Clay, How on earth did you get up there And the speaker put his glass in his eye and coolly surveyed the dainty figure perched on one of the branches of the huge elm under which he was standing That is the last place I expected to find you I suppose so she answered composedly for Lady Gwendolyn was never flustered or ill at ease under the most trying circumstances The fact is I have had an unpleasant adventure Indeed I am very sorry But hadn t you better let me help you down before we talk it over unless you like your quarters so well that you are inclined to stay there and in that case I will join you Nonsense Colonel Dacre but she laughed too What would Mrs Grundy say to such an extraordinary t te t te She would say that it had the merit of novelty and considering how tired one is of everything that has happened and how bored at the thought of prospective repetitions I consider that any one who strikes out a new line for himself and refuses to lag along in the old groove deserves to be canonized Well it is very nice when people will be a little original certainly but I am not sure that a woman dare get out of the old groove Moreover you men like pretty nonentities The deuce we do exclaimed Colonel Dacre Who told you that Nobody One does not need telling things when one has eyes and ears I have seen you dance as often as four times in one evening with Mrs O Hara Pencilings and Sketches of the Poets Margaret T. Downing, 1867 Poems of the Brokenhearted Hseham Amrahs, 2024-01-10 The thematic range of the collection is expansive covering the various stages of heartbreak from the initial shock to the gradual emergence of strength and resilience Some poems delve into the nostalgia of what once was exploring the remnants of love that linger in memory Others navigate the storm of emotions that accompany the aftermath unraveling the threads of attachment and laying bare the vulnerabilities of the human heart Despite the prevailing melancholy there is an undercurrent of hope that runs through the collection The poems are not only a testament to the pain of love lost but also a celebration of the indomitable spirit that emerges from the ashes of heartbreak They speak to the resilience of the human heart emphasizing that even in the throes of despair there is a transformative journey towards self discovery and renewal The organization of the collection is deliberate creating a narrative arc that mirrors the emotional trajectory of heartbreak The poems are often grouped thematically guiding readers through the labyrinth of emotions with a sense of coherence This organization enhances the overall reading experience creating a flow that mirrors the ebb and flow of the emotional tide The Two Standards William Francis Barry, 1898 Forbidden Love: A Queer Film Classic Jean Bruce, Gerda Cammaer, 2015-12-14 A Queer Film Classic on the 1992 feature documentary on lesbian experience from the 1940s to the 1960s as seen through the lens of lesbian pulp fiction This award winning movie became the most popular ever produced by the National Film Board of Canada and became emblematic of the bold new queer cinema of the early 1990s In 2014 the NFB re released the film in a digitally remastered version Jean Bruce and Gerda Cammaer are both associate professors in the School of Image Arts at Ryerson University in Toronto Miranda in Retrograde Lauren Layne, 2024-08-13 After getting passed over for tenure and having her life upended in the process a physics professor decides to throw caution to the wind and live by her horoscope predictions for a year in this effervescent rom com from the New York Times bestselling author of Made in Manhattan As the youngest physics professor at her university practical minded Miranda Reed plans her life with minute precision But that s before she s denied tenure and the promotion she thought was guaranteed Suddenly her tidy life is anything but constant Overdue for a sabbatical Miranda takes some time to look towards the stars only this time she s not looking for black holes With her faith in science shaken Miranda turns to a practice she s long dismissed as preposterous astrology Determined to figure out why her life has suddenly gone sideways Miranda commits to a year of letting her horoscope guide her Soon she s taking on new home improvement projects adopting a new pet and studying what the stars have to say about her ideal love match The intriguingly aloof artist living next door Never His Aries energy is all wrong On the other hand the charming father of her new tutoring pupil is Sagittarian perfection Made for her right As Miranda navigates life with new a perspective she slowly discovers neither science nor the stars have all the answers
