Selected Poetry:

Selected Poetry John Donne, 1998 John Donne 1572 1631 is perhaps the most important poet of the seventeenth century In his day it seemed to his admirers that Donne had changed the literary universe and he is now widely regarded as the founder of the metaphysical school Donne's poetry is highly distinctive and individual adopting a multitude of rhythms images forms and personae from irresistible seducer to devout believer His greatness stems from the subtleties and ambivalences of tone that convey his remarkably modern awareness of the instability of the self This collection of Donne's verse is chosen from the Oxford Authors critical edition of his major works It includes a wide selection from his secular and divine poems such as the rebellious and libertine satires and love elegies the virtuoso Songs and Sonnets and the desperate passionate Holy Sonnets John Carey's introduction and extensive notes provide valuable insights into Donne's poetic genius

Selected Poetry and Prose Algernon Charles Swinburne, 1968 An anthology The Selected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, 1938 This new Jeffers Selected Poetry includes poems from the last quarter century of his life the previous Selected Poetry included poems only through 1937 It derives from the monumental five volume The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Stanford 1988 2000 edited by Tim Hunt and includes a sampling of the poems Jeffers left unpublished along with several prose pieces in which he reflects on his poetry and poetics

Selected Letters John Keats, 2002 This book contains a collection of Keats letters written over four years With extraordinary candour and self knowledge he gives us his experience of almost everything that can happen to a young man between the ages of 21 and 25 Lydia Sigourney Lydia Sigourney, 2008-08-28 Lydia Huntley Sigourney 1791 1865 was the most widely read and respected pre Civil War American woman poet in the English speaking world In a half century career Sigourney produced a wide range of poetry and prose envisaging the United States as a new kind of republic with a unique mission in history in which women like herself had a central role This edition contributes to the current recovery of Sigourney and her republican vision from the oblivion into which they were cast by the aftermath of the Civil War the construction of a male dominated American national literary canon and the aesthetics of Modernism In this Broadview edition a representative selection of poetry and prose from across her career illustrates Sigourney's national vision and the diversity of forms she used to promote it In the appendices letters and documents illustrate her challenges and working methods in what she called her kitchen in Parnassus

Robinson Jeffers Mercedes Cunningham Monjian, 2012-01-12 Robinson Jeffers name has been so inseparably linked with California that it is difficult to think of his origins being elsewhere Jeffers was both in 1887 in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania His father was a professor at Western Theological Seminary and a scholar of ancient languages who taught his son to read Greek before he started school In 1902 Jeffers enrolled in the University of Western Pennsylvania now the University of Pittsburgh but his family moved to California soon thereafter and he graduated from Occidental College at the age of eighteen Inhumanism was the label Jeffers first used in the preface to The Double Axe and Other Poems to explain the doctrine that permeates all of his poetry Defining humanism as a system of thinking in which man his interests and development are made dominant his addition of the negative prefix was his attempt to subdue human interests and development to something greater contrasting them against the magnificent beauty and immense worth of the natural world In addition to discussing Jeffers life and philosophy Monjian analyzes the form and style of his poetry calling it a singular style slashing its way across the page with violence of image and a free crashing rhythm She ends the book Whatever the future holds for this poet our own age is still awed by the magnificent talent and effort of a burdened mind struggling to free humanity from the shackles of an impoverished self love and the myths to which he believes it gave birth Selected Poetry Victor Hugo, 2002 This generous varied selection of poems by one of France s best loved and most reviled poets is presented with facing originals detailed notes and a lively introduction to the author s life and work Steven Monte presents more than eighty poems in translation and in the original French taken from the earliest poetic publications of the 1820 s through collections published during exile to works published in the years following Hugo s death in 1883 The introduction provides helpful background information about Hugo s life and work the selection and what is involved in translating a poet whose effortless rhymes are central to the poetry s power Detailed notes at the back of the volume offer information about the poems and their publishing and historical contexts This is an ideal introduction to a poet whose work for all its renown remains for Anglophone readers undiscovered

The Selected Poetry and Prose , 1953 Directory of Web Sites Graham Bennett, 1999 Overloaded with the mass of information on the Internet Frustrated by how difficult it is to find what you really want Now you don t need to spend hours browsing around the Internet or grappling with the huge number of hits from an Internet search engine the Directory of Web Sites will take you straight to the best educational sites on the Internet From archaeology to zoology from dance to technology the Directory provides information more than 5 500 carefully selected Web sites that represent the best of what the Internet has to offer The sites are grouped by subject each one features a full description and the text is complemented throughout by screenshots and fact boxes As well sites have been selected purely on educational merit all sites with overtly commercial content and influence from Internet providers have been excluded Selected Poetry John

Hollander, 2012-05-02 Perfection is a rare accomplishment particularly in American poetry and the perfection of much of Hollander s work makes it essential reading for anyone who genuinely cares for the craft of poetry But in our fallen world we seem fated to value power of perfection and John Hollander s poetry has shown a visionary power just often enough to secure him a place as one of the major figures of our moment Vernon Shetley The New Republic Track of the Mystic

Marcianne Kappes, 1994-11 Examines how Jessica Powers integrated her life and time in history with her religious experience to produce a mystical poetry and spiritual vision W. B. Yeats Alexander Norman Jeffares, 1997 This set comprises of 40 volumes covering nineteenth and twentieth century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set compliments the first 68 volume set of

Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995 Selected Poetry and Prose William Blake,1953 Gothic Voices Matt Foley,2023-02-09 This Element provides new ways of reading the soundscape of the Gothic text Drawing inspiration from the field of sonic Gothic studies which has been spearheaded by the writings of Isabella van Elferen as well as from Mladen Dolar's articulation of the psychoanalytic object voice this study introduces the critical category of vococentric Gothic into Gothic scholarship In so doing it reads important moments in Gothic fiction when the voice takes precedence as an uncanny monstrous or seductive object Historically informed the range of readings proffered demonstrate the persistence of these vocal motifs across time from the Gothic romance to contemporary Gothic and across intermedia forms from literature to film to podcasts Gothic Voices then provides the first dedicated account of voices of terror and horror as they develop in the Gothic mode from the Romantic period until today Luso-American Literature Robert Henry Moser, Antonio Luciano de Andrade Tosta,2011 Portuguese and Cape Verdean immigrants have had a significant presence in North America since the nineteenth century Recently Brazilians have also established vibrant communities in the U S This anthology brings together for the first time in English the writings of these diverse Portuguese speaking or Luso American voices Historically linked by language colonial experience and cultural influence yet ethnically distinct Luso Americans have often been labeled an invisible minority This collection seeks to address this lacuna with a broad mosaic of prose poetry essays memoir and other writings by more than fifty prominent literary figures immigrants and their descendants as well as exiles and sojourners It is an unprecedented gathering of published unpublished forgotten and translated writings by a transnational community that both defies the stereotypes of ethnic literature and embodies the drama of the immigrant experience 1650-1850 Norbert Col,2021-05-14 1650 1850 combines fresh considerations of prominent authors and artists with searches for overlooked or offbeat elements of the Enlightenment legacy Readers of Volume 26 will explore the response among British women writers to Islam female religious enthusiasts theories of monarchy famous authors living in villages and a special feature on metaphor in the Enlightenment Enlivening the volume is a cavalcade of full length book reviews Postcolonial Ecologies Elizabeth DeLoughrey, George B. Handley,2011-04-20 This is the first collection to bring environmental issues into a dialogue with postcolonial studies By examining African Caribbean Pacific Island and South Asian literatures and how they depict the relationship between humans and nature Postcolonial Ecologies makes a compelling argument for a more global approach to thinking through our current environmental crisis

Negotiating Motherhood in Nineteenth-Century American Literature Mary McCartin Wearn,2007-11-13 By examining maternal figures in the works of diverse authors such as Harriet Beecher Stowe Nathaniel Hawthorne Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs and Sarah Piatt this book exposes the contentious but fruitful negotiations that took place in the heart of the American sentimental era negotiations about the cultural meanings of family womanhood and motherhood The Doubts and Loves of Yehuda Amichai Ido Bassok,2024-11-15 The Doubts and Loves of Yehuda Amichai Israeli European and

International Poet presents the life and works of Yehuda Amichai born Ludwig Pfeuffer in Würzburg Germany The book is based on copious material from Amichai s personal archive in the Beinecke Library at Yale University other archives and numerous interviews with family members and others who knew him well Each phase of the biography is linked to its overarching historical context and provides a literary analysis of the key features of his writing What emerges is a multifaceted picture of a crucial period in the 20th century in which Amichai was both a witness and an actor without ever taking a simplistic direct position in his poetry Amichai an engaged political poet was an enlightened humanitarian European while remaining an authentic Israeli who loved his country and was deeply involved finding solutions to its problems Amichai was also a great admirer of women The analysis of his tempestuous love life helps shed light on important aspects of his prose and poetry Several chapters are also devoted to the background and influence of Amichai s works in genres other than poetry including his two novels and a collection of short stories his radio plays and his children s poetry
