Ma Chère Petite Soeur Lettres A Bernadette 1943-1970:

Writing Between the Lines Agnes Whitfield, 2006 The essays in Writing between the Lines explore the lives of twelve of Canada's most eminent anglophone literary translators and delve into how these individuals have contributed to the valuable process of literary exchange between francophone and anglophone literatures in Canada. Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material, Writing between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation process and the diverse roles of the translator as social agent. The first text on Canadian anglophone translators, it makes a major contribution in the areas of literary translation, comparative literature, Canadian literature, and cultural studies.

Between Languages and Cultures Rosemary Chapman, 2009-04-01 Gabrielle Roy is one of the best known figures of Québécois literature, yet she spent much of the first thirty years of her life studying, working, and living in English. For Roy, as a member of Manitoba's francophone minority, bilingualism was a necessary strategy for survival and success. How did this bilingual and bicultural background help shape her work as a writer in French? The implications of her linguistic and cultural identity are explored in chapters looking at education, language, translation, and the representation of Canada's other minorities, from the immigrants in Western Canada to the Inuit of Ungava. What emerges is a new reading of Roy's work. Drawing on archival material, postcolonial theory, and translation studies, Between Languages and Cultures explores the traces and effects of Roy's intimate knowledge of English language and culture, challenging and augmenting the established view that her work is distinctly French Canadian or Québécois.

In Translation Joyce Marshall, Gabrielle Roy, 2006-12-15 Gabrielle Roy was one of the most prominent Canadian authors of the twentieth century. Joyce Marshall, an excellent writer herself, was one of Roy's English translators. The two shared a deep and long-lasting friendship based on a shared interest in language and writing. In Translation offers a critical examination of the more than two hundred letters exchanged by Roy and Marshall between 1959 and 1980. In their letters, Roy and Marshall exchange news about their general health and well-being, their friends and family, their surroundings, their travels, and other writers, as well as their dealings with critics, editors, and publishers. They recount comical incidents and strange encounters in their lives and reflect on human nature, current events, and from time to time, their writing. Of particular interest to the two women were the problems they encountered during the translation process. Many passages in the letters concern the ways in which the nuances of language can be shaped through translation. Editor Jane Everett has arranged the letters here in chronological order and has added critical notes to fill in the historical and literary gaps, as well as to identify various editorial problems. Shedding light on the process of writing and translating, In Translation is an invaluable addition to the study of Canadian writing and to the literature on these two important figures.

Ma chère petite sœur Gabrielle Roy, François Ricard, 1988 Le volume rassemble 138 lettres inédites écrites par Gabrielle Roy à sa sœur Bernadette, religieuse enseignante, entre 1943 et 1970, année de la mort de cette dernière. Comme l'a écrit J. Ethier Blais de cette correspondance, Gabrielle Roy sort grandie comme femme, comme être humain exemplaire.

Intimate Strangers Margaret Laurence, Gabrielle Roy, 2004-12-02 The books of Margaret Laurence and Gabrielle Roy are among the most beloved in Canadian literature In 1976 when both were at the height of their careers they began a seven year written correspondence Laurence had just published her widely acclaimed The Diviners for which she won her second Governor General's Award and Roy had returned to the centre of the literary stage with a series of books that many critics now consider her richest and most mature works Although both women had been born and raised in Manitoba Laurence in Neepawa and Roy in St Boniface they met only once in 1978 at a conference in Calgary As these letters reveal their prairie background created a common understanding of place and culture that bridged the differences of age and language Here Laurence and Roy discuss everything from their own and each other's writing to Canadian politics housekeeping publishing and their love of nature With a thoughtful introduction by Paul G Socken these lovely and intimate letters record the moving affectionate friendship between two remarkable women Letters to Bernadette Gabrielle Roy, 1990 Making Canada New Dean Irvine, Vanessa Lent, Bart Vautour, 2017-01-01 An examination of the connections between modernist writers and editorial activities Making Canada New draws links among new and old media collaborative labour emergent scholars and scholarships and digital modernisms In doing so the collection reveals that renovating modernisms does not need to depend on the fabrication of completely new modes of scholarship Rather it is the repurposing of already existing practices and combining them with others whether old or new print or digital that instigates a process of continuous renewal Critical to this process of renewal is the intermingling of print and digital research methods and the coordination of more popular modes of literary scholarship with less frequented ones such as bibliography textual studies and editing Making Canada New tracks the editorial renovation of modernism as a digital phenomenon while speaking to the continued production of print

Where Nests the Water Hen Gabrielle Roy, 2010-09-07 The story of Where Nests the Water Hen is as pure as the lives of the people in it and as unforgettable. Set in the remote wilderness of northern Manitoba, this sunny tender idyll of daily frontier life captures as few novels ever have the spirit and the surroundings of the pioneers: not the adventurers and trailblazers who make the headlines but rather the humble folk who follow after and remain living out their lives in obscurity to keep the trails open. Where Nests the Water Hen Gabrielle Roy's second novel is a sensitive and sympathetic tale that captures both the innocence and the vitality of a sparsely populated frontier.

Une écriture en mouvement Stéphanie Bernier, Michel Biron, 2025-05-14 La correspondance critique ou l'écriture de lettres joue un rôle central dans l'histoire littéraire canadienne française, offrant une compréhension unique des œuvres et de leurs contextes. L'activité des pistoliers et pistoliers majeurs est au cœur de cette réflexion, mettant en lumière ceux et celles qui ont façonné leur écriture travers la lettre, qu'il s'agisse de changes intimes ou publics. Leur singularité réside dans l'originalité de leurs propos, de leur style, ainsi que dans leurs commentaires révélateurs de leur position et de leur époque. Par leurs correspondances, ils explorent des idées audacieuses, une introspection profonde et tissent des liens sociaux réels ou imaginaires, souvent entretenus travers ces changes pistolaires. Une écriture en mouvement : les correspondances decrivains francophones au Canada XVIII comprennent une introduction générale, seize articles consacrés aux pistoliers et pistoliers ayant joué un rôle central dans l'histoire littéraire au Québec et au Canada français, deux articles thématiques l'un portant sur la lettre dans les littératures autochtones et l'autre sur la lettre littéraire, ainsi qu'une bibliographie des écrits pistolaires parus au Québec et au Canada français sous forme de livre. Cet ouvrage met en évidence la diversité des usages pistolaires tout en soulignant un point commun : celui de créer, quelque un ou plusieurs personnes. Parce que la lettre constitue toujours une forme d'adresse, autrui, elle incarne l'interaction constante entre la littérature et le monde.

Nouveaux regards sur nos lettres. La correspondance d'écrivain et d'artiste au Québec Pierre Hébert, 2020-02-20 T00:00:00-05:00 Les travaux récents sur le pistolaire réunis dans le présent ouvrage montrent toute la richesse de la lettre. Elle sert la fois de témoignage, de manuscrit, de carnet ou de journal pour l'auteur qui y puise la source de son œuvre ; elle offre une fenêtre sans pareil sur la pensée et l'atelier de l'écrivain ou de l'artiste. Au Québec, les entreprises d'édition de correspondance et les travaux sur le pistolaire se sont multipliés ces vingt dernières années. Rassemblant dix-neuf spécialistes de l'pistolaire au Québec, ce livre rend compte des percées effectuées dans ce champ de recherche. Comment lit-on le pistolaire aujourd'hui et comment donne-t-on lire les lettres d'écrivains et d'artistes du XIXe siècle ?
