Dear Friends and Members of St. Pauls Cambridge,

As the pandemic lock-down continues, I imagine that many of us are feeling weary at best, or even worse.

One of the most helpful things we can do, is to recognize and name our concern. Doing so gives it less power over us. I recently read an article from Huffington Post that could help us to name our distresses. Here are 10 common possibilities that we might be facing:

10 Sneaky Ways Your Coronavirus Anxiety Is Coming Out By Dominique Astorino

1. You're feeling more tired than usual, even if you don't do much during the day
2. You aren't sleeping well
3. You startle easily
4. You're channeling lots of energy into hobbies or activities
5. You don't have much interest in anything
6. Intense loneliness
7. You're experiencing reactivation or agitation of other mental health conditions
8. You're getting more headaches or other physical issues
9. You get angry or have more frequent outbursts
10. You keep forgetting things

The full article can be viewed at https://www.huffpost.com/entry/sneaky-ways-coronavirus-anxiety-coming-out_1_5ec2feade5b6cb36f3f2f05a It offers suggestions for how to cope with each of these.

I know that I've experienced several of these symptoms. If you have noticed any of these in your own life, and want to talk, please email me or phone the office and leave a message. I check frequently for messages.

Please know that you remain in my thoughts and prayers.

With love,

Pastor Stephen Weber

Kleckley, 2022-02-14 The Letters of Johann Ernst Bergmann edited and translated by Russell Kleckley chronicles the experiences and perceptions of a German Lutheran pastor called to serve a struggling community in the American South soon after the Revolutionary War Written mostly to Bergmann's superiors at the important center of German Pietism in Halle the letters not only report on conditions in Ebenezer Georgia established over a half century earlier by religious refugees from Salzburg they also offer a distinctive and often critical look at American culture religion and politics from an outsider's viewpoint Bergmann stresses the practical and corrosive impact of American notions of freedom in everyday life while also commenting on a wide range of other issues including Georgia's relationship with Native Americans and the practice of slavery Life and Letters of W. fascinating relationship between his pastoral counsel and his theology Since spiritual direction is not the wholesale application of general principles but the painstaking working out of spirituality in specific situations the personal letter is one of its best expressions Luther knew the holy gospel and the human heart and the double knowledge is evident on the pages of these letters Eugene H Peterson Regent College Regulation of Standby Letters of Credit United States.
