Low Countries Multidisciplinary Studies:

The Low Countries Margriet Bruijn Lacy, 1989 The Low Countries Margriet Bruijn Lacy, Margriet Lacy-Bruijn, 1990-02-28 The diverse topics of the articles in this volume represent many disciplines and range chronologically from the Middle Ages to the most recent years Topics include literature political science history art history language sociology and civilization Co published with the American Association for Netherlandic Studies History in Dutch Studies Robert B. Howell, Jolanda Vanderwal Taylor, 2003 History in Dutch Studies re considers the central role of history within the discipline of Dutch Studies as viewed from a range of specializations within the field Contributions by scholars of Dutch history art history literature and linguistics all illustrate how the past and one s theories and views of history affect the practice of each part of the discipline One reflection of the history of the Low Countries in Dutch Studies is the range of the field it is interpreted broadly in this volume to include studies of Afrikaans as well as Dutch literature poetry as well as prose in light of their histories the history of Flanders and that of the Netherlands approaches within Dutch linguistics as well as a history of language contact and its influence on Dutch This breadth continues in the range of institutions and nationalities that are represented The volume presents work from major scholars from the Netherlands Belgium and South Africa as well as from the United States of America These articles therefore provide a good cross section of ongoing research in the Netherlandic Studies the world over Multidisciplinary Research in Arts, Science & Commerce (Volume-25) Chief Editor- Biplob Auddya, Editor- Dr. A Sudarvizhi, Harry George, Anna George, Dr. V. Anitha, Dr. Bharati Verma, Sanjay Ambadas Salve, 2025-04-22 Handbook of Comparative and Historical Indo-European Linguistics Jared Klein, Brian Joseph, Matthias Fritz, 2017-10-23 This book presents the most comprehensive coverage of the field of Indo European Linguistics in a century focusing on the entire Indo European family and treating each major branch and most minor languages The collaborative work of 120 scholars from 22 countries Handbook of Comparative and Historical Indo European Linguistics combines the exhaustive coverage of an encyclopedia with the in depth treatment of individual monographic studies One Hundred Years of Masochism Michael C. Finke, Carl Niekerk, 2000 Just over a century has passed since the sexologist Richard von Krafft Ebing coined the term masochism in a revised edition of his Psychopathia Sexualis 1890 Put into circulation as part of the fin de si cle process through which sexuality and sexual practices considered deviant became medicalized this suspicious concept grew in significance and explanatory power in the expanding new context of psychoanalytic discourse Today the study of masochism shows signs of becoming a discipline in its own right the political social and cultural ramifications of which exceed and indeed render problematic traditional psychoanalytic perspectives on the phenomenon The essays in this volume demonstrate however that the concept of masochism still offers a point of entry into psychoanalytic theory that while revealing a number of its most vexing insufficiencies and problematic constructions evokes also a sometimes surprising illuminative potential and capacity to adapt to changing social realities And as the volume s title is meant to suggest the authors represented here tend to agree that the continued rich viability of psychoanalytic theory in cultural analysis is best appreciated and ensured through engaging the theory's own social historical and cultural contexts The volume includes clinical perspectives on masochism and articles on medieval romance Goethe Sacher Masoch Krafft Ebing's Psychopathia Sexualis Turgenev Tolstoy Multatuli Fassbinder and masochism and postmodernism Recent Developments in Germanic Linguistics Rosina L. Lippi-Green, 1992-11-27 These are selected papers from the Second Annual Michigan Berkeley Germanic Linguistics Roundtable held in April of 1991 at Ann Arbor Topics include the evolution of the gender system the delineation of the relative clause in historical texts and language as a political tool in the new Europe

Discourse Studies in Cognitive Linguistics Karen Van Hoek, A. A. Kibrik, Leonard G. M. Noordman, 1999-01-01 This volume presents selected papers from the 5th International Cognitive Linguistics Conference within the area of discourse analysis The topics addressed include pronominal anaphora in English and Russian narratives the subtleties of the definite article in English and Spanish the use of discourse particles in Dutch and the function of prosody as a marker of text structure in spoken narratives The papers illustrate the potential of the emerging cognitive linguistic paradigm to provide fresh revealing insights in the study of discourse Power Elites and State Building Wolfgang Reinhard, 1996 The Origins of the Modern

State in Europe series arises from an important international research programme sponsored by the European Science Foundation The aim of the series which comprises seven volumes is to bring together specialists from different countries who reinterpret from a comparative European perspective different aspects of the formation of the state over the long period from the beginning of the thirteenth to the end of the eighteenth century One of the main achievements of the research programme has been to overcome the long established historiographical tendency to regard states mainly from the viewpoint of their twentieth century borders The modern European state defined by a continuous territory with a distinct borderline and complete external sovereignty by the monopoly of every kind of legitimate use of force and by a homogeneous mass of subjects each of whom has the same rights and duties is the outcome of a thousand years of shifting political power and developing notions of the state This major study sets out to examine the processes of state formation and the creation of power elites A team of leading European historians explores the dominant institutions and ideologies of the past and their role in the creation of the contemporary nation state Qualitative-Quantitative Analyses of Dutch and Afrikaans

Grammar and Lexicon Robert S. Kirsner, 2014-02-15 Sharing certain assumptions but differing in theory and practice both Columbia School linguistics CS and Cognitive Grammar CG have increasingly supported their analyses with quantitative evidence Citation of individual sentences in isolation or in context has been supplemented with counts of linguistic forms in texts informant questionnaires and perception tests The present volume continuing a dialogue between CS and CG offers six such qualitative quantitative studies one on Afrikaans and five on Dutch Topics include a demonstrative b pragmatic particles and imperatives c a puzzling dismissive idiom d progressive aspect and e indirect objects While CS is better suited for analyzing relatively closed systems e.g. tense pronouns CG provides more insight into the vagaries of the amorphous lexicon. The author also offers personal remarks on linguistics as a path and discusses how in one case a wrong prediction reflects his dual role as both linguist and student of Dutch as a foreign language.
