The Great Fires of Lynn Bill Conway, Diane Shephard, 2006 Using photographs from the extensive collection of the Lynn Museum and Historical Society Bill Conway former deputy fire chief of the Lynn Fire Department and Diane Shephard look back on Lynn's great fires and how the city has picked itself up from the ashes

Historic Powder Houses of New England Matthew E. Thomas, 2013-11-05 In the turbulent history of colonial New England more than two hundred powder houses were built to store gunpowder guns and armaments Even the spark from a metal shoe nail could ignite their contents so they often sat in remote sections of town These volatile storehouses played a vital role in earning and preserving American independence It was after all to a powder house in Concord Massachusetts that the British army marched in April 1775 to seize colonists gunpowder The British were thwarted and the colonists defense of the powder house ignited the Revolutionary War Add to this the duels murders public hangings and tragic explosions that checkered the history of these structures and the reader will discover a fascinating and forgotten aspect of our New England heritage Using meticulous research Matthew Thomas narrates the colorful histories of New England's powder houses as he resurrects their historical significance in early American history

Summer by the Seaside Bryant Franklin Tolles, 2008 A sweeping richly illustrated architectural study of the large historic New England coastal resort hotels

Chasing Arizona Ken Lamberton, 2015-02-19 It seemed like a simple plan visit fifty two places in fifty two weeks But for author Ken Lamberton a forty five year veteran of life in the Sonoran Desert the entertaining results were anything but easy In Chasing Arizona Lamberton takes readers on a yearlong twenty thousand mile joyride across Arizona during its centennial racking up more than two hundred points of interest along the way Lamberton chases the four corners of Arizona attempts every county every reservation and every national monument and state park from the smallest community to the largest city He drives his Kia Rio through the longest tunnels and across the highest suspension bridges hikes the hottest deserts and climbs the tallest mountain all while visiting the people places and treasures that make Arizona great In the vivid lyrical often humorous prose the author is known for each destination weaves together stories of history nature and people along with entertaining side adventures and excursions Maps and forty four of the author's detailed pencil drawings illustrate the journey Chasing Arizona is unlike any book of its kind It is an adventure story a tale of Arizona a road warrior narrative It is a quest to see and experience as much of Arizona as possible Through intimate portrayals of people and place readers deeply experience the Grand Canyon State and at the same time celebrate what makes Arizona a wonderful place to visit and live

Lynn, Massachusetts Diane Shepard, 1998-10 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America's history This fascinating new history of Lynn Massachusetts showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards available Drawn largely from the extensive archives of the Lynn Historical Society the images in this informative volume take the reader on a tour of Lynn's beaches and parks streets and squares churches and schools even into the sky for some intriguing bird's eye views giving a glimpse of everything an earlier generation loved about Lynn

Pepperell Joanne Saunders Foley, 1996-09-01 Settlers arrived in Pepperell as early as 1655 attracted by good farmland and the waters of the Nashua and Nissitissit Rivers In a petition granted in 1742 by the general court the area today recognized as Pepperell became known as Groton West Parish Eventually the town was named in honor of Sir William Pepperell of Kittery Maine The settlers of Pepperell were patriotic and hardworking Colonel William Prescott served admirably in the Battle of Bunker Hill and in the late nineteenth century the town became well known for its very prosperous paper making industry Pepperell also came to attract visitors in the mid nineteenth century as it was home to five stagecoach relay stops and the Babbatasset Driving Park In this marvelous new photographic history author Joanne Saunders Foley chronicles the development of Pepperell from the mid nineteenth to the early twentieth century Come along and enjoy vintage views of celebrations parades and firemen's musters and read all about the witch of North Pepperell This marvelous new book gives form to many of the people places and events that have contributed to the history of the town

Historic York County Michael C. Scoggins, 2009 States at War, Volume 1 Richard F. Miller, 2013-11-05 While many Civil War reference books exist there is no single compendium that contains important details about the combatant states and territories that Civil War researchers can readily access for their work People looking for information about the organization activities economies demographics and prominent personalities of Civil War states and state governments must assemble data from a variety of sources and many key sources remain unavailable online This volume the first of six provides a crucial reference book for Civil War scholars and historians professional or amateur seeking information about individual states or groups of states Its principal sources include the Official Records state adjutant general reports legislative journals state and federal legislation federal and state executive speeches and proclamations and the general and special orders issued by the military authorities of both governments Designed and organized for easy use this book can be read in two ways by individual state with each chapter offering a stand alone skeletal history of an individual state s war years or across states comparing reactions to the same event or solutions to the same problems

One-Room Schoolhouses of New Hampshire Bruce D. Heald,2014-07-15 The quaint one room schoolhouses dotting New Hampshire formed the backbone of the early Granite State education system Education minded communities began building these bare bones schools in the late seventeenth century In a modest log or clapboard structure a single teacher faced the challenge of instructing students of all grades through farming seasons and the daily rigors of rural life Often these determined educators were limited to instructing students from whichever books pupils brought from home Despite this education was highly valued and students trekked through the weather of all seasons and endured corporal discipline to become literate and learned Author Bruce Heald explores the evolution of New Hampshire s one room schoolhouses and shares the firsthand accounts and memories of former pupils

Historic Takings in Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area David Fazzino,2022-06-27 The Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area DEWA is among the busiest National Park Service NPS units with millions of annual visitors In this book David Fazzino uses oral history and archival work to consider the ramifications of government land takings done half a century ago to uproot families and communities across 70 000 acres in Pennsylvania and New Jersey Fazzino situates these land takings in historical context to explain the ways places have been taken both physically and ideologically in the name of progress development wilderness and recreation The author contrasts legal valuations measured along utilitarian and material lines with lived valuations which account for place as experiential intimate personal and relational Fazzino also considers the ruins of what was and the remains of past lives in the valley to suggest inclusive possibilities of future management regimes in DEWA and federal public lands more broadly

Lost Mansions of Mississippi, Volume II Mary Carol Miller,2010-09-14 As preservationist Mary Carol Miller talked with Mississippians about her books on lost mansions and landmarks enthusiasts brought her more stories of great architecture ravaged by time The twenty seven houses included in her new book are among the most memorable of Mississippi s vanished antebellum and Victorian mansions The list ranges from the oldest house in the Natchez region lost in a 1966 fire to a Reconstruction era home that found new life as a school for freed slaves From two Gulf Coast landmarks both lost to Hurricane Katrina to the mysteriously misplaced facades of Hernando s White House and Columbus s Flynnwood these homes mark high points in the broad sweep of Mississippi history and the state s architectural legacy Miller tells the stories of these homes through accounts from the families who built and maintained them These structures run the stylistic gamut from Greek revival to Second Empire and their owners include everyone from Revolutionary era soldiers to governors and scoundrels

What Is the Statue of Liberty? Joan Holub,Who HQ,2014-05-29 In 1876 France decided to give the United States a very big and very special present the Statue of Liberty The gift was to commemorate the 100th birthday of the United States and just packing it was no small feat 350 pieces in 214 crates shipped across the ocean The story of how the 111 foot tall lady took her place in the New York Harbor will fascinate young readers American Book Publishing Record, 2006 Slaton Cathy Whitten, 2015 Slaton Texas has a very rich and interesting history The journey began in 1911 with the clickety clack of the railroad track of the Santa Fe Railroad Slaton was named after local rancher and banker O L Slaton on May 11 1911 It was nicknamed Tent City in the beginning because the first citizens lived in tents while construction began on small framed houses and buildings June 15 1911 was the official opening day of the city as people came by train wagon and on foot Soon the Harvey House restaurant was established giving not only delicious cuisine but also meals served by attentive and attractive women who became known as the Harvey girls Slaton became the center of the largest division in the Santa Fe system servicing four daily northbound and southbound trains between Amarillo and Sweetwater Today you still hear the lonesome sound of the Santa Fe rolling through town and the Harvey House is still open to the public Slaton is a small West Texas community of approximately 6 129 citizens and is located 15 miles southeast of Lubbock An Architecture of Education Angel David Nieves, 2018 Examines material culture and the act of institution creation especially through architecture and landscape to recount a deeper history of the lives of African American women in the post Civil War South Tar Heel History on Foot Lynn Setzer, 2013-10-01 This lively collection of 34 of the best history walks in North Carolina highlights the richness and diversity of the state s history from the time of its first settlement to the present Veteran guidebook author Lynn Setzer leads readers on short walks in state parks and natural areas state historic sites charming small towns from the mountains to the sea and the state s largest cities Along the way she brings to life some of our state s most momentous events most accomplished and notorious characters and most famous firsts These walks are varied pleasant and accessible to almost every reader including older day trippers and families with young children Some walks include add ons should readers wish to make a longer day of it Organized by theme and location the walks are accompanied by maps and photographs as well as information on each walk s length and difficulty A list of sources directs readers to additional information so that they can continue a deeper exploration of North Carolina history Bend Food: Stories of Local Farms and Kitchens Sara Rishforth, 2018-06-25 The views surrounding Bend don t exactly conjure notions of traditional farmland Snowy mountains frame open vistas dotted with gnarled juniper trees and sagebrush By day the landscape is blanketed under a blazing sun while cold nights bring relief beneath bright stars Despite these extremes agriculture thrives thanks to the hard work of dedicated farmers and ranchers Irrigated fields support bountiful crops at Fields Farm and Mahonia Gardens Farmers markets most notably at NorthWest Crossing bustle with people buying local produce dairy eggs meat and honey Visit places like the Great American Egg to learn about the business of raising chickens and Jackson s Corner for a delicious sample of what eating local tastes like Author Sara Rishforth goes behind the scenes to present the story of the local farm to table movement Pie Traynor James Forr, David Proctor, 2010-02-01 A Baseball Hall of Famer as of 1948 Pie Traynor was the face of Pittsburgh baseball during the twenties and thirties when the Pirates were a perennial pennant contender They won the Series in 1925 Traynor was a line drive hitter who drove in runs as effectively with doubles and triples as most of his peers did launching balls over the fence and by all accounts he was a dazzling defender After his playing days ended Traynor stayed in Pittsburgh managing the Pirates for five years and working as a popular broadcaster for decades cementing his place as one of the most popular athletes ever to play in the Steel City
