Groome,1991-01-01 Sharing Faith Thomas H. Groome,1991 Sharing Faith Thomas H. Groome,1991 What are They Saying about Theological Reflection? Robert L. Kinast,2000 Theological reflection is a form of theologizing that begins with lived experience correlates this with the sources of Christian faith and draws out concrete implications for praxis Robert Kinast finds five distinct types of theological reflection from within this common form ministerial spiritual wisdom feminist inculturation and practical theology Each of these styles is analyzed in terms of the type of experience it favors the way it connects this experience to theology and what sort of praxis it envisions The end result is a succinct overview of this wide ranging and diverse approach to theology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Sharing Faith Thomas Groome,1998-11-23 Provides a comprehensive introduction to all aspects of religious education and pastoral ministry and gives an in depth inquiry into the philosophical educational and theological theories for sharing faith International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson,Marian de Souza,Gloria Durka,Liam Gearon,2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity Mothering, Public Leadership, and Women's Life Writing Claire Wolfteich,2017-07-31 In Mothering Public Leadership and Women's Life Writing Claire E Wolfteich presents a series of case studies in Christian spirituality bringing mothers autobiographical writing into focus for theological reflection From the medieval mystic Margery Kempe to the twentieth century activist Dorothy Day from African American preacher Jarena Lee to labor organizer Dolores Huerta the book mines women's first person writing surfacing critical issues for theological analysis Listening deeply to these diverse maternal voices the book advances creative theological reflection on work vocation time poverty Sabbath and spiritual guidance Mothering Public Leadership and Women s Life Writing demonstrates the significance of the study of mothering for theology and spirituality studies and the import of life writing as an underutilized source for practical theology Questioning Our Faith in Practice Katherine Turpin,2024-10-07 Practical theology emerged as a discipline steeped in white supremacy traces of which can be found in some of its most central practices and habits of mind Identifying the remnants of this legacy allows practical theologians to begin to imagine how to proceed without reinscribing narratives of white saviors unlimited progress dominating control of bodies and individual heroic leadership You are invited to question this worldview while learning from scholars imagining a decolonized future Sharing Jesus Holistically with the Buddhist World David Lim,Steve Spaulding,2005-06-01 This book compiles the works of reflective practitioners who are committed to developing creative approaches of communicating the gospel in culturally sensitive ways to the Buddhist peoples of the world with the hope of seeing them follow Jesus The five major dimensions of a holistic witness among Buddhist peoples discussed are experiential dialogue intellectual dialogue biblical exposition cultural sensitivity and economic development Does Religious Education Matter? Mary Shanahan,2016-07-28 In the current climate and in an age of increasing hostility towards religion and the study of religion religious education is a much debated area Bringing together an interdisciplinary team of contributors from the USA Britain and Ireland and Australia representing a variety of religious perspectives Does Religious Education Matter provocatively demonstrates that it is vital that religious education is presented as it really is a valuable and rich resource that when taught and engaged with appropriately stimulates essential qualities for global and responsible citizenship critical thinking tolerance respect and mutual understanding Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian,Mark A.
