Phillip,1990-10-01 How many of us have felt like Phillip Z He has a staunch belief in the Twelve Steps yet struggles with the concept of a Higher Power In A Skeptic's Guide to the 12 Steps the author investigates each of the Twelve Steps to gain a deeper understanding of a higher power He examines what may seem like unsettling concepts to us including surrendering one's will and life to God and he encourages us to understand the spiritual journey of recovery despite our skepticism Outside the Camp Garth Cross,2017-01-13 If you're looking for a feel good read Outside the Camp is not it If you want joy without lament grace without sin light without darkness or love without pain read something else In fact the wince factor of this book is through the roof and I thought someone ought to warn you But if you want to read something that is profoundly and Biblically true revolutionary and life changing this is it Garth has given God's people a wonderful gift and I rise up and call him blessed You will too Steve Brown professor author radio show host and leader of Key Life Network I have more thoughts emotions and places your story took me than I am able to capture I had to let you know that the Lord has deeply impacted me through your book Thank you Jim Amandus Senior Pastor at Highlands Community Church near Seattle Outside the Camp tells the story of a former pastor's journey through a season of turmoil and personal failure The story of his decade of disillusionment sets the context for his observations as a church outsider in regards to how evangelical churches often fail in response to the wounded the outcasts and the sinners in their midst Offered in the form of Biblical lament three concerns are addressed the evangelical church does not truly offer or even fully understand the gospel of grace it preaches instead suggesting that believers need to try harder and do more to prove themselves worthy of God's favor the faith community is artificial rather than authentic and too often the wounds of its soldiers are left unattended people whose pain is too deep and complex for the church to easily comprehend are referred outside the church for the help they need to survive or they are simply neglected The book concludes with a consideration of God's intent to restore sinners by offering grace that is full and free with a call for the church to once again communicate the unadulterated gospel to all who need its healing balm The Other Side of Sin Andrew Sung Park,Susan L. Nelson,2012-05-21 The good news of Jesus Christ is for both sinners and the sinned against For the past two thousand years Christian theologians have focused on the experience of sinners but treated their victims inadequately To counterbalance this perspective a diverse group of Christian scholars consider sin from the other side To make sense of Christianity from this standpoint they offer a more complex and comprehensive analysis of human participation in evil and its reconciliation than the simple formula of sin and repentance The Other Side of Sin is an original fresh and exciting adventure into one of the most needed areas of theological thinking Forbidden Fruits Ray Broadus Browne,1984 This volume examines the concept of taboos and tabooism and a dozen powerful ones in our society and

Fox,2018-11-08 Ken Fox writes Walking a path of emotional health is the most significant thing I can do if I want to nurture and promote a culture of change and growth across the tapestry of my life Energize Your Emotions for Life is entirely about what we can do to bring change to our lives It is about becoming our own best friend not in some self absorbed way but as a foundation for cultivating satisfying relationships with others Instead of seeing emotions like anger or fear as harmful the author shows how our emotions can be a friend who has incredibly much to offer each one of us Based on extensive interdisciplinary research in affective neuroscience biblical studies leadership philosophy and psychology this practical easy to understand self leadership book is written for anyone who wants to walk a path of emotional health and self care As a biblical scholar Ken Fox has done a thorough critical study of emotions in the Bible Energize Your Emotions for Life is also informed by years of pastoral ministry mentoring and counseling students and the author s own journey of living transformative self leadership The Child's Song Donald Capps,1995-01-01 Theological ideas and biblical injunctions have frequently been employed to legitimate the physical abuse of children Some theological ideas are inherently abusive because they create fear in a child s mind causing a child to feel alone odd and of little worth Donald Capps exposes the abuses that theology and the Bible have inflicted on vast numbers of children In particular he is concerned with the hidden abuses of children by well intentioned adults and the role that religion plays in the legitimation of these abuses Recovery from Smoking Elizabeth Hanson Hoffman, Christopher Douglas Hoffman, 1998 Second Edition Elizabeth Hanson Hoffman rationalized her smoking for 27 years then she finally accepted the fact that she was powerless over cigarettes Using her own story the Twelve Steps and techniques she has developed as a practicing psychologist Hoffman will help you find the strength to finally let go of smoking The Depleted Self Donald Capps, 1993-01-01 Although narcissism may appear dormant in the 1990s clinical research on narcissism shows that behind a grandiose exhibitionistic side lies a shame ridden half of self loathing unworthiness and depression Capps says that traditional theologies of guilt are unable to address those gripped by shame and makes a case for a different pastoral approach in counseling and ministry Focus ,1994 Locating Atonement Zondervan, 2015-11-10 A Close Look at Atonement's Place in Contemporary Systematic Theology In light of renewed interest in the doctrine of atonement during which a range of atonement models have gained momentum among different traditions it's important to map these models to the broader context of theological thought on this aspect of Christ's work and to show how no single approach has the complete picture The proceedings of the third annual Los Angeles Theology Conference seek to identify the place of the doctrine of atonement in systematic theology Locating Atonement stays away from discussion of theories of atonement typologies of those theories and contests among various theories Instead its focus is on the question What else is there to do in atonement theology besides rehashing types and theories The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Atonement and the concept of punishment Atonement and ascension Atonement and human suffering Atonement and covenant Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future Judge and be Judged Eric Bain-Selbo, 2006-01-01 Judge and Be Judged offers insights into moral life and moral judgment that aim to help in understanding our society's tendency towards either fundamentalism or relativism By examining the social function of shame the possibility of cross cultural understanding and obstacles to moral judgment in the classroom this book charts a path that helps to avoid both fundamentalism and relativism Disabled Literature Miles Beauchamp, Wendy Chung, Alijandra Mogilner, 2015 This book by Beauchamp Chung Mogilner and Svetlana Zakinova examines how authors have used characters with disabilities to elicit emotional reactions in readers additionally how writers use disabilities to present individuals as the other rather than simply as people Finally the book discusses how literature has changed or is changing with regards to its presentation of those with a disability Dual Diagnosis Joel Solomon, Sheldon Zimberg, Edward Shollar, 2013-06-29 Patients who have both a psychiatric disorder and a substance abuse problem cause most clinicians to throw up their hands in despair The clinical problems that these dual diagnosis patients present are enormously complex Diagnostically how is one to tell if disorders of mood and thinking for instance are signs of a mental illness or consequences of substance abuse How is one to obtain important historic information when the patient may be unable or unwilling to provide it and there are no readily available collateral sources of information In any case why bother Treatments for dually diagnosed patients are ineffective patients won't stay in treatment recidivism occurs at a very high rate To make matters even more difficult traditional health care reimbursement mechanisms do not provide for the multimodality clinical programs and special services needed by the patient who is both mentally ill and a substance abuser So the clinician needs an effective bureaucratic strategy as well as a treatment strategy For the most part clinicians have handled the problem by ignoring it

The Enduring, Invisible, and Ubiquitous Centrality of Whiteness Kenneth V. Hardy, 2022-05-17 A comprehensive collection on the topic of whiteness from writers in the field of mental health and activism Whiteness is a pervasive ideology that is rarely overtly identified or examined despite its profound effects on race relationships Being intentional about naming deconstructing and dismantling whiteness is a precursor to responding effectively to the racial reckoning of our society and improving race relationships addressing systemic bias and moving towards the creation of a more racially just world In this collection of essays scholars from a variety of backgrounds and trainings explore how the longstanding centering of whiteness in all aspects of society including clinical therapy spaces has led to widespread racial injustice Contributors include David Trimble Lane Arye Jodie Kliman Ken Epstein Toby Bobes Cynthia Chestnut Ovita F Williams Gene E Cash Jr Carlin Quinn Christiana Ibilola Awosan Niki Berkowitz Jen Leland Mary Pender Greene Hinda Winawer Bonnie Berman Cushing Michael Boucher Robin Schlenger Alana Tappin Timothy Baima Jeffery Mangram Liang Ying Chou Irene In Hee Sung Ana Hernandez Robin Nuzum Keith A Alford Hugo Kanya and Cristina Combs
