Mao's Last Revolution Roderick MACFARQUHAR, Michael Schoenhals, 2009-06-30 The Cultural Revolution was a watershed event in the history of the People's Republic of China the defining decade of half a century of communist rule Before 1966 China was a typical communist state with a command economy and a powerful party able to keep the population under control But during the Cultural Revolution in a move unprecedented in any communist country Mao unleashed the Red Guards against the party Tens of thousands of officials were humiliated tortured and even killed Order had to be restored by the military whose methods were often equally brutal In a masterly book Roderick MacFarquhar and Michael Schoenhals explain why Mao launched the Cultural Revolution and show his Machiavellian role in masterminding it which Chinese publications conceal In often horrifying detail they document the Hobbesian state that ensued The movement veered out of control and terror paralyzed the country Power struggles raged among Lin Biao Zhou

Enlai Deng Xiaoping and Jiang Qing Mao's wife and leader of the Gang of Four while Mao often played one against the other. After Mao's death in reaction to the killing and the chaos Deng Xiaoping led China into a reform era in which capitalism flourishes and the party has lost its former authority. In its invaluable critical analysis of Chairman Mao and its brilliant portrait of a culture in turmoil Mao's Last Revolution offers the most authoritative and compelling account to date of this seminal event in the history of China.

Edgar Snow John Maxwell Hamilton, 2003-09-25 Edgar Snow 1905-1972 was one of the most notable Western journalists to report on China in both the revolutionary and postrevolutionary periods. He first became famous in the mid 1930s when he broke through a Nationalist blockade and reached the Communists in northwest China. For nearly a decade no foreign reporter had seen the Communists who were widely regarded as a ragtag bandit army. Snow took them seriously as a national movement. His reporting in the now famous book Red Star over China was major news even to the Chinese thousands of whom joined the Communists after reading it. It has remained a seminal reference on the early Chinese Communist movement. In this award-winning biography journalist John Maxwell Hamilton follows Snow from his birth in Kansas City to his rise as a celebrated foreign correspondent for the Saturday Evening Post, his ostracism during the cold war and his role as a singular journalistic bridge between Communist China and the United States. With a new preface by the author this revealing portrait of the widely misunderstood Snow firmly establishes him as a model for the kind of committed reporting that is crucial to understanding our interdependent world.

Australia's China Lachlan Strahan, 1996 First published in 1996 Australia's China explores the multifaceted and dynamic Australian encounter with China from the beginning of the Sino Japanese War in 1937 through the Cold War to the Australian recognition of the PRC in 1972. Going beyond conventional policy studies it traces the patterns in Australian reactions to China from the grass roots to official circles highlighting the centrality of images concerning the exotic disease sexuality the frontier and China as a paradise anti-paradise. In responding to China Australians revealed something of themselves and this book maps the formation of Australian conceptions of identity in the context of a cross cultural encounter which was variously cooperative enriching baffling and antagonistic. But there was no single Australian conception of China. Rather competing perceptions jostled in a shifting dialogue.
