Autobiography Memoir The Memoirs of a Young Bastard Tim Burstall,2012 Tim Burstall the celebrated director of Stork Alvin Purple and numerous other definitive ocker comedies is credited with shaking the moribund Australian film industry out of its torpor But long before that in the early 1950s he began keeping a diary to record the world of the group of arties and intellectuals he was living among in Eltham then a rural area outside Melbourne where cheap land was available for mudbrick houses and studios and where suburban rigidities could be mercilessly flouted Burstall was in his mid twenties with two young sons and an open marriage with his wife Betty Eager to become a writer to go against the grain he kept a record almost daily of the parties and the talk in pubs and studios about art and politics and sex of Communist Party branch meetings and film societies of political rallies and the first Herald Outdoor Art Show Somehow while holding down a public relations job in the Antarctic Division and juggling his love affairs and obsession with the beautiful brainy Fay he wrote 500 words almost every day Betty according to the diaries kept the show on the road feeding friends after the pub milking goats and working in her pottery making bowls and mugs which Tim sometimes decorated at weekends These Memoirs of a Young Bastard as Burstall dubbed himself and them are among the most evocative Australian diaries of modern times Burstall can write He has an eye for the telling detail an unerring ear for cant and pomposity and most endearingly an ability to mock himself always from the perspective of a bloke of his generation So Much, So Fast, So Little Time Michael St.

Clair,2011-08-09 This book examines the extraordinary changes that technology brings and how these affect all of us and our families at home at school and at our work places with profound consequences for society Twenty first century technology opens up fabulous opportunities but also changes how we relate to each other and warps our sense of time reality duty and privacy Technologies and time saving devices make everything happen faster with the result that we feel busier than ever before Free time seems in danger of extinction So Much So Fast So Little Time Coming to Terms with Rapid Change and Its Consequences provides fascinating insights about how our changing world is changing our families and our personal relationships how we travel behave as consumers and communicate and how we entertain ourselves and deal with our anxieties Written in a popular accessible style this book describes seven areas of significant societal change providing concrete examples and engaging stories to illustrate how drastically our right now mindset has shifted our perception and experience of the world In the last chapter the author makes some practical suggestions on how to take thoughtful action to respond to the onslaught of inevitable change The New York Times Index ,1993 The Cumulative Book Index ,1991

A world list of books in the English language Pinky Wesley Hall,2005-02 Pinky A Memoir of WWII is the first of four volumes about a young man who couldn't wait to join the U S Navy and go to the Pacific In this volume T J Thiggen is sixteen when Japan bombed Pearl Harbor He agrees with his mother to complete the school year 1942 1943 if she will sign his enlistment papers He goes through boot camp at Farragut Idaho and is transferred to Shoemaker California to await orders to ship overseas On his eighteenth birthday he boards the SS Eugene Skinner for the South Pacific and after 23 days he arrived in New Caledonia There he attends a Fleet Radio School works for a time at the COMSOPAC Service Squadron and after almost a year on this island he finally gets a transfer to a wooden subchaser which is headed north into the War Zone There are five subchasers in Noumea Harbor being converted to LCC's landing craft communications and because they each have a Walt Disney cartoon character painted on their bridges they are nicknamed MacArthur's Donald Duck Navy This part of the story about five wooden subchasers ends just as T J becomes the second radio on the USS SC 995 Girls, Autobiography, Media Emma Maguire,2018-04-05 This book investigates how girls automediate selves are constituted and consumed as literary or media products in a digital landscape dominated by intimate though quite public modes of self disclosure and pervaded by broader practices of self branding In thinking about how girlhood as a potentially vulnerable subject position circulates as a commodity Girls Autobiography Media argues that by using digital technologies to write themselves into culture girls and young women are staking a claim on public space and asserting the right to create and distribute their own representations of girlhood Their texts in the form of blogs vlogs photo sharing platforms online diaries and fangirl identities show how they navigate the sometimes hostile conditions of online spaces in order to become narrators of their own lives and stories By examining case studies across different digital forms of self presentation by girls and young women this book considers how mediation and autobiographical practices are deeply interlinked and it highlights the significant contribution girls and young women have made to contemporary digital forms of life narrative The Sundance Kid William Schoell, Lawrence J. Quirk,2006-05-25 1969 was Robert Redford's breakout year when he starred with Paul Newman in Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid Since that time he was continuously successful either as an actor or director His concern for the environment particularly in the American West has made him an important spokesman for conservation often lending his name to causes and charities that help support preservation and endangered species This comprehensive biography is based on extensive interviews with friends and colleagues as well as assistance provided by Redford himself
