under communism the contributors analyze the problems faced by gypsies in Eastern Europe the politics of ethnicity and affirmative action in the Soviet Union and labor market discrimination and ethnic tension in Yugoslavia A bibliography is included for those wishing to pursue further research on the subject By focusing attention on discrimination in regions of the world little studied in past works on ethnic conflict these essays represent a unique and important contribution to the literature of international economics and political economy

Affirmative Action A. M. Babkina, 2004 This guide to the literature presents 451 descriptions of books reports and articles dealing with all aspects of affirmative action including Race relations Economic aspects Reverse discrimination Preferences Affirmative Action programs Public opinion Court decisions Education and many more Complete author and subject indexes are provided

Nationalism and Ethnoregional Identities in China Safran William, 2013-05-13 Western political scientists have tended to neglect the ethnic dimension in China and have overemphasized the development from large empire to unified nation This book brings together a number of case studies on the ethnic and regional dimensions of Chinese politics and society

Ethnic Diversity and Public Policy C. Young, 2016-07-27 In recent years the saliency of conflicts pitting different ethnic racial and religious groups against one another has increased dramatically The world of nation states is much more diverse than previously realized only a small number of the 185 independent countries are truly homogeneous With the end of the cold war the relative importance of ethnic conflicts as a threat to international peace and stability is far greater An international set of scholars collaborate in this volume to explore policy alternatives which can contribute towards the accommodation of cultural diversity

The Origins and Demise of South African Apartheid Anton David Lowenberg, William H. Kaempfer, 1998 What motivated South Africa's former white leaders to hand over the reins of power to a black government Economist Anton D Lowenberg examines the economic interests that led to apartheid and the economic prospects for post apartheid South African society

The Politics of Environment in Southeast Asia Philip Hirsch, Carol Warren, 2002-01-31 The environment in Southeast Asia is now a major issue of topical concern First book to give analysis in depth of the political processes involved in environmental disputes Provides a good selection of case studies in the region Questions the assumption that the middle classes are in the vanguard of the environmental movement

New Tribalisms Michael W. Hughey, 2016-03-29 The resurgence of racial ethnic and nationalist loyalties in the contemporary world are examined in this volume Considered collectively the contributors offer both a conceptual understanding of race and ethnicity and an empirical examination of their renewed importance in and implications for contemporary societies With sections on the American experience with ethnoracial pluralism and on ethnonationalist movements in other parts of the world Hughey offers an extensive treatment of the origins expressions and implications of the new tribalisms now confronting the world

A Federal Perspective on the Abkhaz-Georgian Conflict Neno Gabelia, Romina Gurashi, 2017-08-21 Since the beginning of the 21st century the problem of the development of regional security has become increasingly relevant in international politics Of particular concern is the post Soviet space which remains in the most difficult process of transformation The Georgian Abkhaz conflict which entered a sharp phase in 1992 was one of the first and most lengthy 1992 2008 international conflicts in the former Soviet Union Complex factors such as the deep roots of the confrontation the great human sacrifices of the political parties during the hostilities the high degree of defensive involvement of the entire population of Abkhazia and the asymmetry in the approaches of the parties all determine the need for an analysis of the nature and the origins and dynamics of the Georgian Abkhazian conflict This book identifies the nature and the origins of the Georgian Abkhaz conflict and the causes of the inefficiency of the official negotiation process and it evaluates the hypothesis of a possible federalist transformation of the institutions of both Georgia and Abkhazia In the international panorama federalism in fact is being increasingly considered as an instrument of conflict transformation in the case of conflicts based on cultural diversity and ethnicity Apartheid In Theory And Practice Mats Ove Lundahl,2019-04-24 This book employs the neoclassical theory of discrimination to explain the apartheid system of South Africa and the changes that discriminatory practice has undergone It deals with the question whether economic sanctions are likely to be efficient weapons for combating racial discrimination Minority Rights Protection in International Law Helen O'Nions,2016-04-22 There are approximately ten million Roma in Europe making them the continent's largest non territorial minority Despite this fact the Roma continue to experience routine discrimination and marginalization in European countries As a result they are seldom engaged in national political activism and are frequently at the bottom of the economic and social ladder The severity of exclusion experienced by the Roma in societies which have long paid heed to the notion of individual universal human rights combined with their geographical dispersal and heterogeneous nature makes the study of the Roma highly informative This book examines the theoretical debate concerning the most appropriate way of protecting the fundamental human rights of the Roma which also illuminates ways in which the rights of minority groups can be protected more generally As a result this work will be a valuable resource for social scientists and practitioners in the field of human rights Racism in Contemporary America Meyer Weinberg,1996-05-23 Racism in Contemporary America is the largest and most up to date bibliography available on current research on the topic It has been compiled by award winning researcher Meyer Weinberg who has spent many years writing and researching contemporary and historical aspects of racism Almost 15 000 entries to books articles dissertations and other materials are organized under 87 subject headings In addition there are author and ethnic racial indexes Several aids help the researcher access the materials included In addition to the subject organization of the bibliography entries are annotated whenever the title is not self explanatory An author index is followed by an ethnic racial index which makes it convenient to follow a single group through any or all the subject headings This is a source book for the serious study of America's most enduring problem as such it will be of value to students and researchers at all levels and in most disciplines Social Inclusion and Economic Development in Latin America Mayra Buvinić,Jacqueline Mazza,Ruthanne Deutsch,2004 Poverty and inequality in Latin America are easily recognizable in the faces of women Afro descendents the indigenous people with disabilities victims of HIV AIDS and other groups outside the societal mainstream Social Inclusion and Economic Development in Latin America reviews the common features of these excluded populations including their invisibility in official statistics and the stigma discrimination and disadvantages they have long endured But it also examines the region s inclusionary policies and programs that can improve access by these groups to the quality social services and economic and political resources these groups need to level the playing field Case studies examine ethnic and racial political organization gender quotas and labor markets across the region and social exclusion in Brazil Honduras Guatemala Mexico and Peru Comparative studies summarize social inclusion policies of both the European Union and selected countries on the Continent

Europe's Troubled Region William

Bartlett,2007-12-21 The breaking up of Yugoslavia hasn t been an efficient clean process to say the least This book presents a sober comparative analysis of the economic development of the newly formed states since the break up

Political

Economy Barry Clark,2016-03-21 This nontechnical book provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary survey of political economy that can easily be understood by any reader with an introductory level background in economics As 21st century political debate becomes polarized across ideological lines students and citizens need to understand the underlying values on which contending arguments are based The current political gridlock calls for a deeper appreciation of the competing perspectives in political economy Now revamped for a third edition Political Economy A Comparative Approach supplies a truly interdisciplinary examination of the development and evolution of political economy from the Enlightenment onward drawing material from the realms of political theory sociology philosophy and history as well as from economics to present detailed comparisons of competing perspectives on a variety of current issues The book begins with an introduction to political economy that provides readers with an overview of the historical development of the discipline followed by in depth analyses of four ideological perspectives in political economy Classical Liberalism Radicalism Conservatism and Modern Liberalism The author then applies each of the four ideological perspectives to a range of contemporary issues such as the role of government economic instability poverty labor relations discrimination education culture the environment and international trade Readers will gain insight into the methods and practice of political economics as well as better understand the history of political economic thought and the effects of historical processes European industrialization for example on modern debates

Globalization, Privatization and Free Market Economy C. Rao,1998-06-25

The three dominant forces shaping societies and economies around the world are globalization privatization and liberalization Because these processes are interrelated they must be addressed collectively The contributors to the volume show that globalization privatization and liberalization are multidimensional phenomena that impact not only the economic considerations of governments but also sociocultural and environmental aspects of societies The three phenomena also affect these units of analysis which Rao and his colleagues identify as regional country industrial and organizational The result is a cogent discussion of these powerful global forces for the academic community professionals in economic development banking finance international investment and global commerce After treating the conceptual issues of meaning definition and differing interpretations and perspectives the volume examines the historical experience with regional economic integration The flow of foreign direct investment a major consequence of globalization privatization and liberalization of economies is considered next This leads to a study of the challenges created for management at the microlevel in organizations such as the intensification of competitiveness and the increased importance of technology and technology management In their examination of country specific issues the contributors show how widely experiences vary with regard to the way in which the three major processes are implemented and how the policies behind them are adopted Finally in their discussion of sectoral and industry specific issues the contributors note that great variations on how different industrial sectors and industries will approach and recreate themselves under the power of the three great processes

Social Justice and the Welfare State in Central and Eastern Europe Demetrius S. Iatridis, 2000-04-30 With the collapse of the Eastern Bloc Central and Eastern European states have had to confront fundamental changes in economic social and governmental structures So far many of these countries in transition from a command to a market based system have experienced rapid deterioration of socioeconomic conditions and standards of living Although there have been successes in some areas such as greater political and consumer choices the overall situation has reached crisis proportions as evidenced by increased unemployment crime and family disorganization The essays in this collection address significant issues dealing with the frameworks of social justice and equality policies for families and women implications for the welfare state and the impact on health care As such the collection is invaluable for all scholars and researchers involved with contemporary Central and Eastern European public policy and social conditions

Indian Diaspora , 2008-01-01 Indian Diaspora Social Gerontology Nursing Multiculturalism Education In historic and ethnographic accounts of Indians living in diaspora the elderly seem to receive much less attention than the new generation and its progress prosperity and success Using critical pedagogy approach this book attempts to close that gap by focusing on the voices of the Punjabi Bengali Sindhi and Gujarati diasporic Indians elderly living in five countries Learning to listen to the voices of these seniors may enable professors teachers students policy makers and parents to work towards building democratic societies
