She's forced to accept that childhood family friend, now police detective Riley Duncan, must be told the brutal truth if she is to keep herself and her family safe. With Riley's support, Cait begins to recover her strength, but civil war erupts around her friends in Umoja, and her harrowing secret becomes the key to that nation's future. Less than three hours after Lincoln Davis's graduation, his father delivers him an ultimatum: come back home to Mississippi and start paying rent on his bedroom or fend for himself in Atlanta as a completely independent adult. Choosing the latter, Lincoln finds himself meeting a whole new cast of characters who help him to navigate this new terrain. Old and Alone Jeremy Tunstall, 2024-05-10. What is it like to be an isolated old widow living alone on the bare old age pension? In the 1960s, the question had become a standard refrain. Originally published in 1966, this was the first full-length study by a sociologist of isolation in old age. Although the majority of old people were in no sense a problem group at the time, a substantial minority of the elderly were alone in one or more ways. About 1.3 million people aged sixty-five and over in Britain lived alone; a large number admitted to feeling lonely at least sometime. About a million were actually socially isolated in terms of low level and frequency of social contact. Mr Tunstall also uses a fourth category of aloneness, namely anomie, as developed by Durkheim, Merton, and Srole. This report uses careful and statistical analysis of the four types of aloneness and of specially affected groups such as the single the recently widowed and the housebound But it also includes details of interviews with ten highly individual old people from suburban Harrow booming Northampton industrial revolution Oldham and rural South Norfolk The book contains a discussion of the problem of personality in isolation and a commentary on the inadequacies of social theory about old age Finally the concluding chapter suggests a wide variety of policy measures which might help to alleviate social isolation in old age The Widowed Self Deborah Kestin van den Hoonaard,2009-10-22 How do older women come to terms with widowhood Are they vulnerable or courageous predictable or creative in dealing with this life challenge Most books about widows usually focus on younger women this book interweaves the voices of older widows their experiences and insights to show how they have come to terms with widowhood and have recreated their lives in new unsuspected ways The widows speak about how they relate to their children their friends to men With powerful emotions they describe their husbands final illnesses and deaths and the challenging early days of widowhood Disputing stereotypes about older women and widows The Widowed Self allows the reader to visualize the impact of losing one's life partner and offers a new way of thinking about widowhood This new book by Deborah Kestin van den Hoonaard fills a void in previous work on widowhood Rather than seeing these women as unfortunate passive victims of life the reader will come to appreciate the strength and creativity with which these women face one of life's greatest challenges a challenge that affects more than half of all women over the age of sixty five Widows and their families scholars social workers and other professionals who work with older adults will all be interested in reading The Widowed Self The Older Woman's Journey through Widowhood The World Without, the Mind Within André Gallois,1996-12-12 A challenging study of the character of our knowledge of our own intentional states A Library of Poetry and Song William Cullen Bryant,1874 Vietnamese Choice Poems Nhuan Xuan Le,2013-10-30 This is a collection of English verse translations of poems written by authors of Vietnamese origin living nearly all over the world Our humble wish is to introduce their culture to you poetry loving readers The end of the Vietnam War brought about among others two consequences the Vietnam Syndrome and the Boat People The Vietnamese who fled their country following the collapse of the South Vietnamese Republic of Vietnam government in 1975 consisted of those who crossed the ocean crowded into small boats and those who crossed the border stealthily amid wild jungles constantly throughout two decades totaling nearly one million This did not include about half that number who lost their lives because of the communist police the pirates dehydration starvation and drowning And since the majority did it by sea they all were called Boat People Approximately half that million were received and resettled in the United States while the rest in Australia Canada France the United Kingdom Germany Japan Switzerland Norway Sweden New Zealand Belgium Finland and many other countries The current strength of the Vietnamese communities in 150 different countries of the world is estimated at over three millions mostly in the US Together most Vietnamese individuals and organizations abroad now would consider themselves Political Refugees And they have their own unnamed Vietnamese's Vietnam Syndrome which is different from and more complicated than the Americans Vietnam Syndrome Not only the Vietnamese Political Refugees themselves but also their descendants the next generations do have in their hearts and minds the same emotions and reflections Naturally poets are among those who experience so deeply their personal ups and downs as well as understand so profoundly their fellow citizens vicissitudes of life that they cannot fail to express their true sentiments and thoughts in their writings You will find in this anthology through 146 poems by 81 Vietnamese of both sexes and of various ages living in the USA Australia Belgium Canada France Germany Norway and Vietnam the core of their feelings or syndrome Feud with those who have caused deaths injuries pain separation from relatives loss of properties nostalgia gratitude to the host countries that have offered refuge and opportunities improvements to integrate into and contribute to the welfare of their adoptive societies aspirations for a free democratic and prosperous Vietnam These poets however have tried to maintain their four thousand year old cultural legacy while self confidently to integrate into the melting pot The authors are not only individuals strangers of a different race but as human beings reading their works might suggest to widen our knowledge to discover learn about and sympathetically share their situation somewhat our very own human condition We hope that this might be a modest part in promoting communication and understanding between nations THI NH N House documents ,1882
