Lugano Report On Preserving Capitalism In The Twenty First Century:

The Lugano Report - New Edition Susan George, 2003-09-20 This is a new edition of Susan George's acclaimed satire on capitalism. Fictional experts recruited by world leaders to discuss the future of global capitalism provide their assessment of the dire state of the current economy and put forward new ideas for ensuring the survival of the system. But at what cost? Susan George provides a brilliant and chilling vision of the way the winners in the globalisation game profit from poverty and reveals with relentless logic the dark future that lies ahead under capitalism. This new edition features a new introduction from the author.

The Lugano Report Susan George, 1999 This report is not what it seems. It is written entirely by the leading development specialist Susan George. Although a spoof report, it is based on fact and illustrates the logical processes of the world economy as we approach the new century. Written from the perspective of one in broad support of the systems of global power, Susan George is in fact deeply critical of the state of the world. Through her unique style of approach to her subject, George paints a worrying picture of the world over the next 25 years.

Being a Planner in Society Nicholas Low, 2020-08-28 This timely book addresses what it is to be a planner in a changing world, a world in need of transformation in the way planning is done in order to tackle social problems and ecological crises. Nicholas Low argues for the need to revalue public planning sensitive to the social context in which it takes place.

Black Theology and The Black Panthers Joshua S. Bartholomew, 2023-07-27 In Black Theology and The Black Panthers, Joshua S. Bartholomew deals with the relationship between economic justice and racial equality. By examining the economic philosophies and intercommunal survival programs of the Black Panther Party for Self Defense from 1967-1971, Bartholomew utilizes a Womanist methodology to connect the praxis of The Panthers with priorities of Black Theological Ethics. In doing so, Bartholomew offers a basis for moving Christian ethicists away from normative models of economic justice that eschew experience and knowledge from marginalized communities. Ultimately, Bartholomew reveals how the power of racial politics for radical change can constructively and inclusively impact the struggle for freedom and social justice.

Exiles, Travellers and Vagabonds, 2016-10-20 Travel writing, migrant writing, exile writing, expatriate writing, and even the fictional travelling protagonists that emerge in literary works from around the globe have historically tended to depict mobility as a masculine phenomenon. The presence of such genres in women's writing, however, poses a rich and unique body of work. This volume examines the texts of Francophone women who have experienced or reflected upon the experience of transnational movement. Due to the particularity of their relationship to home and the consequent impact of this on their experience of displacement, the study of women's mobility opens up new questions in our understanding of the movement from place to place and in our broader understanding of colonial and postcolonial worlds. Addressing the proximities and overlaps that exist between the experiences of women exiles, migrants, expatriates, and travellers, the collected essays in this book seek to challenge the usefulness, relevance, or validity of such terms for conceptualising today's complex patterns of transnational mobility and the gendered identities produced therein A Hidden Economy Maria Bargh, 2015-11-02 The M ori economy is often defined simply by the contributions of M ori in New Zealand in the areas of farming fisheries and forestry This book explores the ways that M ori in the privatised military industry contribute in monetary and non monetary ways to the M ori economy Workers in the privatised military industry very rarely if ever give interviews about their work or details about their pay However this book includes five interviews with M ori who have worked or are still working in the privatised military industry and explores how they articulate themselves as M ori in the industry giving a glimpse at this secret world and how M ori operate in it Globalization, Security, and the Nation State Ersel Aydinli, James N. Rosenau, 2012-02-01 This volume studies the links among the concepts of globalization security and the authority of the nation state drawing attention to why and how these three concepts are interrelated and why they should be studied together Contributors explore the connections between security and global transformations and the corresponding or resulting changes in state structures that emerge Probing and extending existing paradigms the book offers three regional cases studies the periphery states of the Middle East and North Africa the second world states of the Russian Federation and the core states of the European Union It concludes with three chapters that synthesize the above themes to identify corresponding changes in the patterns of international politics Global Child Poverty and Well-Being Minujin, Alberto, Nandy, Shailen, 2013-01-28 Child poverty is a central and present part of global life with hundreds of millions of children around the world enduring tremendous suffering and deprivation of their most basic needs Despite its long history research on poverty and development has only relatively recently examined the issue of child poverty as a distinct topic of concern This book brings together theoretical methodological and policy relevant contributions by leading researchers on international child poverty With a preface from Sir Richard Jolly Former Assistant Secretary General of the United Nations it examines how child poverty and well being are now conceptualized defined and measured and presents regional and national level portraits of child poverty around the world in rich middle income and poor countries The book s ultimate objective is to promote and influence policy action and the research agenda to address one of the world s great ongoing tragedies child poverty marginalization and inequality

Becoming an Ally Anne Bishop, 2023-04-14 Already I have found myself quoting Anne Bishop s wisdom her simple advice is compelling Right now in Australia she has the power to lead us as we struggle with questions of guilt responsibility and patterns of oppression which are larger than ourselves Rev Tim Costello President Baptist Union of Australia Becoming an Ally is must reading for anyone concerned with understanding and challenging the dynamics forms and sources of oppression whether it is their own oppression that of others or both Bob Mullaly is Head of Social Work at Victoria University Melbourne Where does oppression come from Has it always been with us just human nature What can we do to change it What does individual healing have to do with the struggles for social justice What does social justice have to do with individual healing Why do members of the same oppressed group fight each other sometimes more viciously than their oppressor Why do some who experience oppression develop a life long commitment to fighting oppression while others turn around and oppress others Anne Bishop draws on her many years experience in community work to write this feisty and bestselling guide for activists community workers and welfare workers Women, Insecurity, and Violence in a Post-9/11 World Bronwyn Winter,2017-03-23 September 11 has become a temporal and symbolic marker of the world s brutal entry into the third millennium Nearly all discussions of world politics today include a tacit if not overt reference to that historical moment A decade and a half on Winter considers the impact of 9 11 on women around the world How were women affected by the events of that day Were all women affected in the same way Based on theoretical reflection empirical research and field work in different parts of the world each chapter of the book considers a different post 9 11 issue in relation to women global governance human security globalized militarism identity and sexuality in transnational feminist movements Global Families Meg Wilkes Karraker,2012-05-08 In Global Families author Meg Karraker provides family scholars with a methodical introduction to the interdisciplinary field of globalization Global Families then examines the ways in which globalization impinges on families throughout the world in four major areas demographic transitions world wide culture international violence and transnational employment The book concludes with a discussion of supra national policies and other efforts to position families in this global landscape Adult Education at the Crossroads Matthias Finger,Jose Manuel Asun,2001 Adopting a social action perspective this book is an assessment of where adult education now stands in the world It argues that the purposes and rationale of adult education need to be reconceptualised for it to become an effective agent of change Keywords for Travel Writing Studies Charles Forsdick,Zoë Kinsley,Kathryn Walchester,2019-04-22 Keywords for Travel Writing Studies draws on the notion of the keyword as initially elaborated by Raymond Williams in his seminal 1976 text Keywords A Vocabulary of Culture and Society to present 100 concepts central to the study of travel writing as a literary form Each entry in the volume is around 1 000 words the style more essayistic than encyclopaedic with contributors reflecting on their chosen keyword from a variety of disciplinary perspectives The emphasis on travelogues and other cultural representations of mobility drawn from a range of national and linguistic traditions ensures that the volume has a comparative dimension the aim is to give an overview of each term in its historical and theoretical complexity providing readers with a clear sense of how the selected words are essential to a critical understanding of travel writing Each entry is complemented by an annotated bibliography of five essential items suggesting further reading Handling Societal Complexity Dorien DeTombe,2015-02-24 This handbook for the Methodology of Societal Complexity describes the theoretical development of the field and lays the foundation for the application of the Compram Methodology in the context of addressing complex societal problems As such it offers a valuable resource for scientists practitioners politicians master and PhD students in the fields of methodology the social sciences operational research management and political science and for all others who are professionally involved in handling complex societal problems These problems are the kind that fill the front page of quality newspapers they have a huge impact on society involve a variety of phenomena and actors and are therefore difficult to handle The structured Compram Methodology provides sound guidelines for handling real life societal problems democratically sustainably and transparently Examples of the use of the Compram Methodology are provided in the domain of global safety with regard to healthcare economics climate change terrorism large city problems large technological projects and floods Complex societal problems must be treated as multi disciplinary multi actor multi level and often as multi continental issues As such they call for a multi disciplinary and multi actor approach that takes into account the emotional aspects of the problem and the problem handling process including the micro meso and macro level which can be accomplished using the methods models and tools from the field of the Methodology of Societal Complexity The Compram Methodology improves the problem handling process and increases the quality of interventions and therefore the quality of life Handling complex societal problems can reduce conflicts save money and ultimately even save lives Dorien J DeTombe is an internationally recognized expert and founder of the Theory of the Methodology of Societal Complexity and the Compram Methodology Badiou, Balibar, Ranciere Nick Hewlett,2010-12-16 Ambiguous Restructurings of Post-apartheid Cape Town Christoph Haferburg,Jürgen Ossenbrügge,2003 What will tomorrow s Cape Town look like This volume reflects a variety of aspects of urban development and restructuring efforts in Cape Town in the last years A focus lies on the question if the apartheid city is reproducing itself This leads to an evaluation whether current policies really counter societal imbalances The essays presented here illuminate possible pathways towards the urban futures unfolding in a South African city in transition Media In Terror Muhammad Adeel Javaid,2012-02-07 The book is a unique research work on false flag terror which is perpetrated by the mass media and undertakes a deep study based on Case Learning Model and suggests the ways in which the media should cover terrorism activities and defines the Do s and Don ts for covering such events The book also reveals certain hidden aspects of 9 11 attack media coverage as well as hidden truths of the media coverage of Iraq Mumbai Madrid attacks and War on Gaza The book is an attempt to show that with no other means to see a world beyond how far one can travel media is crucial to bringing the greater world closer to home but journalism is no more about the truth it is just about economic interests and the dogmas of policies It is therefore when media fails to do its job what s created is a world much more exaggerated and black and white than is truly the case Until the world can be represented accurately and moderately we have to continually live in this hyperbole The History of ICSID Antonio R. Parra,2012-08-09 This is the first book to detail the history and development of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ICSID and its constituent treaty the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States covering the years from 1955 to 2010 Antonio Parra the first Deputy Secretary General of ICSID traces the immediate origins of the Convention in the years 1955 to 1962 and gives a stage by stage narrative of the drafting of the Convention between 1962 and 1965 He recounts details of bringing the Convention into force in 1966 and the elaboration of the initial versions of the Regulations and Rules of ICSID adopted at the first meetings of its Administrative Council in 1967. The three periods 1968 to 1988, 1989 to 1999 and 2000 to June 30, 2010 are covered in separate chapters which examine the expansion of the Centre's activities and changes made to the Regulations and Rules over the years. There are also overviews of the conciliation and arbitration cases submitted to ICSID in the respective periods followed by in-depth discussions of selected cases and key issues within them. A concluding chapter discusses some of the broad themes and findings of the book and includes several suggestions for further changes at ICSID to help ensure its continued success. The book offers unique insight into the establishment and design of ICSID as well as into how the institution evolved and its relationship with the World Bank. It is essential reading for those involved in this field.

Why Are We the Good Guys? David Cromwell, 2012-09-16. A provocative challenge to the standard ideology that Western power is a benevolent force in the world.

Key Thinkers on Development David Simon, 2019-04-02. Since its publication in 2006 as Fifty Key Thinkers on Development, this invaluable reference has established itself as the leading biographical handbook in its field, providing a concise and accessible introduction to the lives and key contributions of development thinkers from across the ideological and disciplinary spectrum. This substantially expanded and fully updated second edition, in the relaunched series without the numerical constraint, includes an additional 24 essays filling in many gaps in the original selection, greatly improving the gender balance and diversifying coverage to reflect the evolving landscape of development in theory, policy, and practice. It presents a unique guide to the lives, ideas, and practices of leading contributors to the contested terrain of development studies and development policy and practice. Its thoughtful essays reflect the diversity of development in theory, policy, and practice across time, space, disciplines, and communities of practice. Accordingly, it challenges Western centrism, Orientalism, and the like, while also demonstrating the enduring appeal of development in different guises. David Simon has assembled a highly authoritative team of contributors from different backgrounds, regional settings, and disciplines to reflect on the lives and contributions of leading authorities on development from around the world. These include Modernisers like Kindleberger, Perroux, and Rostow; Dependencistas such as Frank Furtado, Cardoso, and Amin; Progressives and critical modernists like Hirschman, Prebisch, Helleiner, Sen, Streeten, and Wang; Political leaders enunciating radical alternative visions of development such as Mao, Nkrumah, and Nyerere; Progenitors of religiously or spiritually inspired development such as Gandhi, Ariyaratne, and Vivekananda; Development environment thinkers like Agarwal, Blaikie, Brookfield, Ostrom, and Sachs; International institution builders like Singer, Hammar, Kaul, and Ul-Haq; Anti and post-development thinkers and activists like Escobar, Ghosh, Quijano, and Roy. Key Thinkers on Development is therefore the essential handbook on the world's most influential development thinkers and an invaluable guide for students of development and sustainability, policy makers, and practitioners seeking an accessible overview of this diverse field and its leading voices.
