Preparing for Ministry George M. Hillman, Most seminaries now require their students to get real world training by way of supervised theological field education This volume presents the wide array of issues that must be understood in order to integrate theological education and practical ministry including the importance of theological field education its purpose and challenges the need for flexibility in meeting different students needs and the resources available to create a meaningful and educational experience What are They Saying about Theological Reflection? Robert L. Kinast, 2000 Theological reflection is a form of theologizing that begins with lived experience correlates this with the sources of Christian faith and draws out concrete implications for praxis Robert Kinast finds five distinct types of theological reflection from within this common form ministerial spiritual wisdom feminist inculturation and practical theology Each of these styles is analyzed in terms of the type of experience it favors the way it connects this experience to theology and what sort of praxis it envisions The end result is a succinct overview of this wide ranging and diverse approach to theology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

L. Borreson, 1998 Here are over 50 case studies of real clergy church crises problems and legal issues Each one provides background description analysis and an evaluation suggesting how it might have been handled differently Let Ministry Teach Robert L. Kinast, 1996 Relating theology to the practice of ministry is one of the most elusive goals in pastoral training Drawing upon seventeen years of experience in theology Doctor Kinast describes a step by step approach to help students and experienced ministers learn what their ministry teaches Through examples practical suggestions and principles grounded in process theology readers of Let Ministry Teach explore the full range of resources needed for meaningful theological reflection Let Ministry Teach strikes a clear balance between a very broad and detailed presentation of a theological reflection method so that it is neither too simplistic nor too hard to handle Each chapter describes a fundamental step in the method with the help of an illustration and commentary Chapters conclude with a list of practical suggestions and a short description of the theoretical background and its main points The challenge of theological reflection is to keep theology in the authentic experience of God's presence in our midst Let Ministry Teach places this reflection in context in a small group where it works best as a meaningful experience one that has an impact and initiates discussion as a faith theological perspective reflecting on experience from many points of view as a practical outcome where a person is in a better position to guide events according to one's beliefs and as a continuous process a skill which must be practiced In Let Ministry Teach Doctor Kinast develops a successful way of doing theological reflection which includes selecting an experience focusing on the meaningful moments describing an experience making it available for reflection entering an experience learning what it has to teach learning from an experience grasping what it teaches by relating it to what a person already knows and what the experience suggests is yet to be learned and enacting the learning incorporating the learning into a pattern of living and theological reflection The true basis of theological reflection a full deep meaningful embrace of life is learned from one's own experience Respectful of the full range of theological resources available for reflection and mindful of the primary goal of recognizing God's presence and responding to it theological reflection weaves experience and theology together into a way of life that continues the journey begun when Jesus first appeared Let Ministry Teach is offered as a companion for those on that journey Robert L Kinast a pastoral theologian specializes in the field of theological reflection Through the publications and services of the Center for Theological Reflection Indian Rocks Beach Florida he contributes to the ministry training programs of many denominations in the United States and Canada He is the author of the Vatican II Act II series and Mirror Meditations Praying with the Images of Vatican II published by Liturgical Press

Spiritual Care in Practice George Fitchett, Steve Nolan, 2015-02-21 Revealing the richness and depth of understanding that chaplaincy brings to direct work with patients these in depth case studies and critical responses from other chaplains and healthcare professionals give insight into spiritual carer patient work in a range of settings and the vital work of chaplains in the healthcare team Brimming with God Barbara J. Blodgett, Matthew Floding, 2015-08-13 The yearning to be a theologian is widespread Pastors students supervisors and mentors all wish to think theologically about their ministries but often feel inadequately prepared This book seeks to respond by showcasing a variety of approaches to theological reflection brought to bear upon actual situations in ministry It is written by theological field educators We define theological reflection as reflection upon lived embodied experiences in ministry that seeks to make sense of practice and form reflectors in habits for competent ministry An introductory chapter defines theological reflection as practiced within field education and points readers toward a diversity of approaches Eleven subsequent chapters present two reflections upon the same case each reflection written by a different author and representing a different reflection method The book's significance is as a resource for teaching theological reflection in a range of settings It not only offers a definition of and rationale for theological reflection but models various approaches to it Its use of cases furthermore models the use of case studies in theological education and pastoral practice more widely

Welcome to Theological Field Education! Lee Carroll, Jaco Hamman, Barbara J. Blodgett, Lorraine Ste-Marie, Joanne Lindstrom, Sarah B. Drummond, 2010-12-21 Field education is an opportunity for students to develop ministry skills practice ministerial reflection discern their call experience professional collegiality and undergo personal transformation Field education offers them a place to practice ministry and a space to reflect on it to integrate theory and practice and grow towards competency In Welcome to Theological Field Education eleven directors of field education in seminaries and divinity schools across North America pass on their wisdom to both students and their supervisors Edited by Matthew Floding director of field education at Western Seminary in Holland Michigan this volume covers critical topics such as the art of supervision and formation the use of case studies and peer reflection groups self care and ministerial ethics and assessment Formation for ministry is especially challenging at this time in the church's life First the explosion of knowledge pluralism and consumerism and a host of other complicating factors make huge demands on what a minister must know to be effective in ministry Second with the erosion of thick religious subcultures the novice minister has fewer sources of practical wisdom to draw upon The next generation of ministers if they are to be more fully formed for ministry depends on skilled mentoring alongside wise supervisors This book is the tool to help them make the most of their field education experience theology well from online courses and dealing with the technologies necessary to do so Writing Theology Well Lucretia Yaghjian,2006-11-24 In its creative integration of the disciplines of writing rhetoric and theology Writing Theology Well provides a standard text for theological educators engaged in the teaching and mentoring of writing across the theological curriculum As a theological rhetoric it will also encourage excellence in theological writing in the public domain by helping to equip students for their wider vocations as writers preachers and communicators in a variety of ministerial and professional contexts Prison Ministry Dennis W. Pierce,2014-01-02 Show the incarcerated how to find forgiveness in unforgiving surroundings As the prison population in the United States increases by more than 1 000 inmates each week prison ministry programs must have a working blueprint for dealing with the shame humiliation hate and loneliness of incarceration at both the adult correctional and juvenile detention probation levels Prison Ministry Hope Behind the Wall demonstrates how a ministry can adapt Latin American Liberation theology to address oppression and bring prisoners into the community of Christ Author Dennis Pierce former chaplain at the Joliet Correctional Center in Illinois where the Fox Network s 2005 Prison Break series is filmed presents a functioning approach to forgiveness and reconciliation combining pastoral counseling Christian education Bible studies and worship to help inmates develop self esteem and an overall feeling of self worth through compassion and empathy Prison Ministry Hope Behind the Wall provides an alternative resource on our prison system for chaplains pastors priests and students working in theology ethics or counseling Instead of the usual descriptive narratives of inmates lives or discussions of statistical approaches this unique book combines a theological model with a viable programmatic approach to confront the oppression of incarceration and reverse its effects The book looks at the vital issues facing juveniles in the criminal justice system the transition from county jail to a correctional facility victimization rejection under stimulation homosexual rape and examines the creation of non threatening niches to address coping structures needed to move toward forgiveness and reconciliation Prison Ministry Hope Behind the Wall examines meeting the incarcerated defining prison s emotional ethos dealing with human breakdowns oppression in maximum security prison components of empowerment needed for prison ministry Prison Ministry Hope Behind the Wall also includes case studies of four inmates an extensive bibliography a glossary of prison terms sample Bible studies and sermon topics The book is invaluable for anyone dealing with incarcerated youth and young adults in civilian or military correctional or juvenile detention facilities The Church As Learning Community Norma Cook Everist,2010-10-01 Norma Cook Everist contends that it is meaningful to say that in ministries of administration outreach and pastoral care the church is functioning as a learning community Whenever and wherever Christians are being formed into the image of Jesus Christ through ministry there Christian education is taking place Christian education is the name we give to that process of formation Building on this central insight Everist has written a major new introduction to the tasks and practices of Christian education Part 1 of the book focuses broadly on what it means to be the church in the world Part 2 shows how being a learning community requires ongoing growth in faith throughout the span of life Part 3 shifts focus to the church as it moves into the community and world Cultivating Competence Sarah B. Drummond, 2025 The challenges of leadership in the early twenty first century require an all hands on deck approach to ministerial leadership The days of born leaders are behind us in this complex and fraught cultural season Ministers must know how to grow in their leadership and to foster growth in others

My Life Journey: Both Upwards and Downwards Barbara B. Troxell, 2025-02-24 In this book Barbara shares her personal experiences as a leader in parish and campus ministries as a spiritual director as a retreat leader as a seminary professor and in the development of inner authority and professional opportunities among clergywomen She also affirms her deep appreciation of many kinds of music throughout her life Living in Christ Stephen W. Hiemstra, 2020-04-20 Our journey in Christian ethics starts with God in whose image we are created Creation begins with birth and continues as we mature Our character matures shaped by the example of Christ under the mentorship of the Holy Spirit through the family and the church Christian leaders reach full maturity once they are able to mentor others we are blessed to be a blessing Living in Christ focuses on explaining not justifying Christian ethics At a time and in a place where people scoff at developing a theological understanding of their faith and refuse to teach Christian morality ethics is almost a lost art At the heart of the ethical dilemma is a tension between theological principles that can only be resolved the guidance of the Holy Spirit How do you practice forgiveness for sinners who refuse to confess their sin and force you to bear its consequences In this context ethics is less a philosophical discipline than a recognition of our own limitations as Christians and the need for divine intervention Ethical thought and action always involve interpretation under the guidance of the Holy Spirit It is thus ironic that a book on Christian living should have an outward focus on God rather than an inward focus on what to do and not do This interpretative element colors how we view character formation the community of faith leadership and the many special issues that arise in daily life Hear the words walk the steps experience the joy
