Edmund Bosworth,2001-10-25 The evolution of Oriental Studies in Britain over the last century is traced in thirteen essays on key figures twelve of them Fellows of the British Academy They exemplify the outstanding contribution of British scholars to Oriental scholarship within the general trend in the West to understand and interpret the civilisations of the East sympathetically Through the careers and achievements of these influential scholars these essays shed light on studies ranging from Ancient Egyptian and Hebrew through Arabic Persian and Turkish to Indology Chinese and Japanese With important changes of methodology and approach to the cultures and religions of Asia the twentieth century has been an exciting and fruitful period for Oriental Studies in Britain Shamanism Shirley Nicholson,2014-06-18 A powerful collection of essays from authors such as Mircea Eliade Joan Halifax Stanley Krippner Brooke Medicine Eagle Serge King and Michael Harner on the mystifying phenomenon of shamanism around the world what it is how it works and why Alluring Monsters Rosalind Galt,2021-11-16 The pontianak a terrifying female vampire ghost is a powerful figure in Malay cultures as loved and feared in Southeast Asia as Dracula is in the West In animist tradition she is a woman who has died in childbirth and her vengeful return upsets gender norms and social hierarchies The pontianak first appeared on screen in late colonial Singapore in a series of popular films that combine indigenous animism and transnational production with the cultural and political force of the horror genre In Alluring Monsters Rosalind Galt explores how and why the pontianak found new life in postcolonial Southeast Asian film and society She argues that the figure speaks to a series of intersecting anxieties about femininity and modernity globalization and indigeneity racial and national identities the relationship of Islam to animism and heritage and environmental destruction The pontianak offers abundant feminist potential but her disruptive gender politics also unsettle queer and feminist film theories by putting them in dialogue with Malay epistemologies Reading the pontianak as a precolonial figure of disturbance within postcolonial cultures Galt reveals the importance of cinema to histories and theories of decolonization From the horror films made by Cathay Keris and Shaw Studios in the 1950s and 1960s to contemporary film television art and fiction in Malaysia and Singapore the pontianak in all her media forms sheds light on how postcolonial identities are both developed and contested In tracing the entanglements of Malay feminist animisms with postcolonial visual cultures Alluring Monsters reveals how a pontianak theory can reshape understandings of anticolonial aesthetics and world cinema

Malay Political Leadership Tony Shome,2004-08-02 This book demonstrates how particular values and notions of leadership which underpinned traditional Malay leadership have played a crucial role in the political evolution of the modern Malaysian nation The author discusses the nature of Malay notions of leadership and considers this throughout the Malay world at the local as well as at the national level and goes on to describe and analyse leadership from pre independence leadership in the colonial period through the rule of Malaysia s four prime ministers He draws on anthropology psychology and political and economic history to show how Malay leaders have kept within the established track of the Malay value system responding in particular to the expectation of their people to provide a sense of national identity and unity against the complex background of the Malaysian mosaic while addressing the needs of the wider multi ethnic community Throughout the evolutionary development of Malay leadership symbolisms for the perpetuation of leadership veneration persisted in its institutions and in the sublime power of the sultans The Malay case offers one of the most remarkable studies of leadership in its attempt to maintain indigenous primacy in a large multi racial environment subscribing to western democracy for its governance while retaining conservative Islamic values This book is a significant contribution to the understanding of the evolution of leadership It begins with an explanation of the early Malay World belief system and progresses to the period of colonization and nationalism It then follows through the dynamics of modern politics encapsulating the biographical profiles of all Malaysia s Prime Ministers Tunku Razak Hussein and Mahathir in three aspects national unity the economy and foreign affairs The analysis of Mahathir s leadership extends into the new millennium This is the only book with biographical profiles of all of Malaysia s Prime Ministers This book will be of interest to students academics politicians foreign affairs specialists and any reader interested in leadership studies and about Malaysia s political and economic history      Malay Literature of the 19th Century Siti Hawa Hj.
