Nude With A View:

Naked Krista K. Thomason, 2018-01-04 We know shame can be a morally valuable emotion that helps us to realize when we fail to be the kinds of people we aspire to be We feel shame when we fail to live up to the norms standards and ideals that we value as part of a virtuous life But the lived reality of shame is far more complex and far darker than this the gut level experience of shame that has little to do with failing to reach our ideals We feel shame viscerally about nudity sex our bodies and weaknesses or flaws that we can't control Shame can cause self destructive and violent behavior and chronic shame can cause painful psychological damage Is shame a valuable moral emotion or would we be better off without it In Naked Krista K. Thomason takes a hard look at the reality of shame The experience of it she argues involves a tension between identity and self conception namely what causes me shame both overshadows me my self conception and yet is me my identity We are liable to feelings of shame because we are not always who we take ourselves to be Thomason extends her thought provoking analysis to our current social and political landscape shaming has increased dramatically because of the proliferation of social media platforms And although these online shaming practices can be used in harmful ways they can also root out those who express racist and sexist views and enable marginalized groups to confront oppression Is more and continued shaming therefore better and is there moral promise in using shame in this way Thomason grapples with these and numerous other questions Her account of shame makes sense of its good and bad features its numerous gradations and complexity and ultimately of its essential place in our moral lives

Master of the Two Left Feet Richard Meyer,2022-09-13 An account of the life and work of a once famous self taught American artist of the 1940s and a study of how artists go missing from public memory The exhibition Morris Hirshfield Rediscovered at the American Folk Art Museum in New York City curated by the author and developed as an extension of the book is on view from September 22 2022 to January 27 2023 A garment worker and slipper manufacturer with no training in art Morris Hirshfield was never expected to make history Against all odds his wildly stylized paintings of female figures often nude animals and landscapes became internationally known in the 1940s Admired by Pablo Picasso Piet Mondrian and the French surrealists his peak moment of visibility occurred in 1943 when the Museum of Modern Art mounted a one man show of his work The exhibition was widely reviewed though mostly reviled by the press who jeeringly crowned Hirshfield Master of the Two Left Feet for his tendency to display the female body in that unorthodox fashion After the artist s death in 1946 his work was largely forgotten but in Master of the Two Left Feet art historian Richard Meyer rediscovers Hirshfield for twenty first century audiences offering full color reproductions that capture the vibrant imagination and sheer visual pleasure of Hirshfield s paintings The book also features a catalog of works compiled by curator Susan Davidson which provides the most comprehensive documentation of the artist's work ever assembled Ten years in the making Master of the Two Left Feet presents Hirshfield's unlikely career as a painter not only as a missing episode in the history of twentieth century art but as a case study of the ways in which artists go missing from historical knowledge and public memory By looking closely at Hirshfield and his milieu in 1940s Brooklyn Meyer demonstrates how much we have yet to learn and to see of the visual past Provocative Bodies Jim Supangkat, 2005 Discussion of the later works of Indonesian painter Mochtar Apin 1923 1994 Eugenics, 'Aristogenics', Photography Kris Belden-Adams, 2020-06-08 This is the first study to explore the connections between late 19th century university college composite class portraits and the field of eugenics which first took hold in the United States at Harvard University Eugenics Aristogenics Photography takes a closer look at how composite portraiture documented an idealized reality of the New England social caste experience and explains how when positioned in relation to the individual stories and portraits of members of the class the portraits reveal points of non conformity and rebellion with their own rhetoric
