Loving Tea:

Knowing by Heart Anthony J. Steinbock, 2021-09-15 Drawing on and developing the phenomenological work of figures such as Edmund Husserl and Max Scheler Knowing by Heart Loving as Participation and Critique provides an account of the various feelings and feeling states that pertain to matters of the heart Anthony J Steinbock's work investigates the special kind of knowing that is revealed most profoundly through love Knowing by Heart describes the movement of loving as a participation that bears on all beings Eschewing the dichotomy of rationalism and sensibility that has dominated discussions of love and emotion Steinbock understands the heart as a vast schema ranging from the deepest loving to affects and felt conditions The book brings into focus the importance of a full bodied relational account of a normative critique based in emotion From a phenomenological description of diverse feelings to the normativity of loving as the discernment of the heart this work evaluates hating's relation to loving At the basis of all this is a phenomenological and philosophical anthropology in response to the basic question In reality who and what are we

Love's Garden Peggy Rowe-Ward, Larry Ward, 2008-05-10 A collection of real life Buddhist love stories with commentary and guided exercises for couples developed by Peggy Rowe Ward and Larry Ward senior students and ordained Dharma teachers in the tradition of Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh These personal stories from couples of a range of different ages and experiences illustrate how Buddhist principles can help couples navigate any stage of their relationship It took the authors some good living and good loving before they realized that the love that they were seeking was already present and available in the depths of their hearts and mind Love does not depend on anything that is happening Out There and is not dependent on anything he or she might do It depends on our own willingness to look within and to act This insight is a result of practicing the teachings of the Buddha on right diligence and right effort The authors have been studying and practicing with Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh and they are happy to report that the practices work In iLove's Garden the authors offer key practices such as The Three Keyes see excerpt for the transformation of suffering and the establishment of happiness These practices have helped them see each other's happiness as their own They share stories and illustrations from their own life and also and those of their friends and students brbrThe practice is not difficult We simply need to get in touch with and nourish the practices that are helping us to experience peace And then we need to stop doing the things that keep us from experiencing peace Larry Ward

The Assertive Woman in Zora Neale Hurston's Fiction, Folklore, and Drama Pearlie Mae Fisher Peters, 2015-12-22 Hurston was renowned for her portrayal of assertive women in her fiction folklore and drama This book explores her development as an assertive woman and outspoken writer emphasizing the impact of the African American oral traditions and vernacular speech patterns of Harlem Polk County and her hometown of Eatonville Florida on the development of her personal and artistic voice The study traces the development of her assertive women characters the emphasis upon verbal performance and verbal empowerment the significance of down home Southern humor and the importance of an ideology of assertive individualism in Hurston's writings and analyzes changes in Hurston's personal style. Hurston articulated an assertive spirit and voice that had a profound influence on the development of her professional reputation and on the course of African American literature, folklore, and culture of the 1920s, 1930s, and 1940s. This study combines literary criticism and biography in tracing her often controversial career. This wide-ranging book focuses upon links between Hurston's fiction and nonfiction and includes analysis of her plays, which have often been neglected in studies of her writing. Ph.D. dissertation, State University of New York Buffalo, 1989, revised with new introduction.

Because We Were In Love Sandeep Tiwari, 2023-12-02 Love has the power to shape and shatter our lives, taking us from soaring heights of joy to the depths of heartbreak. Because We Were in Love is a collection of five real-life stories that exemplify the resilience of the human spirit. These are tales of individuals who once in love saw their relationships crumble, only to rebuild their lives in remarkable ways. Amid heartache, it's easy to feel that life has come to a full stop. However, these stories remind us that life's journey continues, even when the path takes unexpected turns. Love may falter, but it also has the power to transform. These narratives illustrate that love, even when it breaks us, can inspire growth. These stories take us through the highs of love, the lows of heartbreak, and the triumph of resilience. They show that the human heart can heal, broken dreams can lead to new beginnings, and life never ceases to move forward. Join us as we celebrate these individuals who emerged from heartbreak stronger, wiser, and more determined, proving that love is a catalyst for transformation.
