Rodgers, 2025-10-21 A wonderful new work from the author of The Flying Cutterbucks that tells a story of childhood friendships an adult affair and the lost innocence of a group of young girls longing for the sea Scandal tragedy and later darker discoveries make for an enthralling read Growing up in the desert town of Sandhill New Mexico Marigold Hubbard and her friends wanted only one thing to see the ocean The community pool and the nearby Santa Rosa Blue Hole are the closest they can get and they dream of mermaids while swimming these rare waters When Marigold learns of the affair between her father and the mother of her best friend Melody Calloway the betrayal tears the girls apart Unmoored from both friends and family Melody meets a tragic and mysterious end on the shores of the Blue Hole leaving Marigold no chance to ever reconcile the friendship Forty years later Marigold returns to Sandhill to care for her elderly father but an envelope of old letters and a cryptic message in an abandoned church leads her on a quest to find answers about what really happened to Melody Threading between past and present Marigold must piece together the tragic chain of events that led to Melody s death pursuing questions that may have no easy answers Waterloo Shireoaks and Beyond Graham Adwick, 2010 Adwick

family history from its Yeomen roots through Waterloo to the mining village of Shireoaks Adding Mills and Price roots the author describes village life before during and after WWII marriage and travels beyond the village boundaries Bud Wilkinson and the Rise of Oklahoma Football John Scott, 2021-10-14 At the end of World War II the top ten college football teams were largely the same as they are today with one exception Oklahoma In 1947 Bud Wilkinson was named OU s head football coach and became the architect of Oklahoma s meteoric rise from mediocrity to its present status as a perennial powerhouse Based on interviews with Wilkinson former OU president George L Cross and numerous former players author

John Scott gives us the behind the scenes story of Wilkinson's years at the University of Oklahoma. Scott takes us through the teams Wilkinson directed from 1947 to 1963, revealing the philosophies and tactics Wilkinson used to turn OU into one of college football's elite programs. A close up view of games from strategy to execution brings OU football and its cast of colorful characters to life. Scott details the Sooners' 47 game winning streak as well as thrilling games against Notre Dame, Army, USC and others. He also provides details of Wilkinson's breaking of the color line in OU athletics and the infamous food poisoning incident in Chicago in 1959. Before his death in 1994, Wilkinson reviewed the first draft of the book and wrote in a letter to the author: "The explanations of football strategies are concise and clear. They rank among the best I have ever read. Including vignettes of Wilkinson's closest coaching friends: Royal Bryant, Leahy Sanders, Blaik, Tatum, Bud Wilkinson and the Rise of Oklahoma Football captures all the drama of Oklahoma's ascendance and serves as an authoritative and entertaining history of the sport that will appeal to all college football fans." Hardwood Record, 1929

Snuff and Temperance Paul Harrison, 2015-03-17 From the riotous trauma of the town's darkest hours in 1919 to the tribulations at one of the UK's first salsa clubs, these stories explore the lives of Lutonians past and present. This is an eclectic look at a much maligned corner of Bedfordshire and beyond, with themes of travel, protest and identity. While some Lutonians have left and returned, eccentric Walter Greer remains embedded in his town, of petrol and lace, searching for Snuff and Temperance in streets where excess and piety still co-exist amongst the diversity of twenty first century Britain. In the final, longer story, Homage to Far Cawley Knoll, the lives of disparate Lutonians we have already met are plaited together in dramatic interplay as we follow Eamonn Doherty's desperate plight set against the backdrop of the bitterly cold winter of 2013. Legends and Rebels of the Football World Norm Parkin, 2014-10-23 Norman Parkin's exotic football career took him all around the world and he's still coaching football teams in the Philippines. On 8 November 2013 he touched down at Manila airport as a natural disaster unfolded around him. He decided to do something to help to write a book about some of football's greatest legends and rebels. Long term aid is still desperately needed to rebuild shattered lives in the Philippines. Norman travelled up and down the UK and spent hours on the phone to capture the stories of the heroes, villains and true characters of football from Stanley Matthews to Malcolm MacDonald. On a quest to discover the true heart and soul of the beautiful game, he met ex-players in pubs, cafes, offices and radio stations. Open the pages to discover a world of blood, sweat and broken bones, a far cry from the multi-million pound game that football has become today. All royalties after expenses from the sale of the book will go to the Philippines Typhoon Relief Fund. Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography (ADB) contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995. The first of two volumes for the 1990s, it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life, containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians. The volume is still in the shadow of World War II, with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing, but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non
