European Dimensions and the Secondary School Curriculum Ivor Goodson, Veronica McGivney, 2018-10-03 Originally published in 1985 Europe and the EEC seemed to be virtually synonymous for the majority of our population and the ambivalent feelings many people have about the Community together with the consistently bad press it received in the UK seemed to engender a hostility in educational circles towards teaching about Europe as a whole However if one of the aims of education is to increase children s awareness tolerance and understanding of the world about them to widen their experience and horizons then teaching about the wider world must have a place in the curriculum This book argues for education about Europe not necessarily in favour of Europe breaking down the national insularity of the UK curriculum and using Europe as one convenient window on the wider world Nursing and Social Change Monica F. Baly, 2002-09-11 Nursing and Social Change is essential reading for nurses who wish to understand how their profession had developed from its earliest beginnings to the present day Now in its third edition the book has been completely revised to take into account the challenges facing nurses Ten new chapters include contributions from senior members of the nursing profession who have been closely involved in the most recent health service reorganisation and the radical changes to nurse education Students and practitioners will find Nursing and Social Change invaluable as a comprehensive source of reference which offers a unique combination of scholarship and readability European Dimensions John Field, 1998 Field addresses the European Union s desire for a unified approach to education and its content exploring the origin of this interest the tensions that underlie the policies and its impact at national level Medical Bulletin of the European Command , 1989-07 The History of Families and Households: Comparative European Dimensions Silvia Sovic, Pat Thane, Pierpaolo

Viazzo, 2015-11-30 The history of family and households has been the subject of intensive research for over a generation. In the 1970s Peter Laslett and others set the agenda with a strong emphasis on geographical differences between northern and southern, eastern and western Europe. Others have challenged this view, pioneering different approaches. This volume takes stock of the field, focussing particularly on family history in South East Europe in comparison with the rest of Europe. The authors consider what European families have in common, their regional and local differences and changes over time, using the rich and fascinating variety of sources and methods used by family historians today. Contributors include Guido Alfani, Judit Ambrus, Mirjana V. Bobi, Siegfried Gruber, Peter Guzowski, Violetta Hionidou, Daniela Lombardi, Beatrice Moring, Silvia Sovi, Pat Thane, Alice Velkov, Marta Verginella and Pier Paolo Viazzo.
