

Simple Lyric

When I think of her sparkling face
And of her body that rocked this way and that,
When I think of her laughter,
Her jubilance that filled me,
It's a wonder I'm not gone mad.

She is away and I cannot do what I want.
Other faces pale when I get close.
She is away and I cannot breathe her in.

The space her leaving has created
I have attempted to fill
With bodies that numbed upon touching,
Among them I expected her opposite,
And found only forgeries.

Her wholeness I know to be a fiction of my making,
Still I cannot dismiss the longing for her;
It is a craving for sensation new flesh
Cannot wholly calm or cancel,
It is perhaps for more than her.

At night above the parks the stars are swarming.
The streets are thick with nostalgia;
I move through senseless routine and insensitive chatter
As if her going did not matter.
She is away and I cannot breathe her in.
I am ill simply through wanting her.

Love's Wounds Cynthia N.

Nazarian, 2017-01-10 Love's Wounds takes an in depth look at the widespread language of violence and abjection in early modern European love poetry Beginning in fourteenth century Italy this book shows how Petrarch established a pattern of inequality between suffering poet and exalted Beloved rooted in political patriarchy Sixteenth and early seventeenth century French and English poets reshaped his model into an idiom of extravagant brutality coded to their own historical circumstances Cynthia N. Nazarian argues that these poets exaggerated the posture of the downtrodden lover adapting the rhetoric of powerless desire to forge a new countersovereignty from within the heart of vulnerability a potentially revolutionary position through which to challenge cultural religious and political authority Creating a secular equivalent to the martyr early modern sonneteers crafted a voice that was both critical and unstoppable because it suffered Love's Wounds tracks the development of the countersovereign voice from Francesco Petrarca to Maurice Scève Joachim du Bellay Thodore Agrippa d'Aubign Edmund Spenser and William Shakespeare Through interdisciplinary and transnational analyses Nazarian reads early modern sonnets as sites of contestation and collaboration and rewrites the relationship between early modern literary forms

Luigi Tansillo and Lyric Poetry in Sixteenth-century Naples Erika Milburn, 2003 Luigi Tansillo is one of the most interesting and representative of the Petrarchist poets active in Naples during the mid sixteenth century This study reconsiders his substantial lyric corpus from a variety of perspectives opening with a survey of the textual tradition and previous critical work on his verse Four of Tansillo's lyric collections are examined in depth and read from narrative and thematic points of view Particular emphasis is placed on the evolution of the collections by exploring the ways in which very different types of narrative implying different underlying poetics can be constructed using often identical poems Parallel to this is a consideration of Tansillo's place within the broader literary historical context and his use of verse as a political and ideological tool in the service of the Spanish viceroy of Naples These detailed studies of individual poetic sequences are complemented by an analysis of Tansillo's poetic language within the context of Neapolitan reactions to the questione della lingua and of his contribution to creating a fixed iconology for the representation of jealousy in the Renaissance and Baroque lyric
