What determines the subjects? "The only impulse," he often says, "is that I am similarly unprepared." "The last few years I caught up with what I noticed that in the past I was using my brush rather delicately, but it was like people shouting because somehow it will get through. If you can use almost any brush, the urgency is not there."

The urgency may explain the famously slow go of Freud's (in most cases it's no finish; some take weeks or months). Both, how-
