Low-Cost Approaches to Promote Physical and Mental Health Luciano L'Abate, 2007-06-06 Most physical and mental health professionals will agree that their time space and funds are generally in short supply even under optimal conditions Their participants clients or patients too will admit to similar deficits of time and patience even with optimal motivation Overburdened mental health facilities are trying to cope with limited budgets and overworked and underpaid personnel Low Cost Approaches to Promote Physical and Mental Health addresses both sides of this shortfall by offering either self administered or easily administered verbal and non verbal interventions designed to promote positive health behaviors while requiring little or no outside funding Editor Luciano L Abate continues his long tradition of prolific innovations by identifying major changes in today s health care systems and explaining how targeted prescriptive promotion prevention strategies can enhance traditional primary secondary and tertiary interventions in key behavioral and relational areas Nutrition weight obesity control diets meal planning vitamins and minerals herbal supplements Exercise expressive movement relaxation meditation and mindfulness Writing for mental health promotion from structured protocols workbooks to less structured focused expressive and guided writing including diaries and autobiographies Sex sexuality affection intimacy and fear of intimacy Mother child bonding as well as couple and family togetherness Spirituality and forgiveness in dealing with inevitable life hurts and disappointments Friendships and support groups Plus leading edge interventions including emotional intelligence animal companionship and computer technology Reviews of each promotional approach are engaging effective and consistent with standard psychological practice for lasting results either away from or in addition to non clinical and clinical settings schools hospitals seniorcitizen centers etc L Abate and his fifty colleagues have designed a future oriented sourcebook for mental and public health professionals who want to maximize their resources and those of their participants

The Low-Carbon Good Life Jules Pretty,2022-12-30 The Low Carbon Good Life is about how to reverse and repair four interlocking crises arising from modern material consumption the climate crisis growing inequality biodiversity loss and food related ill health Across the world today and throughout history good lives are characterised by healthy food connections to nature being active togetherness personal growth a spiritual framework and sustainable consumption A low carbon good life offers opportunities to live in ways that will bring greater happiness and contentment Slower ways of living await A global target of no more than one tonne of carbon per person would allow the poorest to consume more and everyone to find our models of low carbon good lives But dropping old habits is hard and large scale impacts will need fresh forms of public engagement and citizen action Local to national governments need to act equally they need pushing by the power and collective action of citizens Innovative and engaging and written in a style that combines storytelling with scientific evidence this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change sustainability environmental economics and sustainable consumption as well as non specialist readers concerned about the climate crisis

Low Living and High Thinking at Modern Times, New York Roger Wunderlich,1992-06-01 In the mid 1800s deep in the Long Island pine barrens Modem Times was established as an experimental community whose members would not be bound by any government church constitution or bylaws Never more than 150 strong set on a plat of only 90 acres here was a haven for nonconformists Its currency was words its religion was discussion its standard of conduce was unfettered individual freedom Low Living and High Thinking at Modern Times New York rescues this model village from obscurity and demonstrates its importance in the history of American communitarianism and social reform especially in its pursuit of economic justice women s rights and free love The first full length study of Modem Times Wunderlich s account offers telling portraits of this small but significant group of reformers pioneers freethinkers and sexual radicals For 13 years they tested the precepts of the founders of the community the philosophical anarchists Josiah Warren and Stephen Pearl Andrews who advocated the sovereignty of the individual and private but profitless enterprise Each person lived as he or she pleased provided this did not impair the right of another to do the same and each traded goods and services at cost rather than market value enabling cash poor pioneers co own homesteads The community championed every kind of reform from abolitionism women's rights and vegetarianism co hydropathy pacifism total abstinence and the bloomer costume Indifference co marital status and the advocacy of a free love vanguard contributed to the community's controversial and somewhat illicit reputation In 1864 seeking to remove themselves from the limelight Modern Times's remaining settlers renamed the village Brentwood Wunderlich pieced together the village person by person by relying on primary sources such as land deeds census entries and eyewitness accounts He also sheds new light on Warren and Andrews two key figures in the communitarian movement and discusses at length such important contemporaries as Thomas and Mary Gove Nichols Robert Owen John Humphrey Noyes Horace Greeley John Stuart Mill Henry David Thoreau Ralph Waldo Emerson and George Ripley

Escaping the Racism of Low Expectations Barbara from Harlem, 2018-05-15 I was a liberal by default I asked no questions I had no answers I just pulled the lever to vote for Democrats as was expected of me Most of my fellow Black Americans do not fully understand what the term liberal means or who or what they are voting for And in turn they don't realize how harmful those liberal policies are to our freedoms and liberties as Americans I was born into a culture that believes Black equals Democrat A broken home failed marriage and a feeling of victimization fueled my need for inclusion which the Democratic Party fulfilled As an activist and member of the NAACP and Democratic Clubs in Harlem the men I looked up to the Rev Jesse Jackson whom I also campaigned for Congressman Charlie Rangel and Rev Al Sharpton reinforced the negative perceptions that shaped my world But just like false prophets the false narrative that has been spoon fed to us by Black leaders the Black community the media and progressive politicians has enslaved Blacks in a victimhood mentality and entitlement mindset But my eyes were opened to reject victimhood and lack of accountability My journey has proven to me that when you have clarity of conscience love of God and a deep seated belief in America's goodness your life will be enriched and your focus will change to one of accountability

Low Man on a Totem Pole H Allen Smith, 2015-07-27 H Allen Smith has sometimes been referred to as the best selling humorist since Mark Twain Considering that he wrote against the likes of James Thurber Robert Benchley and S J Perelman that's quite a statement And probably true He sold a million copies of each of his first several books starting with Low Man on a Totem Pole In this book which might be called a fraction of his memoirs Mr Smith claimed he could have filled twenty he recounts the high points of his life amid the human race a race he appreciated and observed with a keen nose for the humor hiding in the most unexpected places Here is a panorama of unlikely people who really existed of inconceivable things that actually happened of the commonplace rarities of our frenzied epoch Among others there is the newspaperman who suffered under the delusion that Herbert Hoover had bladders on his feet the man who thoughtfully and perpetually bounced turtle eggs on a bar a deaf dentist who trained his dog to act as his receptionist a child prodigy who couldn't talk any too well but appeared to know more about swing music than the head usher at the Paramount Theater all these are part of Mr Smith's life and times
