Carter,Beatriz M. Reyes-Foster,2020-10-09 The feeding of human milk to socially and biologically unrelated infants is not a new phenomenon but the Euroamerican values of individualism have generated expectations that mothers are individually responsible for feeding their own infants Using a bio communities of practice framework this dynamic new analysis explores the emotional and material dimensions of the growing milk sharing practice in the Global North and its implications for contemporary understandings of infant feeding in the US Ranging widely across themes of motherhood gender and sociology this is a compelling empirical account of infant feeding that stimulates new thinking about a contentious practice Sharing the Crust Mark R. Gornik,2024-08-23 In Sharing the Crust Mark Gornik tells the story of an unbreakable love through the life and witness of Allan Tibbels and a communion of saints in the Sandtown neighborhood of Baltimore Sharing the Crust is about the power of small changes the little way and the hard work of peacemaking in a divided world It is about the meaning of companionship in this life and the life to come of who we are to one another A refreshingly complex story of ministry church life and community development Sharing the Crust is a witness to faith hope and love for our times Rip-Roaring Reads for Reluctant Teen Readers Gale W. dense and scaffolded physical circumstances In these areas individuals cannot fulfil their natural obligations to each other without the help of collective rules As foundational territories overlap the territories of other political units Nine frames a theory of nested and shared territorial rights and argues for insightful changes to the allocation of resource rights between political groups and individuals
