Shattering The Myth Of Race Genetic Realities And Biblical Truths:

Shattering the myth of race : genetic realities and biblical truths Dave Unander,2000 The Humanisation of Slavery in the Old Testament Thomas Schirrmacher,2018-05-10 The Humanisation of Slavery in Old Testament Law by David L Baker Slavery Human Dignity and Human Rights by John Warwick Montgomery Slavery in the Old Testament in the New Testament and Today by Thomas Schirrmacher Three scholars discuss slavery in the Old Testament and a Christian view of slavery They argue that slavery in the OT had not much in common with Roman Greek Muslim or modern European slavery as the slaves were protected by the legal system They believe that there is a road from the humanisation of slavery in the OT through the soft opposition against slavery in the New Testament to the abolition of slavery by Christians and in Christian nations The last essay contains a longer section on The Role of Evangelicals in the Abolition of Slavery that summarizes the research of the last decades showing that the uncorrupted oppositions by pious people and the power of the masses without direct political influence changed history the first major human rights campaign of history The Sam Sharpe Lectures E.P. Louis,Rosemarie Davidson,2023-11-30 Celebrating ten years of the annual Sam Sharpe Lectures this text is a collection of a decade s contribution from scholars thinkers activists and ministers responding to the legacy of Sam Sharpe a Jamaican National Hero This text documents these moving insightful and mobilising contributions and seeks to capture how Sharpe s legacy inspires action for justice in the 21st century Rooted in a radical Jamaican narrative The Sam Sharpe Lectures collectively demonstrate how Sharpe s legacy can inspire all people to be game changers despite life s challenges Sam Sharpe was enslaved yet through a grounding in Christian faith compassion justice and self determination became an agent for transformation and these lectures translate his legacy into tools for today s injustices Human Behavior Theory and Applications Elizabeth DePoy,Stephen French Gilson,2011-09-21 In Human Behavior Theory and Applications authors Elizabeth DePoy and Stephen Gilson use a critical thinking approach to engage students to think in depth about theory and its use in social work practice With a strong focus on diversity this book expands its theory coverage to include progressive and the most cutting edge contemporary thinking The authors skillfully introduce theory critically examine each theory including developmental theories environmental theories diversity theories systems theories and new and emerging theories and then apply each theory to social work practice providing a synthesis of classical and contemporary theory for scholarly analysis and application to professional intellectual and social action No Longer Slaves Brad Ronnell Braxton,2015-03-15 No Longer Slaves brings the ancient New Testament message into conversation with African American culture Twenty centuries after Paul penned Galatians American culture in general and American Christianity in particular continue to struggle with the problem of race relations Our challenges are not identical to those faced by Paul and the Galatians Yet when one reads Galatians through the lens of African American experience striking similarities emerge In No Longer Slaves Brad Braxton helps us see that race relations is a central issue in Galatians Paul believes that Christ came in order to unite Jews and Gentiles The church was intended to be a multi ethnic community in which persons of different backgrounds co existed harmoniously Any effort to compel Gentiles to live as Jews is an invalidation of the freedom of the Gospel Galatians offers us a portrait of an early Christian leader and community sorting out complex social issues No Longer Slaves explores the concept of liberation in African American experience It entails a discussion of American slavery Rather than depicting African Americans simply as victims of the crimes of slavery and segregation Braxton describes the creative cultural and religious responses of African Americans to their oppression He employs a type of reader response theory that considers the experiences of the reading community as a lens through which texts are read His discussion of methodology exposes the reader to some of the issues in the current debate without becoming burdensome to the non specialist The remainder of the book is an interpretation of Paul s letter to the Galatians Although Braxton takes seriously the original context of Galatians and his exegesis engages the Greek text he offers a contemporary theological reading that privileges the history experiences and concerns of African Americans Those who are concerned about the connection between Christianity and ethnicity will find this interpretation intriguing and challenging Chapters in Liberation and African American Experience are Introduction Liberation Rationales and Definitions Blackness Biology and Ideology and African American Biblical Interpretation Chapters in A Reading Strategy for Liberation are Reader Response Criticism and Black and Womanist Theologies The Bible and Authority in Reader Response Criticism and The African American Christian Interpretive Community Chapters in Galatians and African American Experience are Introduction Historical Overview Interpretations and Conclusion Includes a bibliography Brad Ronnell Braxton PhD is the Jessie Ball DuPont Assistant Professor of Homiletics and Biblical Studies at Wake Forest University Divinity School in Winston Salem North Carolina He is an ordained Baptist minister and for five years served as Senior Pastor of Douglas Memorial Community Church in Baltimore Maryland
