Loving Through Bars Children With Parents In Prison:

Loving Through Bars Cynthia Martone,2005 Provides a close up examination of the instability and uncertainty that plague the children of prisoners in a collection of personal anecdotal accounts that chronicle their attempts to cope with the unique challenges in their lives The Relationship Rights of Children James G. Dwyer,2006-04-17 This book presents a sustained theoretical analysis of what rights children should possess in connection with state decision making about their personal relationships which the state does in numerous aspects of family law including paternity adoption custody and visitation termination of parental rights and grandparent visitation It examines the nature and normative foundation of adults rights in connection with relationships among themselves and then assesses the extent to which the moral principles underlying adults rights apply also to children It concludes that the law should ascribe to children rights equivalent though not identical to those which adults enjoy and this would require substantial changes in the way the legal system treats children including a reformation of the rules for establishing legal parent child relationships at birth and of the rules for deciding whether to end a parent child relationship Grief, Loss, and Treatment for Death Row Families Sandra Joy,2013-12-05 The families of death row inmates are rarely considered in public discourse regarding the death penalty They have largely been forgotten and their pain has not been acknowledged by the rest of society These families experience a unique grief process as they are confronted with the loss of their loved one to death row and brace themselves for the possibility of an execution Death row families are disenfranchised from their grief by the surrounding community and their mental health needs exacerbated as they struggle in isolation with the ambiguous loss that comes with the fear that the state will kill their loved one Grief Loss and Treatment for Death Row Families describes the grief that families experience from the time of their loved one s arrest through his or her execution In each chapter Sandra Joy guides the reader through the grief process experienced by the families offering clinical interventions that can be used by mental health professionals who are given the opportunity to work with these families at various stages of their grief The author conducted over seventy qualitative interviews with family members from Delaware who either currently have a loved one on death row or have survived the execution of their loved one Delaware was chosen because though it has a relatively small death row it is ranked third in the nation with its rate of per capita executions This book provides an in depth awareness of the grieving process of death row families as well as ways that professionals can intervene to assist them in healing With increased awareness and effective clinical treatment we can ensure that the families of death row inmates are forgotten no more Freeing Tammy Jody Raphael,2013-03-12 The latest volume in the popular trilogy of books about women poverty and violence Educating the Net Generation Bob Pletka,2007-07-01 Educating the Net Generation How to Engage Students in the 21st Century addresses the national problem of escalating high school dropout rates and student disengagement and offers solutions as to how to best involve students of the millennial generation The book examines the unique characteristics of the Net Generation and explains how the educational expectations and needs of the Net Generation differ from their Gen X parents and Baby Boomer grandparents It also looks at why many students resist engaging in formalized education in schools and ultimately drop out Chapters featuring student interviews and photographs synthesize the perspectives of current high school students regarding their experiences beliefs and thoughts on learning while a parallel set of parent interviews reveals what parents feel is important in their child s education and how they would like to see schools engage their children in learning Recommendations for changes in school policy and the financial investment critical to turning the situation around are also included along with an inventory checklist for parents teachers and school administrators to determine if their individual school environment has what it takes to keep students motivated and engaged

Encountering Correctional Populations

Kathleen A. Fox,Jodi Lane,Susan F. Turner,2018-01-09 While many studying criminology learn to examine offenders offending and its consequences few actually journey into the physical world of prisons to meet offenders face to face Created specifically for criminology students and equally useful for current researchers and practitioners this book serves as a step by step toolkit on how to humanely conduct research with populations in the correctional system The authors combined 60 years of experience allows them to provide field tested practical advice for researching youth and adults on probation on parole or incarceration The book guides readers through practical concerns such as gaining access and building rapport with offenders and those who monitor them the types of correctional data that can be collected informed consent process and research ethics and the logistics of doing research Through personal stories what if scenarios and case studies as well as examples of real world tools like checklists and sample forms the authors share methods of how to overcome the obstacles that criminologists must face as they learn to work with those behind bars

Nurture the Nature Michael

Gurian,2009-01-26 From Michael Gurian the best selling author of The Minds of Boys and The Wonder of Girls comes the next step book that shows how any parent can tune into a child s unique core personality hard wiring temperament and genetic predisposition in order to help that child flourish and thrive Based on the most recent brain research Nurture the Nature features the Ten Tips for Nurturing the Nature of Your Baby self tests checklists and many other tools for you to help your kids get exactly the kind of support they need from infants to adolescents While offering positive ideas for nurturing your child Gurian also shows how to avoid the stress pressures and excessive competition of what he identifies as social trends parenting Most parents know instinctively that their child is unique and has special potential weaknesses and strengths No child is a blank slate Gurian calls on parents to turn away from one size fits all approaches and instead support the individual core nature of a child with effective and customized loving care

Global Perspectives on Re-entry

Ikponwosa Ekunwe,Richard Statler Jones,2011 Global Perspectives on Re Entry explores the challenges facing ex prisoners as they attempt to return to society after serving time in prison The problem of re entry is of growing interest to academics correctional professionals and policy makers who are concerned with high rates of incarceration and the increase in the numbers of prisoners caught up in the revolving door of criminal justice This book is the first attempt to explore the problem of re entry from an international perspective The focus of this book is on strategies utilized in various parts of the Western world that shed light on the struggles facing ex prisoners upon re entry as well as on the way different countries have attempted to solve these problems The book seeks to address the important set of issues involved by bringing together the best of recent research and ideas on the subject of desistance from crime around the world with a distinct focus on how research might impact upon the implementation of ex offender reintegration policies The book is divided into two sections The chapters in the first part Societal Institutional Perspective consider the societal and institutional issues in different countries The chapters in the second part of the book Perspective of the Ex Offender present various viewpoints of experts with first hand accounts of the re entry experiences of ex convicts Publisher s description Shadow Children Anthony S.
