Imagined Economies – Real Fictions Jessica Fischer, Gesa Stedman, 2020-02-05 The way we conceptualise the economy and ourselves as homo economicus has profound consequences for our lives The contributions to this anthology take debates about the financial crisis about recent austerity measures or about the Brexit referendum a step further A common denominator of these dynamics are underlying ideas of the economy Each author identifies a facet of Britain's imagined economies They connect seemingly separate fields such as finance and fiction in order to better understand current political changes In addition the book offers an urgently needed interdisciplinary view on the performative power of economic thought and in this respect moves far beyond merely British perspectives Mythologies of Migration, Vocabularies of Indenture Mariam Pirbhai, 2009-01-01 Pirbhai uses the critical paradigm of indenture history to examine the local literary and cultural histories that have influenced and shaped the development of novel length fiction by writers of the South Asian diaspora in national contexts as diverse as Mauritius South Africa Guyana and Fiji Anglophone Literature of Caribbean Indenture Alison Klein, 2018-09-27 This book is the first comprehensive study of Anglophone literature depicting the British Imperial system of indentured labor in the Caribbean Through an examination of intimate relationships within indenture narratives this text traces the seductive hierarchies of empire the oppressive ideologies of gender ethnicity and class that developed under imperialism and indenture and that continue to impact the Caribbean today It demonstrates that British colonizers Indian and Chinese laborers and formerly enslaved Africans negotiated struggles for political and economic power through the performance of masculinity and the control of migrant women and that even those authors who critique empire often reinforce patriarchy as they do so Further it identifies a common thread within the work of those authors who resist the hierarchies of empire a poetics of kinship or a focus on the importance of building familial ties across generations and across classifications of people The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1877 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1877 The Regulation of Religion and the Making of Hinduism in Colonial Trinidad Alexander Rocklin,2019-02-07 How can religious freedom be granted to people who do not have a religion While Indian indentured workers in colonial Trinidad practiced cherished rituals Hinduism was not a widespread category in India at the time On this Caribbean island people of South Asian descent and African descent came together under the watchful eyes of the British rulers to walk on hot coals for fierce goddesses summon spirits of the dead or honor Muslim martyrs practices that challenged colonial norms for religion and race Drawing deeply on colonial archives Alexander Rocklin examines the role of the category of religion in the regulation of the lives of Indian laborers struggling for autonomy Gradually Indians learned to narrate the origins similarities and differences among their fellows cosmological views and to define Hindus Muslims and Christians as distinct groups Their goal in doing this work of subaltern comparative religion as Rocklin puts it was to avoid criminalization and to have their rituals authorized as legitimate religion they wanted nothing less than to gain access to the British promise of religious freedom With the indenture system s end the culmination of this politics of recognition was the gradual transformation of Hindus rituals and the reorganization of their lives they fabricated a world religion called Hinduism Contradictory Indianness Atreyee Phukan,2022-07-15 Introduction Indenture creolization and literary imaginary Passage and poetics in Totaram Sanadhya and LalBihari Sharma Repatriation and the Indian problem in Ismith Khan s The Jumbie bird 1960 The trope of the ricefield in Harold Sonny Ladoo s No pain like this body 1972 Gendering indenture in Shani Mootoo s Cereus blooms at night 1992 English and Empire David West Brown,2018-10-18 Combining statistical modelling and archival study English and Empire investigates how African diasporic Chinese and Indian characters have been voiced in British fiction and drama produced between 1768 and 1929 The analysis connects patterns of linguistic representation to changes in the imperial political economy to evolving language ideologies that circulate in the Anglophone world and to shifts in sociocultural anxieties that crosscut race and empire In carrying out his investigation David West Brown makes the case for a methodological approach that links the distant quantitative and close qualitative reading of diverse digital artefacts Taking an interdisciplinary approach the book will appeal to a variety of scholars and students including sociolinguists interested in historical language variation as well as literary scholars interested in postcolonial studies and the digital humanities Caribbean Literature in Transition, 1800-1920: Volume 1 Evelyn O'Callaghan,Tim Watson,Raphael Dalleo,Curdella Forbes,Alison Donnell,Ronald Cummings,2021-01-14 This volume explores Caribbean literature from 1800 1920 across genres and in the multiple languages of the Caribbean Searching for Mr. Chin Anne-Marie Lee-Loy,2010-05-28 West Indian literary representations of local Chinese populations illuminate concepts of national belonging The Pall Mall Budget ,1878 The Westminster Review ,1878 The Westminster review
