Shaping the Schools of the Canadian West David C. Jones, Nancy M. Sheehan, Robert M. Stamp, 1979-01-01      Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework Richard Connors, John M. Law, University of Alberta. Centre for Constitutional Studies, 2005-11 Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework analyzes the principal events and processes that precipitated the emergence and formation of the law and legal culture of Alberta from the foundation of the Hudson's Bay in 1670 until the eve of the centenary of the Province in 2005 The formation of Alberta's constitution and legal institutions was by no means a simple process by which English and Canadian law was imposed upon a receptive and passive population Challenges to authority latent lawlessness interaction between indigenous and settler societies periods pre and post 1905 of jurisdictional confusion and demands for individual group and provincial rights and recognitions are as much part of Alberta's legal history as the heroic and mythic images of an emergent and orderly Canadian west patrolled from the outset by red coated mounted police and peopled by peaceful and law abiding subjects of the Crown Papers focus on the development of criminal law in the Canadian west in the nineteenth century the Natural Resources Transfer Agreement of 1930 the National Energy Program of the 1980s Federal Provincial relations and the role and responsibilities of the offices of Justices of the Peace and of the Lieutenant Governor and the legacies of the Lougheed and Klein governments      The Canadian Prairies Gerald Friesen, 1987-01-01 A history of the Canadian prairie provinces from the days of Native European contact to the 1980s

A History of Education in Saskatchewan University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2006      Youth, University, and Canadian Society Paul Axelrod, John G. Reid, 1989 Paul Axelrod and John Reid take the reader through one hundred years of the complex and turbulent history of youth university and society Contributors explore the question of how students have been affected by war and social change and discuss who was able to attend university and who was not showing how access to privilege has changed over the years      How Schools Worked Robert Douglas Gidney, Winnifred Phoebe Joyce Millar, 2012 A richly textured study of educational developments in English speaking Canada from the close of the Victorian Age to the eve of World War II      Mennonites in Canada: 1939-1970 : a people transformed Frank H. Epp, T. D. Regehr, 1974-01-01 T D Regehr shows how the Second World War challenged the pacifist views of Mennonites and created a population more aware of events problems and opportunities for Christian service and personal advancement in the world beyond their traditional rural communities      Religion in Multicultural Education Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2006-05-01 The National Association for Multicultural Education in Washington D C listed a number of issues that the school curriculum should address with reference to multicultural education including racism sexism classism linguisticism ablism ageism heterosexism and religious intolerance It is noteworthy that of all these issues religion is about the only one that throughout history people are willing to die for although whether what is at issue is really religion or other things such as territory is another matter It is also interesting that all the others have isms in their names but religious issues are characterized by intolerance Perhaps we should try to understand this intolerance and look at what steps might help to alleviate it However while intolerance might seem a simple thing understanding what is behind it and how it plays such a crucial role in religion requires what we refer to in the Introduction chapter as a multifaceted approach at multiple levels It is not enough just to try to dispel stereotypes of followers of other religions or to point out commonalities in world religions We should for example try to understand and appreciate how adherents of other religions try to answer questions regarding their adaptation to the contemporary environment It is through understanding how different religions coexist side by side at various levels that we truly come to learn about religion in multicultural education

The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy Daniel Drache, Wallace Clement, 1985-01-01 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada's external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline

Wishart, 2004-01-01 Wishart and the staff of the Center for Great Plains Studies have compiled a wide ranging pun intended encyclopedia of this important region Their objective was to give definition to a region that has traditionally been poorly defined and they have

Alex Lord's British Columbia John Calam, 2007-10-01 Alex Lord a pioneer inspector of rural British Columbia schools shares in these recollections his experiences in a province barely out of the stage coach era Travelling through vast northern territory utilizing unreliable transportation and enduring climatic extremes Lord became familiar with the aspirations of remote communities and their faith in the humanizing effects of tiny assisted schools En route he performed in resolute yet imaginative fashion the supervisory functions of a top government educator developing an educational philosophy of his own based on an understanding of the provincial geography a reverence for citizenship and a work ethic tuned to challenge and accomplishment These memoirs invite the reader to experience the British Columbia that Alex Lord knew Through his words we endure the difficulties of travel in this mountainous province We meet many of the unusual characters who inhabited this last frontier and learn of their hopes fears joys sorrows and eccentricities More particularly we are reminded of the historical significance of the one room rural school and its role as an indispensable instrument of community cohesion John Calam organizes the memoirs according to the regions through which Lord travelled Included in the introduction are a biography of Alex Lord a brief description of the British Columbia he knew a sketch of the province s public education system and an assessment of the place Lord s writing now occupies among other works on education and society

Tsqelmucwíl̓c Celia Haig-Brown,2022-11-08 In May 2021 the world was shocked by the news of the detection of 215 unmarked graves on the grounds of the former Kamloops Indian Residential School KIRS in British Columbia Canada Ground penetrating radar established the deaths of students as young as three in the infamous residential school system where children were systematically removed from their families and brought to the schools At these Christian run and government supported institutions they were subjected to physical mental and sexual abuse while their Indigenous languages and traditions were stifled and denounced The egregious abuses suffered at residential schools everywhere created a multi generational legacy of trauma for those who survived and as the 2021 discoveries confirmed death for too many Tsqelmucwíl̓c pronounced cha CAL mux weel is a Secwepemc phrase loosely translated as We return to being human again Tsqelmucwíl̓c is the story of those who survived the Kamloops Indian Residential School based on the book Resistance and Renewal a groundbreaking history of the school published in 1988 the first book on residential schools ever published in Canada Tsqelmucwíl̓c includes the original text as well as new material by the original book s author Celia Haig Brown essays by Secwepemc poet and KIRS survivor Garry Gottfriedson and Nuuchahnulth elder and residential school survivor Randy Fred and first hand reminiscences by other survivors of KIRS as well as their children on their experience of KIRS and the impact of their residential school trauma throughout their lives Read both within and outside the context of the grim 2021 discoveries Tsqelmucwíl̓c is a tragic story in the history of Indigenous peoples of the indignities suffered at the hands of their colonizers but it is equally a remarkable tale of Indigenous survival resilience and courage This publication meets the EPUB Accessibility requirements and it also meets the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines WCAG AA It is screen reader friendly and is accessible to persons with disabilities A book with many images which is defined with accessible structural markup This book contains various accessibility features such as alternative text for images table of contents page list landmark reading order and semantic structure

Peace, Progress and Prosperity Gordon Leslie Barnhart,University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2000 Thomas Walter Scott was a newspaper owner and successful businessman before being elected to the House of Commons in 1905 as member for

Assiniboia West He became leader of the Saskatchewan Liberal Party by 1905 and premier of the new province This biography covers the life of this respected political leader from birth through his political career to his retirement years giving a picture of his labours in the fields of education female suffrage agriculture and public policy whose fruits continue to be of influence in the province

The Dominion of Youth Cynthia Comacchio, 2008-10-08 Adolescence like childhood is more than a biologically defined life stage it is also a sociohistorical construction The meaning and experience of adolescence are reformulated according to societal needs evolving scientific precepts and national aspirations relative to historic conditions Although adolescence was by no means a discovery of the early twentieth century it did assume an identifiably modern form during the years between the Great War and 1950 The Dominion of Youth Adolescence and the Making of Modern Canada 1920 to 1950 captures what it meant for young Canadians to inhabit this liminal stage of life within the context of a young nation caught up in the self formation and historic transformation that would make modern Canada Because the young at this time were seen paradoxically as both the hope of the nation and the source of its possible degeneration new policies and institutions were developed to deal with the problem of youth This history considers how young Canadians made the transition to adulthood during a period that was developmental both for youth and for a nation also working toward individuation During the years considered here those who occupied this dominion of youth would see their experiences more clearly demarcated by generation and culture than ever before With this book Cynthia Comacchio offers the first detailed study of adolescence in early twentieth century Canada and demonstrates how young Canadians of the period became the nation's first modern teenagers
