Sharks Teeth Nose Art:

Shark's Teeth Nose Art Jeffrey L. Ethell, 1992 Aircraft Nose Art Andretta Schellinger, 2016-03-14 Since World War I nose art has adorned military aircraft around the world. Intended for friendly rather than enemy eyes, these images with a wide range of artistic expression are part of the personal and unit histories of pilots and aircrews. As civilian and military attitudes and rationales for war change from one conflict to the next, changes can also be seen in the iconography of nose art. This analysis from a cultural perspective compares nose art in the United States, Great Britain, and France from World War I, World War II, the Korean War, and the Vietnam War.

Vietnam War Army Helicopter Nose Art - Volume 2 John Brennan, 2021-07-11 Historian John D. Marshall wrote, "History is shaped by the memories of those who witness it and the intentions of those who record it." Vietnam veteran Hiawatha Oakes wrote, "I can't thank you enough for your efforts in obtaining a photo of my H-21, the Blue Angel, and having it in your book. My family calls your book 'lost pieces of treasures found.' These two quotations represent all that is relevant to the author in history: gathering the hard work and its rewards. Here in Volume 2, one will find equally astonishing photos on par with Volume 1, together with some self-help and researched info for sure to tease and delight the aficionado or veteran to unknown degrees. Besides the 165 images, there are search aids for locating one's former in-country Army helicopter. A listing is available of American sites where Huey Cobra rides are available. The Army Museum in Alabama offers a listing they have compiled of two dozen recommended Huey photo books. A tabulation of 300 AH-1 Cobra war survivors, their former units, and present location. Also offered is a database of 500 newly found in-country Army helicopter names. There's a little something for everyone."

Battle Exhortation Keith Yellin, 2013-06-10 A commanding study of the motivational speech of military leaders across the centuries. In this groundbreaking examination of the symbolic strategies used to prepare troops for imminent combat, Keith Yellin offers an interdisciplinary look into the rhetorical discourse that has played a prominent role in warfare history and popular culture from antiquity to the present day. Battle Exhortation focuses on one of the most time-honored forms of motivational communication: the encouraging speech of military commanders. To offer a pragmatic and scholarly evaluation of how persuasion contributes to combat leadership and military morale, Yellin illustrates his subject's conventions by drawing from the Bible, classical Greece, and Rome. Spanish conquistadors and American military forces. Yellin is also interested in how audiences are socialized to recognize and anticipate this type of communication that precedes difficult team efforts. To account for this dimension, he probes examples as diverse as Shakespeare's Henry V, George C. Scott's portrayal of General George S. Patton, and team sports.

Over the Front, 1990 Hotel Laguna Nicola Harrison, 2023-06-20 In 1942, Hazel Francis left Wichita, Kansas, for California, determined to do her part for the war effort. But now the war is over; men have returned to their factory jobs, and women like Hazel have been dismissed, expected to return home to become wives and mothers. Unwilling to be forced into a traditional woman's role in the Midwest Hazel remains on the west coast and finds herself in the bohemian town of Laguna Beach Desperate for work she accepts a job as an assistant to famous artist Hanson Radcliff Beloved by the locals for his contributions to the art scene and respected by the critics Radcliff lives under the shadow of a decades old scandal that haunts him Working hard to stay on her cantankerous employer's good side Hazel becomes a valued member of the community She never expected to fall in love with the rhythms of life in Laguna nor did she expect to find a kindred spirit in Jimmy the hotel bartender whose friendship promises something more But Hazel still wants to work with airplanes maybe even learn to fly one someday Torn between pursuing her dream and the dream life she has been granted she is unsure if giving herself over to Laguna is what her heart truly wants
