on world classics and a reliable guide to what's hot in contemporary fiction Featuring more than 700 illustrations and photographs presenting quotes from individual novels and authors and completely revised for 2012 this is the ideal book for everybody who loves reading

Love in the Dark Diane Enns, 2016-09-06 Intimate love opens us up to suffering sacrifice and loss Is it always worth the risk Consulting philosophers writers and poets who draw insights from material life Diane Enns shines a light on the limits of erotic love exploring its paradoxes through personal and philosophical reflections Situating experience at the center of her inquiry Enns conducts philosophy by another name elaborating the ambiguities and risks of love with visceral clarity Love in the Dark claims that intimacy must accept risk as long as love does not destroy the self Erotic love inspires an inexplicable affirmation of another but can erode autonomy and vulnerability There is a limit to love and appreciating it requires a rethinking of love's liberal paradigms which Enns traces back to the hostility toward the body and eros in Christianity and the Western philosophical tradition Against a legacy of an abstract and sanitized love Enns recasts erotic attachment as an event linked to conditional circumstances The value of love lies in its intensity and depth and its end does not negate love's truth or significance Writing in a lyrical genre defying style Enns delineates the paradoxes of love in its relations to lust abuse suffering and grief to reach an account faithful to human experience

Love & Eroticism Mike Featherstone, 1999-03-19 This major collection explores the contested nature of love and eroticism examining the ways in which erotic bodily pleasures have become central to contemporary consumer culture It investigates the spatial dimension of erotic life through considerations of Bohemian love the gay city and the ways in which the urban landscape and everyday life have become sexualized issues which have become central to the emergence of queer as a new form of gender politics and more general questions of sexual citizenship Drawing on the work of feminists sociologists and cultural theorists this book contains a wide ranging and accessible set of contributions to contemporary debates on sexuality love and eroticism Love Eroticism is simultaneously published as volume 15 issue 3/4 of Theory Culture Society

The Practice of Autonomy Carl Schneider, 1998 Exploring what patients do want gives direction to the author's inquiry into what they should want What patients want he believes is properly more complex and ambiguous than being empowered In this book he charts that ambiguity to take the autonomy principle past current pieties into the uncertain realities of the sick room and the hospital ward The Practice of Autonomy is a sympathetic but trenchant study of the animating principle of modern bioethics It speaks with freshness insight and even passion to bioethicists and moral philosophers about their theories to lawyers about their methods to medical sociologists about their subject to policy makers about their ambitions to doctors about their work and to patients about their lives BOOK JACKET

Kierkegaard on Faith and Love Sharon Krishek, 2009-07-23 Explores Kierkegaard's belief that earthly love and religious life do not conflict but rather enhance and perfect one another      Lost Intimacy in American Thought Edward F. Mooney, 2009-12-23 This book offers a critique of rationalism in contemporary American thought by recovering a lost tradition of intimacy in American philosophical writing      Immanent Frames John Caruana, Mark Cauchi, 2018-05-31 For some time now thinkers across the humanities and social sciences have increasingly called into question the once dominant view of the relationship between modernity and secularism prompting some to speak of a postsecular turn Until now film studies has largely been silent about this development even though cinema itself has been a major vehicle for such reflection This fact became inescapable in 2011 when Terrence Malick's The Tree of Life and Lars von Trier's Melancholia were released within days of each other While these two audacious and controversial films present seemingly opposite perspectives the former a thoughtful meditation on faith the latter a portrayal of nontriumphalist atheism together they raise critical questions about transcendence and immanence in modern life These films are however only the most conspicuous of a growing body of works that call forth similar and related questions what this collection aptly calls postsecular cinema Taking the nearly simultaneous release of The Tree of Life and Melancholia as its starting point and framing device this pioneering collection sets out to establish the idea of postsecular cinema as a distinct body of films and a viable critical category Adopting a film philosophy approach one group of essays examines Malick's and von Trier's films while another looks at works by Chantal Akerman Denys Arcand the Dardenne brothers and John Michael McDonagh among others The volume closes with two important interviews with Luc Dardenne and Jean Luc Nancy that invite us to reflect more deeply on some of the central concerns of postsecular cinema
