The Writer Writing Francis-Noël Thomas, 2014-07-14 In an age of authorless contextless deconstructed texts Francis No l Thomas argues that it is time to re examine a fundamental but neglected concept of literature writing is an action whose agent is an individual Addressing both general readers and scholars Thomas offers two cases Bernard Shaw s Saint Joan and Marcel Proust s A la recherche du temps perdu read against the background of the authors large eccentric and surprisingly similar claims about their texts as acts He examines what happens when we take these claims seriously enough to find out why the authors made them in the first place and what bearing they have on the texts themselves Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Bernard

Shaw's Irish Outlook David Clare, 2015-11-17 Using close readings of Shaw's plays and letters as well as archival research David Clare illustrates that Shaw regularly placed Irish Irish Diasporic and surrogate Irish characters into his plays in order to comment on Anglo Irish relations and to explore the nature of Irishness High and Low Moderns Maria

DiBattista, Lucy McDiarmid, 1996-12-05 This collection of essays on modernist culture reassesses the convergence of low and high cultures of socialist and aesthete late Victorian and young Georgian the popular and the coterie Academic literary studies have until recently preferred to treat the opaque difficult writings of high moderns Conrad Yeats Woolf and Eliot and the more accessible work of the low moderns Kipling Shaw and Wells in separate categories In contributions by scholars David Bromwich Roy Foster Edna Longley Louis Menand Edward Mendelson and others High and Low Moderns brings these writers into critical proximity Essays on such topics as the public mourning of Queen Victoria Florence Farr and the New Woman the Edwardian Shaw Lady Gregory's attraction to Irish felons and the high artistic uses of low entertainments cinema detective fiction and journalism introduce a subtler model of modernism in which demotic and elite cultural forms criticize imitate and address one another The Shape of Irish History A.T.Q. Stewart, 2001-10-10 In an exploration of the essential structure of what is called Irish history A T Q Stewart looks at some shadowy areas and asks provocative questions about popular misconceptions Even where such misconceptions have been refuted by academic research Stewart argues the information has not percolated into the general domain because modern historians writing mainly for one another have lost the wider audience Criticizing his own profession for purporting to be scientific while largely ignoring the implications of for example scientific archaeology Stewart also opens up the closed shop of Irish history for the general reader The result is a landmark book the terrain of Irish history will never be the same again The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2015-07-15 This volume of correspondence the last in a three volume edition spans a pivotal moment in American history the mid twentieth century from the beginning of World War II through the years of rebuilding and uneasy peace that followed the election of President John F Kennedy Robinson Jeffers published four important books during this period Be Angry at the Sun 1941 Medea 1946 The Double Axe 1948 and Hungerfield 1954 He also faced changes to his hometown village of Carmel experienced the rewards of being a successful dramatist in the United States and abroad and endured the loss of his wife Una Jeffers letters and those of Una written in the decade prior to her death offer a vivid chronicle of the life and times of a singular and visionary poet A W.B. Yeats Chronology J. Kelly,2015-12-17 W B Yeats one of the greatest poets who wrote in English was also a playwright theatre director essayist Senator and life long occultist He knew practically every important figure in the cultural and public life of his time including Oscar Wilde Winston Churchill James Joyce Ezra Pound and Eamon de Valera In recording the details of these relationships and tracing his prolific literary output this book is a vivid witness to an extraordinarily important rich and crowded life as a context for his work Irish Writing London: Volume 1 Tom Herron,2012-12-06 The presence of Irish writers is almost invisible in literary studies of London Irish Writing London redresses the critical deficit A range of experts on particular Irish writers reflect on the diverse experiences and impact this immigrant group has had on the city Such sustained attention to a location and concern of Irish writing long passed over opens up new terrain to not only reveal but create a history of Irish London writing Alongside discussions of Wilde Shaw Joyce and Yeats the writing of the political nationalist Katharine Tynan and work of Irish Language writer Conaire is considered Written by an international array of scholars these new essays on key figures challenge the deep seated stereotype of what constitutes the proper domain of Irish writing producing a study that is both culturally and critically alert and a dynamic contribution to literary criticism of the city

A History of Modern Drama, Volume I David Krasner,2011-11-07 Covering the period 1879 to 1959 and taking in everything from Ibsen to Beckett this book is volume one of a two part comprehensive examination of the plays dramatists and movements that comprise modern world drama Contains detailed analysis of plays and playwrights connecting themes and offering original interpretations Includes coverage of non English works and traditions to create a global view of modern drama Considers the influence of modernism in art music literature architecture society and politics on the formation of modern dramatic literature Takes an interpretative and analytical approach to modern dramatic texts rather than focusing on production history Includes coverage of the ways in which staging practices design concepts and acting styles informed the construction of the dramas Pygmalion and Galatea Essaka Joshua,2021-09-09 This title was published in 2001

Pygmalion and Galatea presents an account of the development of the Pygmalion story from its origins in early Greek myth until the twentieth century It focuses on the use of the story in nineteenth century British literature exploring gender issues the nature of artistic creativity and the morality of Greek art Telling the Story of Translation Judith

Woodsworth,2017-08-10 Scholars have long highlighted the links between translating and re writing increasingly blurring the line between translations and so called original works Less emphasis has been placed on the work of writers who translate and the ways in which they conceptualize or even fictionalize the task of translation This book fills that gap and thus will be of interest to scholars in linguistics translation studies and literary studies Scrutinizing translation through a new lens Judith Woodsworth reveals the sometimes problematic relations between author and translator along with the evolution of the translator s voice and visibility The book investigates the uses and abuses of translation at the hands of George

Bernard Shaw Gertrude Stein and Paul Auster prominent writers who bring into play assorted fictions as they tell their stories of translations Each case is interesting in itself because of the new material analysed and the conclusions reached Translation is seen not only as an exercise and fruitful starting point it is also a way of paying tribute repaying a debt and cementing a friendship Taken together the case studies point the way to a teleology of translation and raise the question what is translation for Shaw Stein and Auster adopt an authorial posture that distinguishes them from other translators They stretch the boundaries of the translation proper their words spilling over into the liminal space of the text in some cases they hijack the act of translation to serve their own ends Through their tales of loss counterfeit and hard labour they cast an occasionally bleak glance at what it means to be a translator Yet they also pay homage to translation and provide fresh insights that continue to manifest themselves in current works of literature By engaging with translation as a literary act in its own right these eminent writers confer greater prestige on what has traditionally been viewed as a subservient art
